

Informal Dinner Dance as Birthday Celebration

One of the prettiest of June events was the informal dinner dance given last evening in the Colonial Country Club by Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Kenney of Paxtang, in honor of their daughter, Miss Gertrude Ogden Kenney, who was celebrating her eighteenth birthday. Summer flowers in profusion were used in decorating and the guests spent a happy evening dancing to music by Sourbler.

In attendance were the Misses Dorothy Mac Sheffray, Margaret Stucker, Isabelle White, Rhea Wright, Helen Kokeneder, Mildred Sheesley, Mable Kreamer, Catherine Martin, Gladys Reckley and Gertrude Ogden Kenney; James Carey, Robert Seitz, Arthur Gardner, Russell Lindsey, Frederick Wright, Arthur Raymond Long, William Douglas, Wilson Roberts, Edwin Baum, Earl Dougherty, Mrs. Lou C. Owey, Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Kenney.

Susquehanna Youngsters Spend Day in the Country

A happy party of children from the Susquehanna Open-Air School, in charge of Miss Marian Williams and Miss Martha Fox, started to-day for an outing near Williams Grove, on the Williams farm. There were sixty in the crowd and a delightful day in the crowd and a delightful day was anticipated on starting in a big Mack auto truck, loaned through the courtesy of R. E. Harrison. At the farm the day in the open was thoroughly enjoyed and the youngsters made acquaintance with the domestic animals, the birds and fowls.

Dinner was served by Mrs. Rosie O'Hall, Mrs. Frank Bolan and Mrs. J. M. Williams, with George W. McHenry, John Gray and the Rev. S. W. Herman as guests of honor. Mrs. Brothens furnished all the ice cream, and others could eat, the delicious cakes came from Thorley, and there were pretzels galore from the Harrisburg Pretzel Company, beside sandwiches of all kinds and the usual picnic fare.

SOCIETY HONORS AMERICAN FLAG

Dauphin County Historians Hear Flag Day Address by President Theodore Klein

THEODORE B. KLEIN

President Theodore B. Klein presided at the forty-eighth annual meeting of the Dauphin County Historical Society, last evening, at their house, 9 South Front street, where a goodly number of members gathered for the celebration.

A brief sketch of its history was given, telling of its early beginnings with thirteen charter members, and its work for the preservation of records and relics through all the years; of the house it now owns through the generosity of William Kelker, and of the present enthusiastic membership of two hundred. As the date was Flag Day, President Klein repeated his famous address on "The History of the Flag." He spoke of its first adoption as the official song of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and a celebrated campaign song of recent years.

After the program there was a social hour with refreshments. The house was most elaborately decorated with garden flowers, peonies, roses and syringia, gifts from Mrs. Joseph A. Thompson, John Franklin Eostick and Mrs. Stutzman, all members of the society.

CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY WITH A LITTLE DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Willis Davis of Clandennin, River Road, celebrated their sixth wedding anniversary last evening with a dinner of twenty-two covers at the County Club of Harrisburg. The decorations were of pink, with roses, peonies and other summer flowers. Among the guests were Miss Faith Lee of Philadelphia and Miss Anna Orth of this city, two of the bridesmaids at the wedding held at the Bitner farm.

Mrs. Jesse E. B. Cunningham, who has been very ill for several months, is slowly regaining her health in Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Neville and small daughter, Harriet Neville, of Baltimore, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Houser of Market street for a week or two.

Miss Flora Killinger of Lebanon is the guest of Mrs. George Preston Mains, 319 North Front street, and attended the Lemcke-Sawyer wedding yesterday.

W. H. Fetter Succeeds Gilpin as Manager of Local Bell District

W. H. FETTER

William Henry Fetter arrived in this city last night to assume his new duties as local manager of the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania, with offices at 210 Walnut street. Mr. Fetter is the successor of Edmund W. Gilpin, who has enlisted in Troop A, First Cavalry, National Guard of Pennsylvania, for service in the war.

Mr. Fetter entered the employ of the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia in 1911 as a clerk. He rapidly advanced to the position of chief clerk of the Germantown district and then to supervisor of salesmen of the same territory. Mr. Fetter is a graduate of Philadelphia grammar schools, Philadelphia Central high school and the Pierce Business College. He is 32 years of age and unmarried.

STEWART-SMITH MORNING BRIDAL

Pretty Home Ceremony To-day Unites Well-Known Young Folks

The marriage of Miss Kathryn Musser Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Smith, to Henry Wagner Stewart, of this city, took place this morning at 11 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, 1315 North Second street. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate families by the Rev. Dr. Henry R. Bender, pastor of the Ridge Avenue Methodist Church, assisted by the Rev. William M. Yates, of the Fourth Street Church of God. Miss Margaret Yates, of Shippensburg, played the wedding music.

The bride, who was unattended, wore a traveling costume of violet homespun and small black hat. Her corsage bouquet was of white roses and valley lilies. She was given in marriage by her father. Following a wedding journey Mr. and Mrs. Stewart will make their home at 1842 Chestnut street.

The house was aglow with ferns, peonies and garlands of laurel and a color scheme of pink and white prevailed in appointments for the wedding breakfast served after the service.

The bride is a graduate of the Central High School and Drexel Institute, Philadelphia, where she completed a course in domestic science. Mr. Stewart is a graduate of the Central High School, is an alumnus of the Technical High School, and is now an attaché of the Schell seed store, Market street.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Farnham and son, of Coatesville; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Beldeman, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Rice and daughter, of Chambersburg; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gates, son, Galen Gates, and Miss Margaret Gates, of Shippensburg; Mrs. M. E. Landis, Miss Besse Landis, of Newville, and Mrs. C. B. Stewart, of Washington, D. C.

DECORATIONS OF WHITE AND PINK

Profusion of Summer Flowers Decorate Memorial Lutheran Church For Wedding

One of the prettiest weddings ever held in Memorial Lutheran Church will be that of Miss Mary Esther Wolf and the Rev. Robert Jacob Wolf, taking place at 6 o'clock this evening. The marriage will be performed by the Rev. Dr. Lewis C. Manges, pastor of the church, assisted by the Rev. Edward Manges, son of the Messiah Lutheran Church, using the double ring ceremony.

Decorations in white and pink with roses and peonies make an attractive setting against the darker background of ferns and palms banked on either side of the altar. The general decorative scheme is suggested throughout the church by clusters of peonies tied with pink and white tulle attached to the alternating pews.

The bride is wearing a gown of white crepe de chine with Irish point collar, frilled panels of georgette and pearl trimmings. Her tulle veil will be caught with orange blossoms and her shower bouquet is of white roses and sweet peas. The attendants include Miss Marjorie Mae Wolf, her sister, Miss Clara E. Wolf, a sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Kit Morgan, who will wear a gown of white silk net with touches of pink and carry arm bouquets of pink and white roses. The flower girls are to be the little Miss Honey Wolf and Miss Bonnie Dunlap, of Washington, D. C. in white tulle lingerie dresses and carrying baskets of pink and white rosebuds. The best man, P. B. S. Rice, and the usher, Paul Russell Clouser, George Shillinger, Paul Lousenslager and Statton Rice, of Baltimore, Md., are members of the same fraternity and college chums of Mr. Wolf.

J. Herbert Springer played for the bride party, using Wagner's "Lohengrin" as a processional and the Mendelssohn wedding march as a recessional.

Following the ceremony there will be a reception for the relatives and friends in the church with an informal reception following for the bride party at the home of the bride, 310 Kelker street.

After a wedding trip to the South Mountains, Caledonia and various places in that vicinity the Rev. and Mrs. Wolf will be "at home" to their friends after June 25 at 1426 Reding street.

Miss Wolf is an alumna of the Central high school and recently graduated from the deaconess mother house, Baltimore, Md., where she completed the course in deaconess training.

The Rev. Mr. Wolf, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob C. E. Wolf, of 1426 Regina street, is a graduate of the Harrisburg Academy, 1910, of the Gettysburg College, 1914, a member of this year's graduating class of the Gettysburg Seminary and a Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity man. Following his college course he purposed going as a foreign missionary to British Guiana, South America, but due to the fact that he could obtain no passport for that country as a Lutheran minister he will take up his ministerial work in this country.

Mrs. James A. Rankin has gone to New York city to spend two weeks with her mother.

Miss Alice Slobodsky, of New Kensington, will arrive in the city tomorrow for a visit with Miss Goldie Roth, at 626 Cumberland street.

SHOPPING IN JUNE

Thoughts For the Sweet Girl Graduate and the June Bride

The Commencement Gift
Every gift should symbolize a thought, and at commencement time it is especially fitting to give the graduate a gift of some piece of jewelry, for such a gift has an intrinsic value that lasts forever. A gift need not be expensive to meet these requirements. At Jacob Tausig's Sons, 420 Market street, there are many suggestions—lavallieres, rings, pins, powder boxes, vanity cases, etc. for the girls, and cuff links, stick pins, sterling silver belt buckles, gold knives, etc. for the boys—which may be purchased at a cost of from $1.00 to $5.00. Indeed, at this store prices are exceptionally reasonable, and an example of one of their unusual offerings is a genuine full-cut diamond ring, which they sell for just $5.00.

A Refreshing Treat
To come home, hot and tired after a day's work, and find a tasty supper prepared with plenty of refreshing iced tea is a pleasant treat that costs but little and gives untold satisfaction. The Grand Union Tea Co., 208 North Second street, offer a special Granuto ice tea, which is an exceptionally fine blend, making a delicious, strong tea without any trace of bitterness, which can be freed, diluted and has a beautiful amber color when served cold. Besides their special iced teas, this store offers delicious orange, lemon and other fruit phosphates which sell for just 25 cents a bottle and each bottle makes sixty glasses.

Conveniences For the Bride
There is no gift more acceptable to the bride of to-day than an electric appliance, especially if it is one of the attractive electric table appliances which makes it possible to prepare simple breakfasts, luncheons and suppers right on the dining table. The Harrisburg Electric Light and Power Co., 22 North Second street offer several special appliances at very reasonable prices, and among the most attractive of these is the coffee percolator in the exquisite shape of a Grecian urn, which makes a beautiful wedding gift, while every bride will want one of the wonderful radiant grills with which it is possible to fry, toast, broil and boil, preparing several dishes at the same time.

New Summer Oxfords at $5.00
To-morrow is the last of the special summer selling event which is being featured at the Walk-Over Boot Shop, 226 Market street, and anyone who has not already taken advantage of their special offers, should not miss the unusual opportunity to-morrow. Every oxford in the store, including the new crepe oxfords, sport oxfords in white and tan, and the regular smart models in black—in fact everything in summer oxfords that could be desired will be sold to-morrow at the one special price of $5.00, and all of these oxfords are new, perfect in every detail and finished with characteristic Walk-Over skill.
