KENNEDY-SMITH BRIDAL AT NOON

Young Couple Will Make Beautiful Paxtang Flowers Simple Church Services Fol-Their Home in New England in the Fall

With the quietest of services, owing to the recent death of the bride's father, Miss Anna F. Smith, daughter of Mrs. Charles G. Smith, 2019 North Second street, was united in marriage at noon to-day to Raymond Davenport Kennedy, of Brunswick, Maine, by the Rev. William Dailey. of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church.

The girlish bride wore a dainty costume of white georgette crepe and carried a shower of orchids and val-costume of white georgette crepe and carried a shower of orchids and valley lilles. She was attended by Miss Helen M. Bennethum as maid of honor, whose costume was of pink georgette crepe. She carried a large round bouquet of sweet peas and roses tied with tulle streamers. Robert O. Conant was best man.

A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony at the home of the bride, where early stimmer flowers made a beautiful setting for the bridal party and immediate families.

A leisurely journey through New York and New England will be followed by a residence at Farmington, Maine, where in the autumn Mr. Kennedy, a son of Mrs. C. B. Kennedy, will be a member of the faculty of the Abbott School for Boys. Mr. Kennedy is a graduate of Bowdoin College and has been teaching at the Harrisburg Academy for the past two years. Mrs. Kennedy, who completed her education at the Mount Marion Seminary, Washington, D. C., has a wide circle of friends among the younger set of the city. Among the wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. Rossiter R. Fernow, of Cynwyd, and Mrs. Charles G. Smith, of Atlantic City.
