STOFFER-DOBBS MORNING BRIDAL

Simple June Wedding Takes Place in the Augsburg Lutheran Church

Another school days romance was happily culminated this morning with the marriage of Miss May Montgomery Stoffer and Guy Luther Dobbs.

The ceremony was performed in the Augsburg Lutheran Church, at 9 o'clock, by the pastor, the Rev. A. Maxwell Stamets, in the presence of the immediate families.

The bride wore a smart traveling costume of tan gabardine with hat to harmonize, and a corsage bouquet of white and pink roses.

After a wedding trip to Baltimore, Washington and Mount Vernon, Mr. and Mrs. Dobbs will reside temporarily at his home, 2237 North Fourth street.

The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Stoffer, 2155 Penn street, is one of the attractive younger girls of the city and member of the class of 1917 Central High School.

She is especially interested in church work and is a member of several societies. Mr. Dobbs, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dobbs, was graduated with the class of 1914 Central High School, and is a salesman for Swift & Company.

He is president of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Augsburg Lutheran Church and actively identified with the church interests.

The groom, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Ulrich, 1525 Derry street, to Mervin Baker Kaufman, of this city, was announced Saturday afternoon at a luncheon given by Miss Elizabeth Wilson, at her home, 1533 Hunter street.

A color scheme of pink and white prevailed in the decorations, with a silver basket of sweetheart roses and bouvardia forming the table centerpiece. The favors were tiny pink baskets on the handle of which were tied little hearts bearing the names of the bride and groom.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of the Central High School, class of 1915, and Mr. Kaufman, a son of Mrs. Ellen Baker Kaufman, of East Berlin, is a young businessman.

Those enjoying Miss Wilson's hospitality were Miss Ulrich, Miss Mabel Bright, Miss Mary Shupp, Miss Irene Rhoads, Miss Alice Cusack, Mrs. W. H. Cleckner, Mrs. F. S. Ulrich, Miss Pearl Yahn, Miss Elizabeth Killinger, Mrs. Robert Pattison Cox, Miss Edna Walker, of Bellefonte; Miss Mary Mumma, Miss Ruth Fasnacht, Miss Freda Wilder, Miss Jennie Wilson, Miss Helen Bair and Mrs. George E.
