GREECE JOINS ENTENTE BY ENTERING WAR

New Greek Government Declares That State of War Exists With Kaiser's Government; Haig Extends His Movement and Strikes on Flank of Army Defending Great Coal City of Lens; Battle at Verdun Once More

Athens, June 29.—Though war has not yet been declared, the Greek government considers that a state of war exists since its advent to power yesterday. The recall of the Greek diplomatic representatives accredited to the Central powers and their allies is imminent.

In the field of military operations the important development at present is the cumulative pressure which General Sir Douglas Haig is applying to the German lines about the coal city and mine fields of Lens.

British Take Position

Some six miles to the south, in the neighborhood of Oppy, the British last night captured a German position on a front of more than a mile. Closer to Lens, on the front south of the Souchez river, the British continued to gain ground.

On the French front the Verdun district has again sprung into prominence. The Germans have been manifesting renewed activity there and last night they delivered a powerful attack, after a heavy bombardment on the British lines.

U. S. Soldiers Told to Pay Way as They Go

New York, June 29.—Major General J. Franklin Bell, commanding the Department of the East, reviewed a regiment of engineers and one of coast artillery at Fort Mifflin here.

"In a short time many of you will be in Europe, and probably, by and by, on the front line of a battle. It is the duty of each of you to be prepared to pay your way as you go."

ELIZABETHTOWN BAND TO RED CROSS

Elizabethtown, June 29.—The Elizabethtown band has tendered its services for a concert to-morrow, to be given by the Red Cross auxiliary at the Lyceum.

THERE IS A PLEASANT SIDE TO THE LIFE OF A YOUNG SOLDIER IN TRAINING AS WELL

The life of the embryo soldier is not just one mad dash as is sometimes erroneously believed. In the above photo is shown the Third battery of artillery at the Fort Niagara camp resting in the shade of the giant trees near the lake. In the foreground trying up his "pack" is Leon Wilson, a Harrisburg boy. He served an enlistment last year with the Yale battery.

PUBLIC SCHOOL CHILDREN HAVE 3,434 ACCOUNTS

More Than $2,700 Deposited as Result of Educational Thrift System

With 3,434 accounts started, the Educational Thrift System which was installed recently in the public schools to teach the children to save money, is proving a success. So far $2,757.31 is on deposit in accounts ranging from a few cents to more than twenty-five dollars.

RECRUITING WEEK ENLISTMENTS ARE BELOW AVERAGE

Only One More Day to Fill Ranks; More Join Co. C and Rotary Unit

Only one more day to fill ranks in the national recruiting week, enlistments at the Regular Army station are still below the average that had been anticipated. While exact figures are not available from Washington as to the number secured, it is believed in army circles that unless to-day and to-morrow bring a greater average than former days, the nation will fall far short of the 70,000 men called by the President.

NATIONAL GUARD WILL BE SENT SOUTH TO TRAIN

Date of Draft to Fill Ranks Is Not Yet Fixed by the Government

Washington, June 29.—National Guard regiments will be sent forward to their divisional mobilization camps in the South immediately after they have been drafted into the federal service.

German Prisoners May Not Send Money Out of U. S. During the War

Washington, June 29.—In deciding whether German prisoners of war in the United States may make and sell toys for the benefit of the German Red Cross, the judge advocate general of the army holds there is no treaty which would impose upon the United States a duty to permit prisoners to aid any institutions connected with or serving an enemy of the country in any capacity.

No Reduction in Hard Coal as Yet, Retailers of Harrisburg Assert

"The public has misunderstood the agreement reached between coal operators and the Government," said Howard C. Fry, president of the Fry Coal Company, to-day.

Dutch Armored Cruiser Visits American Port

An Atlantic Port, June 29.—A Dutch armored cruiser, the Hr. Ms. D. 8, flew the flag of Holland to come into this port for more than ten years, arrived here to-day. The ship will remain for several days.

Mayor Slightly Improved: Mayor Miller, who has been ill at his home since his return to the city last week, after a rest at the seashore, is slightly improved to-day, according to physicians.

WORLD DISASTER TO MAKE PEACE AT THIS TIME

Premier Lloyd George Declares Allies Must Fight Until the End

GERMANY WOULD QUIT War to Continue Until Danger of Civilization Is Forever Past

Glasgow, June 29.—In discussing the question of peace to-day Premier Lloyd George said that if the war should be concluded a single hour before the allied powers reached the end they set out to attain at the beginning of the war, it would be the greatest disaster that ever befell mankind.

Expect Peace Offer

"The utterances possess notable significance at this moment, when there have been suggestions that the allied powers fighting Germany might agree to a peace conference." The impression has been given that the expected developments would be of a dramatic nature and the press here to-day is completely unexcited by such a prospect.

Two Teachers Charge Host Attacked Them and Killed a Third

Laconia, N. H., June 29.—Miss Elizabeth Hues, assistant matron, and Miss Dorothy Davis, a teacher at the State School for Feeble-Minded here, were suffering to-day from wounds on the head and nervous shocks received when their companion, Miss Alice Black Richards, head teacher at the school, was attacked and killed by a man on the shore of Lack Winnisquam last night.

Six Women Released From Jail Pose as Martyrs to the Cause

Washington, June 29.—Six women who have done three days in jail for picketing the White House were released this morning at the expiration of their sentences and were the heroes at a breakfast given in their honor at Woman's Party headquarters.
