Will Show Movies of

Life at Inglenook Camp

"I can't get 'em up, I can't get 'em up in the morning." From the time the bugler sounds that rising note until the tired boys gather about the blazing camp fire in the evening parents and boys of the city will see what life at the Y. M. C. A. camp at Inglenook is like. The movies of the camp will be shown at Fahnestock Hall to-morrow evening at 7.30 o'clock. Tickets have been distributed and every boy in the city is invited to be present.

Every phase will be shown, the boys standing in their bared heads as Old Glory foats to the breeze every morning, tent inspection, assembly, boat and swimming races and the general rush for the call to mess. The features of last year's celebration on the Fourth will also be shown.

The Rev. S. W. Herman, of the Zion Lutheran Church, will accompany the boys to the camp this year, which will start on June 29. H. J. Schmidt, field director, will be present to-morrow evening and will give any information to parents concerning the camp. Life at Inglenook Camp

HOUSE PASSES WOODWARD BILL
The House of Representatives to-day passed the Woodward bill authorizing the State Insurance Fund Board to pay expenses out of income and to levy special assessments if necessary. This action was taken after prolonged debate in which Speaker Baldwin participated, asking the fund. The Speaker defended the bill and answered a running fire of questions from Messrs. Mitchell, campbell, Stites and others.
