

HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH A NEWSPAPER FOR THE HOME Founded 1831. Published evenings except Sunday by THE TELEGRAPH PRINTING CO., Telegraph Building, Federal Square.

Member American Newspaper Publishers' Association, the Audit Bureau of Circulation and Pennsylvania Associated Dailies. Eastern office, Story, Brooks & Finley, 717 Avenue Building, New York City.

By carriers, ten cents a week; by mail, $5.00 a year in advance. TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 19. Call on, O ship of State! Call on, O Union, strong and great!

OUR BIG CORPORATIONS NOT so long ago we heard much of the awful corporations and the need of repression and regulation of these industrial giants.

Right here in Harrisburg we are having exemplified the importance of sustaining in every proper way these great corporations organized for the promotion of trade which is beyond the limits of the individual.

FISHING TIME WE hear that the streams are high and muddy, and that bait is scarce, and that the bass are not biting.

BAILEYISM THIS from Warren Worth Bailey's Johnstown Democrat in comment upon an editorial appearing some time since in the HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH having to do with the mission of Elihu Root to Russia.

THE POLICE SURVEY WHAT has become of the police survey report? The survey was made at the expense of the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce.

Politics in Pennsylvania By the Ex-Committeeman. Propositions to extend the legislative session beyond June 28 because of differences between the State administration and the legislative leaders seem to be very unpopular at the State Capitol.

Labor Notes Honduras has but one sugar factory. Telephone girls at Paris have received increased pay. Policewomen in Kansas work only eight hours a day.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR Short Weight Upon returning from market the writer tested several articles brought and found that he had been pretty badly fooled in the matter of weight.

WHAT MARK TWAIN WROTE OF HIS BROTHER, ORION Mark Twain's brother, Orion Clemens, caused the great humorist infinite amusement throughout his life.

OUR DAILY LAUGH THE GRADUATE. Perspiring as he searches round. Each moment growing moister. The recent graduate has found the world is not a oyster.

WELL KNOWN PEOPLE The Rev. Albert Vogel, Pittsburgh clergyman, preached on the eve of his 100th birthday. Bishop Eugene A. Garvey, who has been ill, has just died.

DO YOU KNOW That Harrisburg is shipping large machinery for big building operations these days? HISTORIC HARRISBURG The first train was greeted by a drum and fife corps when it reached Harrisburg in 1855.

ANNOUNCED. "Mother," said little Marion while riding in a street car. "What is it, dear," replied the mother. "I wish you'd pay my fare in the future. I hate to have my age discussed in public."

THE POLICE SURVEY (Continued) It is true that as a result of the survey many changes were made for the improvement of the police record system, which is now one of the best in the country.

OUR DAILY LAUGH (Continued) Weren't the boys sore when they had to give up their captured trench and retreat to their own which was full of water?

WELL KNOWN PEOPLE (Continued) Charles E. Berger, newly appointed Judge of Schuylkill county, has been getting telegrams of congratulation from all over Eastern Pennsylvania.

DO YOU KNOW (Continued) Unto Thee Will I Pray Give ear to my words, O Lord, consider my meditation, hearken unto the voice of my cry, my king, and my God; for unto thee will I pray.—Psalms 5, 1 and 2.

ANNOUNCED (Continued) I wish you'd pay my fare in the future. I hate to have my age discussed in public. Same, Only Different After reading this new version of a famous quotation as given by the London Chronicle, no one can fairly say that the English are not a contentious race.

ANNOUNCED (Continued) I wish you'd pay my fare in the future. I hate to have my age discussed in public. Same, Only Different After reading this new version of a famous quotation as given by the London Chronicle, no one can fairly say that the English are not a contentious race.

ANNOUNCED (Continued) I wish you'd pay my fare in the future. I hate to have my age discussed in public. Same, Only Different After reading this new version of a famous quotation as given by the London Chronicle, no one can fairly say that the English are not a contentious race.

ANNOUNCED (Continued) I wish you'd pay my fare in the future. I hate to have my age discussed in public. Same, Only Different After reading this new version of a famous quotation as given by the London Chronicle, no one can fairly say that the English are not a contentious race.

WHAT MARK TWAIN WROTE OF HIS BROTHER, ORION

Mark Twain's brother, Orion Clemens, caused the great humorist infinite amusement throughout his life. Orion seems to have been a neat-do-well, visionary chap with all kinds of crazy schemes in his head.

MY DEAR HOWELLS: I have just received this letter from Orion—take care of it, for it is worth a column in your magazine.

Now just look at this letter of Orion's. Did you ever see the grotesque upon "Paradise Lost" by pathetic more closely joined together?

After being a Republican for years, he wanted to buy his Democratic newspaper. A few days before the presidential election, he came out in a speech and publicly went over to the Democrats.

Every housewife making jams, jellies and marmalades would do well to heed the advice of the ordinary tumbler at this time. It is a known fact that many women this year are making homemade jams and the like with the most unnecessary and home preserving.

The average man probably does not realize that not only has the trend of thought of the people of this State and Harrisburg, chief among its municipalities, has changed from business and work and pleasure to military matters.

Speaking about funmaking on Capitol Hill the other evening a couple of men undertook to sing along with the long discarded melody of the Old Oaken Bucket.

Mrs. M. Foss, of 4217 Washington avenue, St. Louis, has asked Governor Brumbaugh to help her find her son. It is some task, but the Governor says he will be glad to try.

Men connected with the recruiting service of the United States in addition to the hardest work they have to do is to turn down men who are married and have dependents.

This will be a busy week for the Public Service Commission in addition to hearing the argument on the Harrisburg cases the commission will act on a number of cases from Scranton, Wilkes-Barre and other boroughs.

The crowds which usually gather for the closing weeks of the legislative session are commencing to be in evidence about the Capitol and there are many people here now who are in tenter hook regarding the fate of measures in which they are interested.