

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS

ORGAN RECITAL IN GRACE CHURCH

Chester H. Beebe of Brooklyn to Be Assisted by Harold E. Malsh, Violinist

An organ recital will be given by Chester H. Beebe, organist of James M. E. Church, Brooklyn, N. Y., assisted by Harold E. Malsh, violinist, in the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, State street, Friday evening, June 22, at eight o'clock.

The program includes: Organ—Toccata and Fugue in D minor, Bach; "Canon," J. S. Bach; "A Mighty Fortress is Our God," Faulkes; "Aberdeen," Schumann; "Menuett in C," Beethoven; Organ—"Concerto Rondo," "Tranquillity," "Clyde," "Concert Overture," "Solemn," "Meditation," "Thais"; Massenet, Organ—"Springtime Sketches," "Consoation," Mendelssohn; "Fantasy on Themes From Tannhauser," Wagner-Morgan.

At the close of the program, all those interested are invited to assemble in the gallery and hear Mr. Beebe give a short talk on "The Modern Organ, Inside and Out."

A silver offering will be taken to help defray the expense of the concert.

SEWING CLUB'S MEETING Mrs. John H. Myers, of 1608 State street, was the hostess for the Monday Sewing Club.

STAYING IN CALIFORNIA Mrs. Herman P. Miller of Cottage Ridge is home from Palo Alto, Cal., where she and Miss Anna Margaret Miller went in May to attend the commencement exercises of Leland Stanford University.

Central High Seniors in Closing Festivities

Fifty members of the senior class of Central High School took a sight-seeing trip to-day to Washington, D. C., chartered by Mrs. Charles E. Robinson, of York, sister of Harold E. Eckert, the class president, and Professor E. F. Keller, the faculty advisor of the class.

Arriving at noon, the party went first to the Metropolitan Hotel, their headquarters for two days, and afterward started out to see the wonders of the National Capitol.

On the committee of arrangements are Clement Kelley, chairman; Katherine Aldinger, Martha Crosswell, Mildred Goetze, Katherine Nicely, Ruth Richards, Lydia Weigle, Helen Wall, Charles Muttzbaugh, George Spangler and Hollis Wible.

GRADUATES FROM SYRACUSE Miss Josephine Lee Meek, daughter of Mrs. Walter E. Meek, 218 South Thirteenth street, has received her bachelor of arts degree from Syracuse University where she was graduated with the class of 1917 last week.

LUNCHEON FOR TWELVE Miss Helena Shearer, of State street, entertained this afternoon at a luncheon of twelve covers in compliment to Miss Grace Hilton, of Baltimore, who is visiting in town for a fortnight.

FORMER RESIDENTS HERE Mrs. J. W. Wagner and daughter, Mrs. Gladys Hantz, of Charleston, S. C., are visiting relatives in this city.

RECOVERATES AT SEASHORE Mrs. Charles A. Ripper, of 113 Liberty street, has returned from a recuperative trip to the seashore.

CARDS ON CLUB PORCH The Ladies Advisory committee of the Colonial Country Club, with Mrs. Charles H. Hunter, chairman, has arranged a card party for Friday afternoon.

MOTOR HOME FROM COLLEGE Mrs. Samuel P. Dunkle and her son, Charles, of 113 Liberty street, went to attend the commencement festivities of Syracuse University, where Miss Isabel Dunkle was graduated from the School of Design.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Lucas and small daughter, Mary Lee Lucas, of Harriman, Tenn., were recent visitors to the home of Mr. and Mrs. George K. Liesman, of State street.

Miss Dorothy Ebner, a student of West Chester Normal school, is spending the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Ebner, 615 Muench street.

Miss Katharine Border and Miss Sara Elizabeth Border, of Baltimore, went home to-day, after a week's stay with their aunt, Mrs. Lucien G. Rodgers, of North Third street.

Mrs. Roy Shreiner has returned home to Lancaster, after visiting Miss Gertrude V. Berry, at 242 Hamilton street.

Miss Anne L. Wert, principal of the Teachers' Training school, was Friday for State College, where she will be a member of the faculty of the summer school.

Mr. Herbert Elder, of Frederick, Md., who visited her sister, Mrs. Edward Clark Cowden, South Front street on the way home from Clinton, N. J. left the city yesterday.

John J. Kefer, of the City Engineer's office, who has been ill for several weeks, underwent an operation yesterday and is reported as improving.

Mrs. Ella Swager, of 213 Chestnut street, went to Philadelphia to attend the wedding anniversary of her aunt, Mrs. Ida Miller, a former Harrisburgian.

Mr. and Mrs. Edna Barth and small daughter, Mrs. Helena Barth, of Georgetown, D. C., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Brown, of North Fifth street.

STORK NEWS Mr. and Mrs. Lee Goldsmith, of 243 Woodbine street, announce the birth of a son, on Sunday, June 17, 1917.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Harper, of Newport Perry county, Pa., announce the birth of a daughter, Helen Derew Harper, Monday, June 17, 1917.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kendall Hale, of Indianapolis, Ind., former Harrisburgians, announce the birth of a son, Sidney James Hale, Thursday, June 14, 1917.

Red Cross Dividend For National Bank Stockholders Mechanicsburg, Pa., June 19.—To-day the First National Bank of Mechanicsburg declared a Red Cross dividend of one per cent. on its stock.

Red Cross Dividend For National Bank Stockholders Mechanicsburg, Pa., June 19.—To-day the First National Bank of Mechanicsburg declared a Red Cross dividend of one per cent. on its stock.

Ten From Here Will Be Taken Into Second Guard Truck Company

Ten men from which is Harrisburg's allotment for the second truck company will be secured today the recruiting tent at the courthouse in closed at 10 o'clock this evening.

The first truck company was drilled last evening in the Chestnut street auditorium under the direction of Lieutenant Wheeler. Every man who enlisted was on the floor and very enthusiastic over the new work.

Galahad Club Begins Its Summer Activities

The Galahad Recreation Club started its social activities for the summer months last evening by holding the first open air social this season in Reservoir Park.

Refreshments were served with refreshments: the Misses Clara Bittner, Elva Bittner, Reba Floyd, Dorothy Watts, Lorraine Heagy, Elsie Fritz, Janet Bittner, Barbara Margaret Lenker, Winifred Watts, Mrs. Edward McKoy, Mrs. S. L. Bowler, Mrs. N. A. Bowers, Mrs. R. Bochringer, Mrs. Howard Gensler, Mrs. D. C. Hawley, Mrs. Ralph Grove, Mrs. R. V. Watts, Mrs. M. J. Valchcamp.

RECOVERATES AT SEASHORE Mrs. Charles A. Ripper, of 113 Liberty street, has returned from a recuperative trip to the seashore.

"Billy" Sunday Leaves New York For a Rest

New York, June 19.—"Billy" Sunday left New York for a recuperative trip to the seashore.

MOTOR HOME FROM COLLEGE Mrs. Samuel P. Dunkle and her son, Charles, of 113 Liberty street, went to attend the commencement festivities of Syracuse University, where Miss Isabel Dunkle was graduated from the School of Design.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Lucas and small daughter, Mary Lee Lucas, of Harriman, Tenn., were recent visitors to the home of Mr. and Mrs. George K. Liesman, of State street.

Miss Dorothy Ebner, a student of West Chester Normal school, is spending the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Ebner, 615 Muench street.

Miss Katharine Border and Miss Sara Elizabeth Border, of Baltimore, went home to-day, after a week's stay with their aunt, Mrs. Lucien G. Rodgers, of North Third street.

Mrs. Roy Shreiner has returned home to Lancaster, after visiting Miss Gertrude V. Berry, at 242 Hamilton street.

Miss Anne L. Wert, principal of the Teachers' Training school, was Friday for State College, where she will be a member of the faculty of the summer school.

Mr. Herbert Elder, of Frederick, Md., who visited her sister, Mrs. Edward Clark Cowden, South Front street on the way home from Clinton, N. J. left the city yesterday.

John J. Kefer, of the City Engineer's office, who has been ill for several weeks, underwent an operation yesterday and is reported as improving.

Mrs. Ella Swager, of 213 Chestnut street, went to Philadelphia to attend the wedding anniversary of her aunt, Mrs. Ida Miller, a former Harrisburgian.

Mr. and Mrs. Edna Barth and small daughter, Mrs. Helena Barth, of Georgetown, D. C., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Brown, of North Fifth street.

STORK NEWS Mr. and Mrs. Lee Goldsmith, of 243 Woodbine street, announce the birth of a son, on Sunday, June 17, 1917.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Harper, of Newport Perry county, Pa., announce the birth of a daughter, Helen Derew Harper, Monday, June 17, 1917.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kendall Hale, of Indianapolis, Ind., former Harrisburgians, announce the birth of a son, Sidney James Hale, Thursday, June 14, 1917.

Red Cross Dividend For National Bank Stockholders Mechanicsburg, Pa., June 19.—To-day the First National Bank of Mechanicsburg declared a Red Cross dividend of one per cent. on its stock.

Red Cross Dividend For National Bank Stockholders Mechanicsburg, Pa., June 19.—To-day the First National Bank of Mechanicsburg declared a Red Cross dividend of one per cent. on its stock.

Nominee For Annapolis Is Well Qualified For Study at the Academy

Washington, June 19.—The letter to President Wilson, from King Albert, delivered yesterday by Baron Moncheur, head of the Belgian mission to this country, was made public by the State Department to-day and follows:

"I kindly commend to your Excellency the highly respected mission which bears this letter. My mission will express to the President the feelings of understanding and admiration with which my government and people have received the decision reached by him in his wisdom.

Arch Marking Valley Forge Camp Is Given to State by Nation

Valley Forge, Pa., June 19.—Marking the site of the encampment of Washington and his army during the winter of 1777-1778 a memorial arch, for which Congress appropriated $25,000, was presented to the State to-day by Champ Clark, speaker of the House of Representatives on behalf of the government.

Pennington For Next Officers Camp Will Train in Indiana

The second training camp for commissioned officers will be started at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind., August 27, and will end on September 15. All applications for enrollment will be received at the Colonnade Hotel, at Fifteenth and Chestnut streets, Philadelphia.

School Directors to Make Another Effort to Fill Vacancy

City school directors may try again to-morrow to elect a successor to the Rev. Dr. William N. Yates, resigned, when they meet in special session to take up continued by the architects chosen for the high school building program.

Mother Is Given Custody of Children

Judge McCarrell yesterday gave the custody of the four children of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence A. Hayes to their mother, taking them away from Mrs. John W. Shaffer, of Eastport, grandmother of the youngsters, who became hysterical when the order was made.

President Praises Mother Who Gives Sons to U. S.

Washington, June 19.—President Wilson has directed a letter of appreciation to Mrs. Louis Meyer, of Wheeling, W. Va., who is a patriotic letter writer. The President informed her that she had already given two sons to the army, and was ready to give her third.

Body of Boy Not Recovered

The body of John Egenreder, 1511 North Third street, who was drowned Sunday afternoon, has not been recovered. The exact place where he was last seen has been located in every inch of the river, but the undercurrents are so various that searchers have been unable to find the body.

Dennis Feager Is Dead

Dennis Feager, aged 66, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. B. Stamm, 231 South Fifteenth street, yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. J. A. Lyter, pastor of the Derry Street United Brethren Church, officiated at the funeral, which will be held in Shoop's Church Cemetery. He is survived by one daughter and three grandchildren, Blanche, Harry and John.

Window Box Special—Friday Only

30 Fine Strong Plants For a 3 Foot Box Geraniums, Begonias, Vines, etc., packed in a nice basket ready to carry any distance. Order now, delivery Friday.

KING ALBERT OF BELGIUM THANKS AMERICA FOR AID

U. S. Said to Have Succeeded Little Kingdom With Great Generosity

Washington, June 19.—The letter to President Wilson, from King Albert, delivered yesterday by Baron Moncheur, head of the Belgian mission to this country, was made public by the State Department to-day and follows:

SEND RECRUITS TO GETTYSBURG TO GETTYSBURG

Those Who Enlist Here Go Into Regiments Just Back From Border

ARCANUM MEMBERS ARE PLEASED WITH ORDER RESTORING MANAGEMENT

Assistant District Attorney Frank B. Wickham, past supreme regent of the Royal Arcanum, is more than pleased with the decision of the United States Court of Appeals vacating an order of the district court for the appointment of a receiver for the Arcanum.

G. W. Barnitz Is Elected Principal

Newport, Pa., June 19.—G. W. Barnitz, who has been assistant principal of the local high school for several years, has been elected principal to succeed H. M. Corning, who has gone to Colorado to engage in educational work.

Marysville Has Sent Twenty-Eight to Army

Marysville, Pa., June 19.—Marysville's quota in the United States military service now totals twenty-eight. Three more recruits went to the United States Army at the county town yesterday.

President Praises Mother Who Gives Sons to U. S.

Washington, June 19.—President Wilson has directed a letter of appreciation to Mrs. Louis Meyer, of Wheeling, W. Va., who is a patriotic letter writer. The President informed her that she had already given two sons to the army, and was ready to give her third.

Body of Boy Not Recovered

The body of John Egenreder, 1511 North Third street, who was drowned Sunday afternoon, has not been recovered. The exact place where he was last seen has been located in every inch of the river, but the undercurrents are so various that searchers have been unable to find the body.

Dennis Feager Is Dead

Dennis Feager, aged 66, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. B. Stamm, 231 South Fifteenth street, yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. J. A. Lyter, pastor of the Derry Street United Brethren Church, officiated at the funeral, which will be held in Shoop's Church Cemetery. He is survived by one daughter and three grandchildren, Blanche, Harry and John.

Window Box Special—Friday Only

30 Fine Strong Plants For a 3 Foot Box Geraniums, Begonias, Vines, etc., packed in a nice basket ready to carry any distance. Order now, delivery Friday.

CIVIL SERVICE POLICE BILL IS UP TO GOVERNOR

House Refuses to Recall Measure; Harrisburg One of Cities Affected

The House of Representatives to-day refused to concur in a Senate resolution to recall from the Governor the Craig bill to provide for civil service for police in third class cities, which includes Harrisburg.

ARCANUM MEMBERS ARE PLEASED WITH ORDER RESTORING MANAGEMENT

Assistant District Attorney Frank B. Wickham, past supreme regent of the Royal Arcanum, is more than pleased with the decision of the United States Court of Appeals vacating an order of the district court for the appointment of a receiver for the Arcanum.

G. W. Barnitz Is Elected Principal

Newport, Pa., June 19.—G. W. Barnitz, who has been assistant principal of the local high school for several years, has been elected principal to succeed H. M. Corning, who has gone to Colorado to engage in educational work.

Marysville Has Sent Twenty-Eight to Army

Marysville, Pa., June 19.—Marysville's quota in the United States military service now totals twenty-eight. Three more recruits went to the United States Army at the county town yesterday.

President Praises Mother Who Gives Sons to U. S.

Washington, June 19.—President Wilson has directed a letter of appreciation to Mrs. Louis Meyer, of Wheeling, W. Va., who is a patriotic letter writer. The President informed her that she had already given two sons to the army, and was ready to give her third.

Body of Boy Not Recovered

The body of John Egenreder, 1511 North Third street, who was drowned Sunday afternoon, has not been recovered. The exact place where he was last seen has been located in every inch of the river, but the undercurrents are so various that searchers have been unable to find the body.

Dennis Feager Is Dead

Dennis Feager, aged 66, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. B. Stamm, 231 South Fifteenth street, yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. J. A. Lyter, pastor of the Derry Street United Brethren Church, officiated at the funeral, which will be held in Shoop's Church Cemetery. He is survived by one daughter and three grandchildren, Blanche, Harry and John.

Window Box Special—Friday Only

30 Fine Strong Plants For a 3 Foot Box Geraniums, Begonias, Vines, etc., packed in a nice basket ready to carry any distance. Order now, delivery Friday.

CIVIL SERVICE POLICE BILL IS UP TO GOVERNOR

House Refuses to Recall Measure; Harrisburg One of Cities Affected

The House of Representatives to-day refused to concur in a Senate resolution to recall from the Governor the Craig bill to provide for civil service for police in third class cities, which includes Harrisburg.

ARCANUM MEMBERS ARE PLEASED WITH ORDER RESTORING MANAGEMENT

Assistant District Attorney Frank B. Wickham, past supreme regent of the Royal Arcanum, is more than pleased with the decision of the United States Court of Appeals vacating an order of the district court for the appointment of a receiver for the Arcanum.

G. W. Barnitz Is Elected Principal

Newport, Pa., June 19.—G. W. Barnitz, who has been assistant principal of the local high school for several years, has been elected principal to succeed H. M. Corning, who has gone to Colorado to engage in educational work.

Marysville Has Sent Twenty-Eight to Army

Marysville, Pa., June 19.—Marysville's quota in the United States military service now totals twenty-eight. Three more recruits went to the United States Army at the county town yesterday.

President Praises Mother Who Gives Sons to U. S.

Washington, June 19.—President Wilson has directed a letter of appreciation to Mrs. Louis Meyer, of Wheeling, W. Va., who is a patriotic letter writer. The President informed her that she had already given two sons to the army, and was ready to give her third.

Body of Boy Not Recovered

The body of John Egenreder, 1511 North Third street, who was drowned Sunday afternoon, has not been recovered. The exact place where he was last seen has been located in every inch of the river, but the undercurrents are so various that searchers have been unable to find the body.

Dennis Feager Is Dead

Dennis Feager, aged 66, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. B. Stamm, 231 South Fifteenth street, yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. J. A. Lyter, pastor of the Derry Street United Brethren Church, officiated at the funeral, which will be held in Shoop's Church Cemetery. He is survived by one daughter and three grandchildren, Blanche, Harry and John.

Window Box Special—Friday Only

30 Fine Strong Plants For a 3 Foot Box Geraniums, Begonias, Vines, etc., packed in a nice basket ready to carry any distance. Order now, delivery Friday.

Help Our American Boys in France The Ladies' Bazaar. It's Right Because We Make It Right. Wednesday Is An Ideal Shopping Day. Striped Silk Waists. A Few More Corsets Left. Your Choice 99 Cents. Skirts. Dresses. $4.98 to $24.98. Come and hear the June Victor Patriotic Records "AMERICA" Sung by Clarence Whitehill And Three Other Patriotic Records. C.M. Sigler, Inc. Pianos - Victrolas - 30 N. 2nd St.

ROTHERT COMPANY. CARPET, FURNITURE, RUGS. 312 Market St. draperies. Cretonnes. small chintz—tapestry—futurist effects. 30-36 and 50-inch widths. 25c to $1.50 yd. Poplins. 36-inch widths, in plain blue, rose and brown. 65c yd. Scrims and Marquisesettes as low as 20¢ yd. Drapery Department Second Floor. The Federal Machine Shop. COURT AND CRANBERRY STS. We have just opened a General Repair and Machine Shop at the above address. We are specially equipped to do grinding, bicycle, automobile and general machine repairing. YOUR PATRONAGE SOLICITED. Vacation Luggage. Despite steadily increasing costs our prices on luggage of every kind is remarkably low. Cowhide Traveling Bags. Black walrus grain, full leather and cloth lining and sewed corners. $5.98. All fibre Wardrobe Trunks for Ladies or gentlemen $20.00. Ladies' Black Enamel Week Ends $6.00 to $8.50. Ladies' Black Enamel $4.50 to $9.00. Regal Umbrella Co. Second St. at Walnut St.