DEMONSTRATION CHURCH WEDDING FOR HOUSEWIVES FOR THIS COUPLE

Practical Methods of Canning and Drying Fruits and Vegetables Shown

Miss Elizabeth Loper and Clifford H. Zellers Will Be Married This Evening

As many of the housewives of the city as can will be glad to avail themselves of the privilege of attending the Civic Club to-morrow and Wednesday afternoons at 2 o'clock, when Miss Kathryn Brooke, of this city, and Miss Lillian Elmore, of Swarthmore, will give their services free for the Red Cross in a practical demonstration of canning and drying vegetables and fruit.

MISS ELIZABETH LOPER

Miss Elizabeth Loper, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Frank Loper, of 1926 North Third street, will become the bride of Clifford H. Zellers this evening. The ceremony will be performed in the Maclay Street Church of God, by the Rev. Dr. J. C. Fornbrook.

Mrs. Herman Sayford will play the wedding marches, using the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" as a prelude, and the Mendelssohn "Wedding March" as a recessional. The bride, who will be unattended, will wear an exquisite frock of goldorgette crepe with a corsage of bride roses and fern.

Following a trip to New York and Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Zellers will reside at 2143 North Sixth street, where they will be "at home" to their friends after July 1.

Miss Loper has been a long distance operator for the Bell Telephone Company for the past three years, and has won a wide popularity. Mr. Zellers is employed in the revenue accounting department of the Bell Telephone Company, and is a student at the University of Pennsylvania. Wharton School of Accounts and Finance.

BRIDESMAID AT WEDDING

Miss Maude Stamm, of Thirteenth and Reese streets, was one of the bridesmaids Saturday at the marriage of Miss Eleanor Edmonds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Edmonds, of Germantown, to H. Stanley Ketcham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ketcham, 2143 North Sixth street.

SHEPHERD-RHINE MARRIAGE

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Rhine, of 222 South Fifteenth street, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mae Rhine, to Claude Sheffer, son of Daniel Sheffer, 1824 Catherine street. The ceremony was an event of Saturday morning, June 14, at the rectory of St. Francis Roman Catholic Church, with the Rev. Joseph Murphy officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Sheffer will reside at 222 South Fifteenth street for the present.

OFFICER ON U. S. DESTROYER

Francis Rawley Shoemaker, class of '99, Harrisburg high school, is first lieutenant on the United States destroyer Huntington. Lieutenant Shoemaker is a nephew of the Misses Hoagland, 1401 North Front street.

HERE FOR COMMENCEMENT

Miss Virginia Boyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Boyd, of State College, are in the city visiting friends while attending the commencement festivities of Central high school. Miss Boyd's daughter, Miss Virginia Boyd, is a member of the graduating class and she will return home with her mother the last of the week.

MARRIAGE COMES AS A SURPRISE

Young Couple Eludes Friends and Has Ceremony Performed in This City

MR. AND MRS. JOHN E. EMERICK

Much to the surprise of their many friends John E. Emerick, of Lemoyne, and Miss Anna V. Fike were married at the parsonage of the Second Reformed Church by the pastor, the Rev. Harry Nelson Bassler, Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Even though both families knew of the planned wedding no one was informed when and where it was to take place.

Immediately after the ceremony the newlyweds left for Atlantic City, Philadelphia and New York. On their return they will reside at the home of the bridegroom's parents, in Lemoyne.

John Emerick is a corporal in the Eighth Regiment, and is employed in the Bridge and Construction department of the Bethlehem Steel Company's plant at Steelton. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Emerick, Sr., and is well known in Lemoyne and this city. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Fike, of Enola, and has a wide circle of friends.

Mrs. Munce Is Hostess For a Red Cross Party

Mrs. T. Edward Munce invited a number of friends to spend Saturday afternoon at her suburban residence, 1034 South Eighteenth street, where a most interesting time was enjoyed, working on Red Cross supplies and making acquaintance with the chickens.

A buffet supper was served in the dining room where yellow roses graced the table and yellow candles in crystal candelabra shed a soft light.

The party included Miss Cora Snowden, Mrs. Mabel Miller, Miss Katharine Spofford, Miss Chadwick, Mrs. Cameron of Washington, Pa.; Miss Mary E. Butterworth, Miss Cecelia Hinkley, Miss Sara Eppley, Miss Mabel Shelly, Miss Jean Hauch, Miss Sara Weitzel, Miss Mary Burkholder and Miss Lucy Munce.

Tech High Students in Commencement Dance

Technical High school students have arranged to hold a special commencement dance to be held at Sumnerdale Wednesday, June 27, to which all members of the staff of the school, as well as the alumni, are invited.

Frank Gippie and Raleigh Evans are arranging details for the Seniors, while Rees Lloyd and T. Willis Patterson are on the committee representing the Juniors. It has been arranged to have special cars leave the Square at 8.15 and 8.30 o'clock. Delone and Branyan's xylophone orchestra will furnish the music and the Tech alumni home.

SHOPPING IN JUNE Thoughts For the Sweet Girl Graduate and the June Bride

The New Reignskin Boots There is always something new at the Walk-Over Boot Shop, 226 Market street, and the latest addition to their attractive summer stock is a high boot of white reignskin—that dainty and practical new fabric which fits as neatly as finest kid and cleans as readily as canvas, while its appearance is unusually smart. It promises to be among the most popular of summer footwear for the well-dressed woman and girl, and this new boot shown at the Walk-Over Shop, is beautifully finished with seamless foxing, high French heel, with the aluminum plate inset which holds the shape of the heel no matter how hard the boot is worn or how often it is cleaned. Seven dollars is the price of this boot.

The Sun Parlor One of the loveliest sun parlors that can be imagined was arranged by the Blake Shop,
