London, June 13.—The death of forty-nine persons and the injury of two hundred in to-day's air raid was announced in the house of lords to-day by the Earl of Derby, secretary of state for war. The secretary said he feared these figures would be exceeded when fuller reports had been received.

tance.
"The east end of London has been attacked and bombed, but no reports have yet been received of casualties or damage done. Antiaircraft guns of the London defenses have been in action. A large number of airplanes are still up in pursuit."

This is the fourth raid made by the Germans in the new series of serial attacks on England, in which airplanes have been substituted for Zeppelins, apparently on account of the success of the British in bringing down the dirigibles. As on previous occasions, the airplanes made the attack in daylight. The last previous raid was on June 5, when eighteen airplanes dropped bombs on Essex and Kent.

For Harrisburg and vicinity: Generally cloudy to-night and Thursday, probably showers Thursday afternoon; mild temperature.

For Eastern Pennsylvania: Partly overcast to-night and Thursday, probably followed by showers late Thursday afternoon or night; mild temperature; gentle south winds.

River
The upper portion of the main river will fall to-night and Thursday, the lower portion will rise slightly to-night and begin to fall Thursday. All tributaries will probably fall. A stage of about 7.2 feet is indicated for Harrisburg Thursday morning.

Goes to Jail "With Perfect Contentment" to Escape His Wife

Charlestown, W. Va., June 13. — Because he placarded the town with posters showing a large picture of his wife and calling attention to her faults, H. I. Moore was arrested and fined by Judge Burdelle in a municipal court. After he had paid his fine, Moore was again arrested on the complaint of his wife.

When taken to jail, Moore said he could go there "with perfect contentment," as it could be no worse than he had been accustomed to in his home for a long time.

The posters which caused the trouble were placed in conspicuous places by Moore himself and read as follows:
