RAILROAD MEN CHANGE PROGRAM

C. N. Jackson to Sing Tenor Solo at Memorial Services Sunday Afternoon

Changes in the plans for the annual memorial services of the local transportation brotherhood lodges have been announced. Due to the death of S. L. Sproule, a member of the Pennsylvania Railroad Glee Club, C. N. Jackson, of Middletown, will sing the tenor solo and will fill the vacancy in the quartet.

Part of Program

The solo is a part of Sunday's program arranged for the twenty-second annual memorial service of local brotherhood organizations. The exercises will be held in the Family Theater, Third and Hill streets, on Sunday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. W. H. Patrick, chairman of the committee, will be master of ceremonies. He will make the opening address. The principal speakers will be Associate Judge S. J. M. McCarrell and the Rev. Harry Nelson Bassler, pastor of Second Reformed Church. Similar exercises were held last Sunday at Philadelphia, Altoona and other cities. This may bring to Harrisburg a number of prominent officials of the brotherhoods. Warren S. Stone, head of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, it is understood, is in the East and may come to Harrisburg.

Harrisburg Aids in Raising Funds For Jewish War Relief

The American Jewish relief committee, which is engaged in the $10,000,000 campaign to come to the aid of the millions of starving Jews in Europe, announces from its New York headquarters that Harrisburg is playing a large part in raising the vast sum.

Henry Morgenstau, ex-Ambassador to Turkey, is chairman of the campaign committee, and Jacob Bilikopf is the executive director. Already more than $4,000,000 toward the $10,000,000 has been raised. The work has now been organized in every community in the United States in which there are Jews, and it is expected that the sum sought for 1917 will be raised prior to November 1, the day on which the offer of Julius Rosenwald, of Chicago, to give ten per cent of all the money raised in the United States, up to an individual contribution of $1,000,000, expires.

Many other men throughout the country have followed Mr. Rosenwald's lead and have offered to give ten per cent of the amounts raised in their respective towns, cities, or states.

Commerce Commission Makes Rule on Dynamite

Washington, D. C., June 13.—The Interstate Commerce Commission's order, permitting the transportation of explosives by express train or in express cars in passenger trains, was amended yesterday to restrict such shipments to emergency requirements of the army or navy.

The amended order requires that a declaration be filed in writing with the express company from the senior of two military or naval headquarters, declaring that an emergency exists which requires the quick transportation of the explosives in question.

Express agents are required to forward the declarations to the chief inspector of the Bureau of Explosives in New York, "whose duty it will be to co-operate with the War and Navy Departments to prevent any abuse of this permission by an unnecessary resort to transportation of dangerous explosives by express."

Cars containing explosives transported by express, the Commission held, need not be guarded, but train and express employees must be advised of the presence and location of such cars in the train.

Funeral services for Mrs. Isabel C. Pierce, wife of Edward R. Pierce, were held from the home, 1715 North Second street, this afternoon, at 2 o'clock with the Rev. Dr. John D. Fox, of Germantown, officiating, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Robert Bagwell, pastor of the Grace Methodist Church of this city.

Several intimate friends of Mrs. Pierce sang "The Half Was Never Told," and burial was made in the Harrisburg Cemetery. The pallbearers were: Harry R. Mrs. Pierce, a native of Georgia, came to this city with her husband, who is manager of the State Capital Savings and Loan Association, about fifteen years ago. She was a member of the Grace Methodist Church and interested in its activities, as well as in various charities of the little children, turned especially to the crippled ones, and she has done much to lighten their burden, along the lines of sunshine work as well as by private benefactions.

Recently returned from Florida where they had spent the winter, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce were all ready for another journey to the Blue mountains when suddenly she was stricken with heart failure and died in a few minutes Sunday morning.
