

TROUT FISHING NOW PICKING UP

Commissioner Buller Talks About the General Situation in the State Streams

More and finer trout are being caught now than when the season was young this year...

The State Fisheries Board held its quarterly meeting here to-day and outlined its work for the summer and fall.

The State Police—The State Police Department will not add any more men to the force until July 1st...

Water Case Up Again.—The Kittanning municipal plant water certificate case, which is opposed by the water company...

Speaking in Lawrence.—Lieutenant Governor Frank E. Berger is speaking to-day on the farmer as he sees him before the big farmers' picnic at Volant, Lawrence county...

Berger Confirmed.—The Senate last night confirmed the nomination of Charles E. Berger to be judge in Schuylkill county.

Ex-Senators Here.—Ex-Senators C. L. Brown, Philadelphia; James L. Adams, Allegheny; and Walter McNichols, Scranton, were at the Capitol...

Anthracite Men Meet.—Legislators from anthracite counties met in the Capitol prior to the legislative sessions last night and discussed the "mine cave" bills...

Bedeeman Bill Passed.—The Bedeeman bill allowing minors to become stockholders in building and loan associations was passed finally in the Senate last night...

Interest in Dog Bill.—The greatest interest is being shown throughout the State in the Lohr dog bill...

Patton Urges Bill.—Secretary of Agriculture Patton declared last night that the passage of the bill for a bureau of markets would do much toward quieting the prices of milk and other products.

Veterans at Capitol.—Spanish-American war veterans were numerous about the legislative halls last night and to-day.

Returns to-night.—Governor Brumbaugh will return to the Capitol to-night from Valley Forge where he is attending the dedication of the national memorial.

McCarthy Confirmed.—D. J. McCarthy, of Philadelphia, was last night confirmed as a member of the State Board of Public Charities by the Senate.

Senators Work Late.—The Senate session lasted until after 1 o'clock this morning. Frequent recesses were strung out the meeting.

Argument Off Again.—The argument in the Harrisburg jitney cases was postponed by the Public Service Commission to-day at the request of the parties interested.

Alter Receives Ovation at Hands of House

Ex-Speaker George E. Alter, of Allegheny, who presided over the House during the strenuous session of 1913, was given a big ovation when he dropped in to visit the House this morning.

Mr. Alter said that he noted the same big gavel, and automatically recalled some stock phrases he had to work with...

GIORGIO SOURBIER FUNERAL DIRECTOR 1510 NORTH THIRD STREET

NEWS OF STEELTON ADD EQUIPMENT TO PLAYGROUNDS

To Place Bag Swings at Each Place; Appoint Instructors and Map Out Work

Additional equipment to the borough playgrounds and purchasing new apparatus for the Major Bent grounds was decided upon at a meeting...

The commission also decided to re-lay the three tennis courts on Cottage Hill and repair the Spruce street court in the next few days.

Instructors who will be assigned to the different grounds later were appointed last night as follows: Miss Nonie Downey, Thyrus Laybourn, Miss Irene Downey, Miss Adella Fisher, Miss Jennie Green, Miss Lillian Kell first substitute and Miss Rachel Dyer, second substitute.

The Fothergill and Hygienic grounds opened yesterday with larger attendances than on the opening day last year...

The winners and the donors of the prizes are as follows: Hazel Heck, $2.50; Richard Crowley, $1.50; Margaret Gassner, $1.00; W. A. Kell, $1.00; Joseph M. Matic, $1.00; Ruth Davis, $2.00; Charles R. Good, $2.00; E. Tagline, $1.00; highest honor by Thelma Margunnis, daughter of the donor...

Prizes For Efficiency in High School Awarded.—The complete list of efficiency awards made among pupils of the school during this year were announced to-day by Principal C. E. Davis of the High School.

Gold medals for highest average in arithmetic; eighth grade, William Kell; seventh grade, Joseph Matic. Medals for spelling: eighth grade, Mary Mannix; sixth grade, Gilbert Wieser. Highest average in grammar in eighth grade, Agnes Lawler; sixth grade Catherine Kell; eighth grade, Gilbert Wieser; sixth grade, Gilbert Rhebeck; fifth grade, Christopher Hildebrand; fourth grade, Mary Smith.

Two More Automobiles Summoned For Violations.—Burgess Wigfield last night fined two violators of the traffic ordinance...

Foreigner Tries to Take Life: Zenia is in the borough lockup pending a hearing before Squire Stees on a charge of attempting to commit suicide.

Owner Gets Cow.—John E. Smith, of near Hummelstown, last night claimed the cow that the police department found hitched to a fence in South Second street yesterday morning.

Appeal Damage Verdict.—The Middletown Car Company, through Fox and Geyer, attorneys, yesterday appealed to the Superior Court from the $1500 verdict recently awarded Harry J. McGill in a damage suit.

Middleton.—Mrs. Samuel Holstein and son have returned home from a visit to Lancaster.

Miss Katie Stengel has returned from a several weeks' visit to Hanover.

Earl Rudy has secured a position in the office of the Pennsylvania Railroad depot at Harrisburg.

Misses Katherine and Myrtle Ledom, of Hockersville, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Denzler.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Eichelberger have returned to their home in Milton, after several days' visit with Mr. Eichelberger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eichelberger.

Miss Naomi Hanshaw is spending several weeks with her aunt, Mrs. Charles Hightshill, in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Helrig, son, Fred Helrig, of Millersburg, and Mr. and Mrs. William Helrig, of Shamokin, relatives of Mrs. D. E. Rupley, were entertained at the Lutheran parsonage.

Miss Nellie Gladhill, of Chambersburg, spent the week-end with her sister, Miss Emma Gladhill.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hoppie are visiting at Pottsville.

Mr. and Mrs. David Kammerer and son, David, are spending the week at Mr. Kammerer's father, John Kammerer, at a theological student, he filled the pulpit at Salem Lutheran Church on Sunday evening.

STEELTON HAS $13,000 OF RED CROSS ALLOTMENT

Through the care and attention of the American fighters in France.

In the first forty-eight hours of the campaign for Steelton's share of the Red Cross fund, which was up at 1 o'clock to-day, members of the five teams collected $13,000.

The committee members started out at 8 o'clock and may reach their goal in the next few days.

Second. The campaign for subscriptions does not start until Thursday morning; and until that time members of the various teams are urged to refrain from solicitations.

Third. The money contributed by Americans to their Red Cross will be quite as deadly to the Germans as sort-nosed bullets because it will keep the fighting armies of the allies in condition.

Fourth. In the Harrisburg district the total contributions should total "a dollar a head" for every man, woman and child in the city and its appias as well to Dauphin county.

Fifth. No organization other than the Red Cross exists which will aid in bringing Americans back from France sound in body and mind.

Opening Dinner Wednesday.—As already told, the campaign "opener" will be a dinner in the Board of Trade building to-morrow evening. At this dinner the object of the drive will be fully explained by different speakers and in a sketch especially arranged by the Messrs. Leos and Paddock.

The closing exercises of St. James' Parochial School were held in Frey's Hall Sunday afternoon. Prizes in gold were awarded to pupils for general proficiency as follows: First prizes, eighth grade, John Purcell; second grade, Joseph Matic; fourth grade, Oscar Eckenrode; fourth grade, Sara L. Gerdes; second prizes, eighth grade, Agnes Lawler; sixth grade, Gilbert Rhebeck; fifth grade, Christopher Hildebrand; fourth grade, Mary Smith.

Gold medals for highest average in arithmetic; eighth grade, William Kell; seventh grade, Joseph Matic. Medals for spelling: eighth grade, Mary Mannix; sixth grade, Gilbert Wieser. Highest average in grammar in eighth grade, Agnes Lawler; sixth grade Catherine Kell; eighth grade, Gilbert Wieser; sixth grade, Gilbert Rhebeck; fifth grade, Christopher Hildebrand; fourth grade, Mary Smith.

Two More Automobiles Summoned For Violations.—Burgess Wigfield last night fined two violators of the traffic ordinance...

Foreigner Tries to Take Life: Zenia is in the borough lockup pending a hearing before Squire Stees on a charge of attempting to commit suicide.

Owner Gets Cow.—John E. Smith, of near Hummelstown, last night claimed the cow that the police department found hitched to a fence in South Second street yesterday morning.

Appeal Damage Verdict.—The Middletown Car Company, through Fox and Geyer, attorneys, yesterday appealed to the Superior Court from the $1500 verdict recently awarded Harry J. McGill in a damage suit.

Middleton.—Mrs. Samuel Holstein and son have returned home from a visit to Lancaster.

Miss Katie Stengel has returned from a several weeks' visit to Hanover.

Earl Rudy has secured a position in the office of the Pennsylvania Railroad depot at Harrisburg.

Misses Katherine and Myrtle Ledom, of Hockersville, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Denzler.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Eichelberger have returned to their home in Milton, after several days' visit with Mr. Eichelberger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eichelberger.

Miss Naomi Hanshaw is spending several weeks with her aunt, Mrs. Charles Hightshill, in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Helrig, son, Fred Helrig, of Millersburg, and Mr. and Mrs. William Helrig, of Shamokin, relatives of Mrs. D. E. Rupley, were entertained at the Lutheran parsonage.

Miss Nellie Gladhill, of Chambersburg, spent the week-end with her sister, Miss Emma Gladhill.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hoppie are visiting at Pottsville.

Mr. and Mrs. David Kammerer and son, David, are spending the week at Mr. Kammerer's father, John Kammerer, at a theological student, he filled the pulpit at Salem Lutheran Church on Sunday evening.

ENTIRE COUNTY IS LINING UP

Continued from First Page

through the care and attention of the American fighters in France.

In the first forty-eight hours of the campaign for Steelton's share of the Red Cross fund, which was up at 1 o'clock to-day, members of the five teams collected $13,000.

Second. The campaign for subscriptions does not start until Thursday morning; and until that time members of the various teams are urged to refrain from solicitations.

Third. The money contributed by Americans to their Red Cross will be quite as deadly to the Germans as sort-nosed bullets because it will keep the fighting armies of the allies in condition.

Fourth. In the Harrisburg district the total contributions should total "a dollar a head" for every man, woman and child in the city and its appias as well to Dauphin county.

Fifth. No organization other than the Red Cross exists which will aid in bringing Americans back from France sound in body and mind.

Opening Dinner Wednesday.—As already told, the campaign "opener" will be a dinner in the Board of Trade building to-morrow evening. At this dinner the object of the drive will be fully explained by different speakers and in a sketch especially arranged by the Messrs. Leos and Paddock.

The closing exercises of St. James' Parochial School were held in Frey's Hall Sunday afternoon. Prizes in gold were awarded to pupils for general proficiency as follows: First prizes, eighth grade, John Purcell; second grade, Joseph Matic; fourth grade, Oscar Eckenrode; fourth grade, Sara L. Gerdes; second prizes, eighth grade, Agnes Lawler; sixth grade, Gilbert Rhebeck; fifth grade, Christopher Hildebrand; fourth grade, Mary Smith.

Gold medals for highest average in arithmetic; eighth grade, William Kell; seventh grade, Joseph Matic. Medals for spelling: eighth grade, Mary Mannix; sixth grade, Gilbert Wieser. Highest average in grammar in eighth grade, Agnes Lawler; sixth grade Catherine Kell; eighth grade, Gilbert Wieser; sixth grade, Gilbert Rhebeck; fifth grade, Christopher Hildebrand; fourth grade, Mary Smith.

Two More Automobiles Summoned For Violations.—Burgess Wigfield last night fined two violators of the traffic ordinance...

Foreigner Tries to Take Life: Zenia is in the borough lockup pending a hearing before Squire Stees on a charge of attempting to commit suicide.

Owner Gets Cow.—John E. Smith, of near Hummelstown, last night claimed the cow that the police department found hitched to a fence in South Second street yesterday morning.

Appeal Damage Verdict.—The Middletown Car Company, through Fox and Geyer, attorneys, yesterday appealed to the Superior Court from the $1500 verdict recently awarded Harry J. McGill in a damage suit.

Middleton.—Mrs. Samuel Holstein and son have returned home from a visit to Lancaster.

Miss Katie Stengel has returned from a several weeks' visit to Hanover.

Earl Rudy has secured a position in the office of the Pennsylvania Railroad depot at Harrisburg.

Misses Katherine and Myrtle Ledom, of Hockersville, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Denzler.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Eichelberger have returned to their home in Milton, after several days' visit with Mr. Eichelberger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eichelberger.

Miss Naomi Hanshaw is spending several weeks with her aunt, Mrs. Charles Hightshill, in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Helrig, son, Fred Helrig, of Millersburg, and Mr. and Mrs. William Helrig, of Shamokin, relatives of Mrs. D. E. Rupley, were entertained at the Lutheran parsonage.

Miss Nellie Gladhill, of Chambersburg, spent the week-end with her sister, Miss Emma Gladhill.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hoppie are visiting at Pottsville.

Mr. and Mrs. David Kammerer and son, David, are spending the week at Mr. Kammerer's father, John Kammerer, at a theological student, he filled the pulpit at Salem Lutheran Church on Sunday evening.

Pittsburgh Man Wins Columbia Girl as Bride

Continued from First Page

Marietta, Pa., June 19.—Miss Oneida Metzger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Metzger, was married on Saturday evening to Guy B. Detwiler, of Pittsburgh.

The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, in the presence of the immediate families only.

The bride is popular and is a member of the Cookman Church choir. The couple will live at Columbia, in the county having a position with the Byers Company.

NO WHISTLING IN HOUSE.—During preliminary business to-day members of the House were sharply taken to task by the Speaker, who asserted that if he could discover legislators who whistled during sessions he would have them brought to the bar of the House and disciplined.

THREE NEW SCOUT TROOPS FORMED

New Chief Wants to Have Every Boy in City Enrolled Soon

Since the arrival of J. H. Stine, the new Scout executive, three more troops have been added to the fifteen city divisions. Troops have been formed at the Bethlehem Lutheran with J. W. Fortenbaugh, scoutmaster; the Grace Methodist Church, James C. Peeth, scoutmaster, and the Immanuel Presbyterian, Robert D. Young, scoutmaster.

Young men interested in the Scout movement will meet this evening in the Boyd Memorial Hall to take action on the organization of Scout troops. Mr. Stine intends to organize as many troops as possible throughout the city and to interest every boy of Scout age.

Work will be started in the near future on making complete records of every Scout in the city. The New York headquarters have on file a complete record of every Scout who is working under a director. It will be necessary to get records of every boy in the city and keep them on file at Scout headquarters so that the New York office may be furnished with detailed information.

BANK NAMES COMMITTEE.—The 150 stockholders of the Ickesburg State Bank elected the following building committee at a meeting in the hotel last night: Dr. Kenneth Wolf, Harry McCoy, Elmer Rice, H. V. Baker, H. H. Smith, Dr. Theo. Kharas and J. C. Gray, Dr. Kharas, a Harrisburg man, was elected chairman of the committee; Dr. Wolf, vice-chairman; H. H. Smith, treasurer; and J. C. Gray, secretary.

The committee completed plans to proceed at once with the erection of the building and hopes to have the bank in actual operation by September 1. M. C. Moyer, formerly of Ellipticalburg, Perry county, but of recent years cashier of the Peoples Bank at Raeford, N. C., will probably be the cashier of the Ickesburg State Bank.

BIG ANTIBOOZE FIGHT SCHEDULED FOR COMING YEAR

"Drys" Are Not Discouraged by Failure to Pass Craig Resolution

No resolution proposing state-wide prohibition will be passed in the closing days of this session of the Legislature. The defeat was heard this morning, and came in such a way as it could not be denied credence and acceptance for its worth.

The Rev. Dr. John Royal Harris of Pittsburgh, state superintendent of the Dry Federation of Pennsylvania, immediately declared that the anti-liquor forces would simply go ahead with the work of organizing the State for the purpose of electing members to the Constitution in the present legislative year.

Liquor Forces Win.—It was thought that the Smith resolution had a chance for passage in the Legislature until the present legislative week opened. It is positively known that the liquor forces made a last stand against the resolution and have been successful.

Just try it! Make up a quarter pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It should naturally help to whiten, soften, freshen, and bring out the hidden roses and beauty of any skin. It is wonderful for rough, red hands. Your druggist will sell three ounces of orchard white at little cost, and any grocer will supply the lemons.—Adv.

Wanders Into Hat Store Then Wanders Out With Nice New Headgear

Edward Higgins, 680 Primrose avenue, wandered into the hat department of a clothing store on Market street yesterday afternoon and requested to be shown some hats.

He also had a companion who wanted to look over the stock. While his comrade was inspecting the line Higgins saw one that suited his fancy, put it on his head and nonchalantly wandered out.

When he was captured he declared he didn't mean to steal the new bonnet, simply put it on his head and forgot to take it off. He was given a hearing before Alderman Dezhong this afternoon.

Lemons Whiten and Beautify the Skin! Make Cheap Lotion

The juice of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white makes a whole quarter pint of the most remarkable lemon skin beautifier at about the cost one must pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold creams.

Just try it! Make up a quarter pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It should naturally help to whiten, soften, freshen, and bring out the hidden roses and beauty of any skin. It is wonderful for rough, red hands. Your druggist will sell three ounces of orchard white at little cost, and any grocer will supply the lemons.—Adv.

Advertisement for 'The Live Store' Women's Sweaters. Features 'Always Reliable' slogan, 'TONIGHT' in our windows, and prices ranging from $5.00 to $14.50. Includes illustrations of women in sweaters.

MIDDLETOWN

President Asks Harrisburg For Red Cross Aid

MAYOR MILLER to-day received the following telegram from President Wilson: "Washington, D. C., June 18, 1917. Mayor Charles A. Miller, Harrisburg, Pa.: 'The American people by their overwhelming subscriptions to the Liberty Loan have given new endorsement to the high principles for which America entered the war...'

FOR THROAT AND LUNGS STUBBORN COUGHS AND COLDS Eckman's Alterative

SOLD BY ALL LEADING DRUGGISTS A plate without a roof, which does not interfere with taste or speech. $5 ROOFLESS PLATE

MACK'S DENTAL OFFICES 310 MARKET STREET. Plates repaired while you wait. Come in the evening, have your teeth made the same day.