

EFFICIENT COACHING IS BIG FACTOR IN TECH HIGH TRACK TEAM VICTORIES---SPORTS

YALE TO DROP GRID SCHEDULE

Plan Other Reforms; Only One Winner Left; to Cancel All Fall Sports

New Haven, Conn., June 19.—Yale's athletic council will hold at least one meeting during the commencement week program, which begins tomorrow and lasts four days, to wrestle with two of the most important problems it has tackled—first, whether there shall be sports next fall when the college year opens; second, in what form athletics will be resumed at the close of the war, or when it is decided to again start the ball of sports rolling.

Some rather informal athletic events will be arranged and some of the undergraduates and alumni are eager to have Yale, Harvard and Princeton plan for their usual annual games, agreeing to play them with only a limited period of practice daily, and without the varsity players who have nearly all gone to the military service of their country from all three universities. Members of the council, however, are skeptical of their ability to arrange any outside matches this fall.

Plan Reform

They feel, however, that the present is an ideal time to plan for reforms in the branch of college athletics which they have recommended for some time. A committee of the council a year ago urged in an elaborate report, curtailing of many of the extravagant features of athletics, including the high priced coaches and the large coaching staffs, and making the division between amateur and professional athletics more marked.

The sessions of the council the coming week will continue the investigation into this branch of college athletic improvement. When athletics are finally resumed it is certain that they will be carried on under greatly altered conditions. Harvard, Princeton and Yale are conducting their investigations together into the reform and are in close accord on the details of the changes which they regard desirable.

One Winner Remains

A census has just been taken at Yale of the athletes who were on the various sports teams when the war broke out, and only a single winner of the "Y" has been found to remain in college. He will enlist as soon as college closes this school year, the coming week. If athletics are resumed in any form next fall, it will be with no varsity athletes whatever available for the teams and with only the briefest amount of time allotted daily for practice, because of the demands upon the undergraduates for military training and for their study.

President Tener Tells Umps to Wipe Out Roudies

New York, June 19.—President John K. Tener of the National League was just beginning to enjoy the impression that his umpires were keeping the players well in hand, when his dream of peace on the diamonds in his league was rudely shattered at the Polo Grounds. Player Fitzpatrick of the Braves, was the principal disturber in an altercation with Umpire Quigley, and was later fined $50 and suspended indefinitely.

Following the trouble, Governor Tener issued a new set of laws to his arbiters. He told them to stamp out the troublemakers at the first sign of an outbreak, and hereafter the squawkers will be banished when they get rough if the governor's orders are carried out. Banishing players often works a hardship on a ball club, and as a rule the arbiters are as lenient as possible. But when players become unruly there is only one thing for the umpire to do, and that is to hang the ancient order of tin on him. In cases of this kind the managers are partly to blame. They should warn their players against kicking beyond a reasonable limit.

COACHES BIG PART IN TECH VICTORIES; POPULAR OFFICIALS

GEORGE W. HILL

JAMES C. PEET

Many followers of sport can well remember the time a few years ago when Tech first entered the big meets on the Island and felt lucky to come back with one bronze medal. Since then the Maroon athletes have gotten into bigger ways, and the student body never feels satisfied with anything short of first place and the championship.

Tech's consistent winnings of the last four years can be traced directly to the good work done by Coaches James C. Peet and George W. Hill, both of whom are members of the Tech faculty, and who coach the track candidates every spring. For four straight years Tech has had a claim to the championship honors, but never before has the claim been backed by so many big victories as this season.

Experienced Coaches

Coach Peet is a graduate of Syracuse University, and while a student at the New York school won honors as a member of the track team. Coach Hill graduated from Gettysburg College, and was a member of the Steelton Y. M. C. A. football eleven. Later he joined the Harrisburg basketball association and played a guard position on the quintet. In 1914 Tech began to set a whirlwind pace, and has continued to do so ever since. During that season it won the relay race at Philadelphia, won at Penn State, Mercersburg, defeated Central, won on the Island and defeated the Gettysburg freshmen. Since that time only three meets have been lost. The trophy room at the Maroon institution is filled with cups and banners that have been brought home through the good work of the two teacher-coaches. Both men are popular with the track candidates, and the latter are unstinting in their praise of the directors of this work.

GOOD THING THIS PLAYER DOES NOT USE REAL NAME; GIVES REGISTRARS SHOCK

Philadelphia, June 19.—When Pitcher Rube Schauer of the Athletics registered under the army draft act he gave the registrars a shock when in answer to the question as to his full name he twisted his tongue several ways so that the registrar had to abandon the idea of writing it himself and gave the pen over to Schauer.

Rube then wrote: "Dimitri Ivanovitch Dimitrihoff." For that is Schauer's real name. Rube was born in Odessa, Russia, and came to this country when a child. He and Jake Getman, formerly big league outfielder, are the only Russians, real Russians by birth, who have ever fought their way up to a big league job.

Started When a Boy

In Russia there is no baseball and Schauer did not have the advantage of playing ball until he was 12 years old. The American boy begins to toss and bat a ball when he is five and six. Schauer and Jimmie Archer of the Cubs are the only big leaguers in the game to-day who can boast of having been born across the water. Archer was born in a small town in Ireland. President John K. Tener of the National League was also born in Ireland and came to this country when he was a youngster.

PITCHER PERFECT GAME

Birmingham, Ala., June 19.—Ben Tincup, the former Phillie pitcher, working on the hill for Little Rock against Birmingham yesterday, in a Southern Association game, blanked the locals without a hit or a run in a nine-inning game. Score, 3 to 0. It was a perfect game, not a man reaching first base on the Indian. Tincup has been pitching great ball for Little Rock all season.

PITCHER PALMER SOLD

Louisville, Ky., June 19.—According to word received here yesterday, Pitcher Emilio Palmero, of the Louisville American Association, has been sold on option to Little Rock, of the Southern Association. President O. H. Wathen, of the Louisville club, said, however, the deal was not ready to be announced. It is understood Palmero was dropped because of the necessity of trimming the number of players to bring it within the limit allowed.

Baseball Summary

National League

Chicago, 4; Cincinnati, 2. Pittsburgh, 4; St. Louis, 0. Other clubs not scheduled.

American League

Boston, 6; Chicago, 4 (morning game). Boston, 8; Chicago, 7 (afternoon game). Detroit, 1; Washington, 0. St. Louis, 1; New York, 0.

International League

Baltimore, 17; Buffalo, 6 (1st game). Baltimore, 10; Buffalo, 7 (2nd game). Toronto, 4; Newark, 2. Providence, 12; Montreal, 3. Richmond, 10; Rochester, 7.

Allison Hill League

Stanley, 2; Rosewood, 0.

New York State League

Reading, 9; Harrisburg, 6. Elmira, 4; Binghamton, 3. Scranton, 12; Utica, 5. Wilkes-Barre, 1; Scranton, 0.

Blue Ridge League

Martinsburg, 6; Chambersburg, 4 (ten innings). Hagerstown, 1; Hanover, 0.

WHERE THEY PLAY TODAY

National League
Brooklyn at Philadelphia.
New York at Boston.
Chicago at Cincinnati.
Pittsburgh at St. Louis.

American League
Detroit at Washington.
St. Louis at New York.
Other teams not scheduled.

New York State League
Harrisburg at Reading.
Elmira at Binghamton.
Scranton at Utica.
Syracuse at Wilkes-Barre.

International League
Toronto at Reading.
Montreal at Newark.
Buffalo at Richmond (two games).
Rochester at Baltimore.

Blue Ridge League
Martinsburg at Chambersburg.
Frederick at Gettysburg.
Hagerstown at Hanover.

Allison Hill League
Galadad vs. Reading.

WHERE THEY PLAY TOMORROW

National League
Brooklyn at Philadelphia.
Chicago at Cincinnati.
New York at Boston.
Pittsburgh at St. Louis.

American League
Philadelphia at Washington.
Cleveland at Chicago.
Boston at New York.
Other teams not scheduled.

New York State League
Harrisburg at Reading.
Elmira at Binghamton.
Utica at Scranton.
Syracuse at Wilkes-Barre.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS

National League
Clubs—W. L. Pct.
New York 20 14 .652
Philadelphia 19 18 .617
Chicago 18 25 .554
St. Louis 18 26 .579
Cincinnati 16 32 .448
Boston 15 28 .514
Pittsburgh 17 33 .425

American League
Clubs—W. L. Pct.
Chicago 25 19 .648
Boston 23 19 .627
New York 22 22 .560
Cleveland 22 28 .500
Detroit 18 26 .500
St. Louis 22 30 .423
Philadelphia 18 30 .375
Washington 18 32 .360

New York State League
Clubs—W. L. Pct.
Binghamton 18 14 .562
Wilkes-Barre 26 14 .650
Elmira 21 18 .538
Syracuse 20 19 .512
Reading 21 22 .488
Utica 17 18 .486
Scranton 15 24 .385
Harrisburg 6 30 .167

International League
Clubs—W. L. Pct.
Newark 21 18 .633
Providence 22 19 .627
Baltimore 20 21 .588
Rochester 28 23 .549
Toronto 27 24 .529
Richmond 18 25 .419
Buffalo 20 32 .385
Montreal 18 30 .375

Allison Hill League
Clubs—W. L. Pct.
Rosewood 6 4 .600
Reading 4 6 .400
Galadad 2 7 .222

Blue Ridge League
Clubs—W. L. Pct.
Martinsburg 22 8 .742
Frederick 17 15 .531
Hagerstown 13 17 .433
Gettysburg 12 17 .414
Chambersburg 12 18 .400

PHILLIES LAND STAR TWIRLER

"Wildfire" Schulte Is Product of New York State League

Philadelphia, June 19.—The Phillies' famous "wrecking crew" of Luderus and Cravath has been augmented by the addition of Frank "Wildfire" Schulte, well known for his long-distance clouting during the halcyon days of Frank Chance's world beating Cubs, the veteran coming to the local team yesterday when Manager Pat Moran claimed him from Pittsburgh at the waiver price. The Pirates got him last year in a deal with the Cubs, handing over Catcher Arthur Wilson for Schulte and Catcher Bill Fischer.

Schulte is by no means a young man, having reached the high-water mark of his baseball career as far back as 1911 when he established a National League record for home runs with twenty-one circuit wallops to his credit. After this achievement Schulte was hailed as the wonder of the age. Buck Freeman's long-standing mark of twenty-five homers being the only barrier between himself and the major league record. Since that time, however, Gavy Cravath, the Phil's human shrapnel, has battered these figures, getting twenty-four Pat Moran's pennant winning drive of 1915.

Schulte first broke into the limelight with the Blossburg, Pa. semi-pro team in 1909. Two years later he elevated himself to the Syracuse New York State League aggregation, with whom he pastimed until late in August, 1906, when the Cubs took a liking to his general style of play and purchased him. He remained in Chicago until the Pirates secured his services last year.

The Phil's new acquisition will be thirty-five next birthday, stands five feet nine and one-half inches and tips the beam at 170 pounds. He may or may not prove a valuable asset to the Phillies in their pennant fight this year for thus far he has set neither the world nor the National League on fire with his batting. He has located the offerings of opposing pitchers for the modest average of .216 in the games played to date, but should he succeed in getting a line on the exact longitude and latitude of the Phil's right field wall in the heat of any of the championship battles it is unlikely that Pat Moran will sever diplomatic relations with the "cubs" old star for some time to come.

OUTMET CASE IS UP

New York, June 19.—At a special meeting of the executive committee of the United States Golf Association held here to-day, Frances Outmet, former national amateur and open champion, and J. H. Sullivan Jr., both members of the Woodland Golf Club, Abundant, Mass., appeared personally and applied for reinstatement as amateurs. Owing to the unavoidable absence of three members of the committee, it was decided to defer taking any action on the applications until all the members could be brought together. Another meeting will be convened in the near future when the proceedings at to-day's meeting will be fully discussed and an official decision announced.

Stanley A. C. Increases Lead, Shut Out Rosewood Team

New Orleans, La., June 19.—Jerome Gargano, former manager of Pete Herman, world's bantamweight champion, said last night: "I have nothing to say about William H. Rocap's story sent out of Philadelphia about me and Herman breaking and Herman firing me. I know this to be untrue. Herman and I broke on the best of terms. However, I will give a full statement to the press on Wednesday or Thursday. Further than that I have nothing to say."

Court costs for the criminal sessions last week totaled $2156.22, according to County Treasurer Mark Mumma. Additional costs totaling many hundreds of dollars will be incurred next week during the murder trials. Grand jurors last week were paid $300; petit jurors, $287.94; tipsters, $156, and witnesses, $743.28.

CASINO CLUB WANTS GAMES

The Sixth Ward Casino Baseball Club is without a game for Saturday, June 23, and the morning of July 4. Manager Wallace Smith of 1416 Marian street would like to arrange games with any strong amateur teams in the vicinity.

Auto gears transmit power. Much of this power is lost through friction.

DIXON'S GRAPHITE Automobile LUBRICANTS reduce friction, prevent wear, increase mileage, and prolong the life of your car.