A MISCELLANEOUS BRIDGE-SHOWER

Miss Margaret R. Boas Is Hostess For Miss Helen B. Walzer, a Bride-Elect

Many prenuptial events are being given for Miss Helen Boas Walzer, whose marriage to Andrew Bisset, of Washington, D. C., will take place Monday at noon.

This afternoon she was guest of honor at a bridge and cleverly-arranged shower with her niece, Miss Margaret Ramsey Boas, 124 Walnut street, as hostess.

The guests included Mrs. H. C. Kennedy, Mrs. Carl E. Richards, Mrs. Scott Leiby, Mrs. William Hammaker, of Chambersburg; Mrs. William Zerby, of Carlisle; Mrs. Irvin Gotschall, of Darby, Pa.; Miss Maria Bisset, of Washington, D. C.; Miss Frances Hamilton, Miss Margaret Oyster, Mrs. Charles Stevenson, Miss Pearl Walzer, Mrs. Luther Bowman, Miss Elizabeth Hill, Mrs. Park Weidner, of Camp Hill; Miss Ellen Boyd, of Philadelphia; Miss Lorene Shelly, Miss Olive Barnett, Miss Anna Walzer, Miss Sara Walzer, Miss Ruth Walzer, Miss Helen Walzer and Mrs. John S. Boas.

The bride-elect was honor guest at a kitchen shower arranged by her aunt, Mrs. John S. Boas, last evening at her home, 1806 North Second street.

Miss Ruth M. Walzer entertained at an informal thimble tea the other afternoon in honor of her sister. The guests made roseleaf bags for the bride-elect. Dorothy Perkins roses and daisies were used on the tea table where the hostess poured for the guests, who included Mrs. Carl M. Richards, Mrs. William Zerby, Carlisle; Mrs. Charles Stevenson, Miss Margaret Miller, Miss Pearl Walzer, Mrs. Luther Bowman, Miss Elizabeth Hill, Mrs. Park Weidner, of Camp Hill; Miss Ellen Boyd, of Philadelphia; Miss Lorene Shelly, Miss Olive Barnett, Miss Anna Walzer, Miss Sara Walzer, Miss Ruth Walzer, Miss Helen Walzer and Mrs. John S. Second Booster Social With a Sewing Contest

The second social of "Booster Week" at the Olivet Presbyterian Church attracted a large gathering last evening when the Church Embroidery Club entertained. The informal program included a piano duet by Miss Helen Gable and Miss Elizabeth Smith, violin and piano duet by Russell Wink and his sister, and a number of much-enjoyed vocal solos by William Boyer, baritone.

The most interesting feature of the evening was a sewing contest, with both men and women workers. The most prize was won by the pastor, the Rev. Alfred L. Taxis, for both skill and speed, and the woman prize by Mrs. C. H. Border. Refreshments closed a delightful evening.

Clear $31 by Festival, Give It to Red Cross

The Red Cross festival held last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Moses, 717 North Second street, by six young girls, was most successful, and the sum of $31 was cleared and presented to-day to Mrs. Henry M. Stine, at the Red Cross rooms, in Walnut street.

Every one was glad to help with donations of flowers, cake and candy and the girls are delighted with the co-operation of their friends who not only helped with the ticket money but attended the festival. The girls arranging the event were the Misses Dorothy Bushnell, Elizabeth Sanson, Genevieve Moses, Minerva Eustoff, Elizabeth Darby and Ellen Harris.

STAPLES LEAD IN WAR GARDENS

Potatoes Ahead With Beans, Corn, Tomatoes and Cabbage Close

Produce in the "war gardens" has reached a stage where an estimate soon can be taken of the percentage of the respective crops and the amount of food stuffs that will be produced. Carefully compiled estimates are being made of the total production.

Ninety per cent of the garden crops on the "war gardens" being operated under the supervision of the agricultural committee of the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce, is potatoes, according to a report submitted yesterday by S. B. Watts, superintendent for the committee. An estimate of the yield of the tubers is impossible at this time because of the various methods used by the planters, and the difference in the time of planting, according to Mr. Watts.

BE CANNY

Home preparedness—cans loaded with food. That rubber ring you put on a preserving jar helps you to stretch your income. The awful question, "What shall I have for dinner?" is easily answered if your shelves are full of home-canned products. Can't eat 'em all in summer? Not enough in winter? Home canning is the answer. You put a lid on waste every time you seal a preserving jar. Canned berries are bird proof. Frost doesn't nip canned vegetables.
