"The war was begun by the mill-tary masters of Germany, who proved to be also the masters of Austria-Hungary. These men have never regarded nations as peoples, men, women and children of like blood and frame as themselves, for whom governments existed and in whom governments had their life. They have regarded them merely as serviceable organizations which they could by force or intrigue bend or corrupt to their own purpose. They have regarded the smaller states, in particular, and the peoples who could be overwhelmed by force, as their natural tools and instruments of domination. Their purpose has long been avowed. their natural tools and Instruments of domination. Their purpose has not been avowed. Berned Incredible The statesmen of other nations, the paid little attention: resarded within their classrooms and German writers set forth to the world as the ord of German policy as rather the dream of minds detached from prac-tions of German detains, that as the actual plans of responsible villers but the rulers of Germany entress but the rulers of Germany entress but the rulers of Germany withing the throngs of Balkan furtigues lay back of what the pro-furkey to drill her armies and make with German policy as rather the dream officers at the service of furkey to drill her armies and make with German polices, putting furkey to drill her armies, furting furkey to drill her armies and make whether fires in Persia. The demands made by Austria upon Servia were a momenta might not arouse Europe, they denot not, for they though they meant to press them wheth is made view rather they thought they meant to the to the states wheth is might of arouse Europe, they did not not, for they thought they did not not, for they thought them selves ready for the final issue of mean. Belt of IGN themselves ready for the final issue of arms. Belt of Iron Their plan was to throw a broad belt of German military power and political control across the very cen-ter of Europe and beyond the Medi-terranean into the heart of Asia; and and Austria-Hungary was to be as much their tool and pawn as Servia or Bulgaria or Turkey or the pon-derous states of the East. Austria-Hungary, indeed, was to become part of the Central German empire, ab-sorbed and dominated by the same forces and influences that had orig-inally ceménted the German states themselves. The dream had its heart of arms.
