Entered at the Post Office in Harrisburg, Pa., as a second class matter.

SATURDAY EVENING, JUNE 16

And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.—John 8:32.

HOE! HOE! HOE!

NOW are the days when the little gardens all over the land are hanging in the balance.

TIP TO THE KAISER

AND now come the German newspapers with stories denying that the Kaiser owns immense cattle ranches in America.

MONSIEUR'S SOCK

FRENCH willingness to expend in this country all the money which we loan to that government is entirely consistent.

GIBBONS AND AMERICA

THE New York Times discusses the immense service Cardinal Gibbons rendered the nation when he won his fight against the Europeanizing of the Catholic Church in America.

WAR SHOWS UP SOCIALISM

JOHN SPARGO, the most high-minded of American Socialists, has quit the party because he finds it now entirely pro-German.

THANKS TO THE PRESS

THE percentage of opposition to registration preliminary to the draft was surprisingly small.

BRUSILOFF AS CHIEF

ONE little item seeped out of Russia the other day, obtained a trifling notice in the newspapers and then dropped from sight.

GOOD INVESTMENT

PEOPLE who subscribed for Liberty Loan bonds will live to see the day they will thank those who induced them to invest.

THE LIBERTY LOAN

WHEN the old Liberty Bell rang out its sharp call to duty the other day it at the same moment tolled the requiem of Kaiserism in the world.

Politics in Pennsylvania

By the Ex-Committeeman

Some final determination about the legislative program for the last two weeks of the session, which is now expected to end on June 28, will be reached in Philadelphia over the week-end.

Philadelphia legislation occupies a peculiar position on the House calendar. The Hefferman bill to take policemen and firemen out of politics was defeated last week and it is figured out that fourteen men who have been classed as Penrose supporters voted against it.

Let Every Man Register

Why not a registration for every man in the United States? Let Uncle Sam complete the job of taking stock of himself.

Mistakes of Allies

The capital mistakes made by the Allies are as follows: They believed that a friendly agreement with Bulgaria was possible, although that country was treaty bound to Berlin.

Road of Homely Hearts

I have climbed the crags, Bleeding, still Higher shall I climb Until I can touch heaven with my hand.

When School Lets Out

The gladdest path for any boy To follow in the spring When school lets out is just the road To Grandma's, wandering By brushy fence rows on and on

THE SLACKER

She: Are you going to enlist? He: Well I would if I thought I couldn't pass the examination.

WELL KNOWN PEOPLE

—W. W. Comfort, the new president of Haverford, is well known to a number of Harrisburgers.

to become at once a certificate of patriotism and a splendid investment.

PATRIOTISM BEGINS AT HOME

THE following are a few extracts from an editorial under this heading in Pictorial Review for July:

"Patriotic patriotism is a pitfall that American women would do well to guard against. In the first six months of the European war when women rushed in, infant mortality jumped in six months to the highest rate in years, and a well-known writer said, 'Unless drastic steps are taken to remedy this evil, posterity will have harsh things to say of a generation that allowed its women to do men's work to the neglect of duties which nature and the nation's interest called upon them to perform.'"

"From such experiences as these American women can learn valuable lessons, and they must not be stampeded by a false sense of patriotism and shrill cries of impending disaster. The first call on woman is for woman's work, and in doing war service she should neither attempt to do men's work, nor neglect the work that none but women can do. It is for every woman to realize that she has some definite contribution to make to the nation, and that it is her duty to consider, with intelligence and deliberation, what that duty is."
