Acting I or Mrs. J. C. of Mrs. J. C. dark and class day exercises of the Halifax High school will be held together on Friday, June 22, at 7,30 p. m. Next Sunday evening, the Rev. H. B. Slider will preach the baccalaureate sermon in the Methodist Episcopal Church. The honor men are: Calutatory, Martin Keiter, of Matamoras, and valedictorian, Harry C. Chubb, of Halifax. The class has made a good record and not one of the eight members was required to take final examinations, as the rank of each was above 85.

REPLANTING WDE?

a large farm, and whose fruit together with his growing wheat crop, were destroyed by the recent hall storm, is busily engaged in plowing up some of the ground that was in wheat. He expects to plant thirteen acres of the land in broom corn, while several other acres will be planted in tomatoes and cabbage. Mr. Morganthall's loss by the hall storm amounted to over $10,000.
