BENDER IS BACK WITH PHILLIES

Manager Moran Anxious to Keep Team in Winning Stride

"CHIEF" BENDER

Philadelphia, June 28.—"Chief" Bender, the veteran Indian pitcher, who was with the Phillies last year, is to be given another trial by Pat Moran, and will join the Phils at Brooklyn to-day.

Several pitchers were looked over in the West, and it has been reported at various times that offers had been made for Loudermilk, of Columbus, and Keating, of Kansas City, but Manager Moran stated last night that none of the clubs owning pitchers that would be used as a relief would agree to sell until September 1.

The Phillies have six games with Brooklyn in four days and are in red-hot fight with the Giants for first place, and Moran needs a pitcher who can be used as a relief for his regulars. At present he has only Fittery, a southpaw, and believes that Bender will prove his worth at this critical stage.

SPORT MYSTERIES On certain days a batsman swings Upon the bally pill; He lands upon it with a thud And drives it where he will; And then the next day, in a trance, He paddles like a Liz; I do not know why this is so— I only know it is.

THE PITCHING TEST "The test of pitching ability," notes an exchange, "is not in games won and lost, but in the number of earned runs allowed by a pitcher."

Take the case of Christy Mathewson. When Matty was working an earned run meant nothing to him at all. When the score was 1—1 or 2—1 or 1—0 he was out there working at top speed. But let the Giants get him five or six hits, and what happens? Immediately Matty begins to ease up and save his arm for another day.

TEST OF CLASS The test of class is ability to adjust one's game to the occasion—to be able to ease off when the chance arrives, and then get back at top speed when the call comes.

Johnny Ball, one of the greatest of all golfers, would on one day meet an opponent who had an 83 and Ball would win 2 to 1. The next day he might meet a man who had a 76, and Ball would again win, 2 to 1.

HOW TO BE AN UMPIRE An umpire should stand up and call. Each passing out—each strike and ball; He should not try and counter back With any sulphur-lined attack.

Colonel Bert Leston Taylor in "Golf Illustrated" suggests that "the open stance is better for hoeing." This is an important detail. In hoeing the main thing is the proper grip and to keep one's eye on the weed.

Where would the Red Sox be without Babe Ruth? asks an exchange. Why bother? The Red Sox are not without Babe Ruth.

"Have you ever noticed," comments Jack Doyle, "how much sorer the outfielder who says 'I've got it' is than the one who says 'I have it'?"

WELLY'S CORNER

Blue Ridge League officials are trying hard to keep going, but it looks like a blow up after July 4. There is no denying the fact that minors are being hit hard this season.

There is a general belief among fans in minor league towns that it would be a good thing to cut out baseball until after the war.

It must be handed to the Harrisburg Division team of the Philadelphia and Reading Railway League, and then declared the incident closed; and

Whereas, The New York chapter of the Baseball Writers' Association in meeting assembled at the New York Press Club on June 27, 1917, believes that a great injustice has been done

Whereas, John J. McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, made his appeal to the National League, by repudiating an interview in Pittsburgh which charged the writers' association with general incapacity and the misuse of power—

Whereas, President Tener and the board of directors of the National League accept McGraw's repudiation without investigation and without giving the baseball writers a hearing
