AMUSEMENTS

MAJESTIC—Vaudeville. PAXTANG PARK—Vaudeville. COLONIAL—"Souls Triumphant." REGENT—"Those Without Sin."

Fetching costumes worn by good-looking chorus girls, good singers and dancers, to say nothing at the of a clever comedian—these Majestic are a few of the features included in the "Revue De Vogue," the pretentious musical comedy offering appearing at the Majestic the last half of this week.

Director Sam L. Rogers, of the Bureau of the Census, Department of Commerce, as the result of a calculation based on the census figures of 1910, the reports of the Bureau of Immigration for the period between 1910 and the present time and the estimated mortality during that period.

These 4,662,000 foreigners are distributed, according to country of birth, as follows: Germany 1,376,000; Austria 1,276,000; Hungary 738,000; Turkey 183,000; Bulgaria 119,000.

It is impossible to say whether the proportions of aliens—that is, persons who have not applied for naturalization certificates—among these foreigners are approximately the same in 1917 as they were in 1910.

Strong moral fabric depicting the struggle a man makes against the habits of former days, which deals with Powers, a libertine, who devotes himself constantly to a career of dissipation.

"Souls Triumphant," the new Triangle release with Lillian Gish in the leading role, which is being shown at the Colonial Theater to-day, is a play of strong moral fabric depicting the struggle a man makes against the habits of former days.

Don't get the idea that it is too warm to go to the theater during the hot weather. Just get Paxtang Park yourself comfortably to-day, in a seat out at the Regent Theater.

London, June 29.—An account of the German plot to blow up Norwegian steamships was given in the Storting yesterday by Foreign Minister Ihen, says an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen.

EUROPEANS IN U. S. 4,662,000

Registration Shows There Are 2,349,000 Germans Here

Washington, D. C., June 29.—The natives of Germany, Austria-Hungary, Bulgaria and Turkey now residing in the United States aggregate approximately 4,662,000, or about 4 1/2 per cent. of the total population of the country.

The foregoing total is announced by Director Sam L. Rogers, of the Bureau of the Census, Department of Commerce, as the result of a calculation based on the census figures of 1910, the reports of the Bureau of Immigration for the period between 1910 and the present time and the estimated mortality during that period.

1910, but, assuming this to be the case, the number of male aliens 21 years of age and over included in the above total would be approximately 964,000, or about 3.2 per cent. of the total number of male inhabitants of the United States 21 years of age and over.

The proportion of aliens among male Germans 21 years of age and over is very much smaller than the corresponding proportions for the other countries named, having been only a little more than 11 per cent. in 1910, as against approximately 63 per cent. for Austrians, 74 per cent. for Hungarians, 82 per cent. for Turks and nearly 90 per cent. for Bulgarians.

The number of mules exported in the fiscal year ending with June, 1915, was 65,788, in the next year, 111,915, and in the year which ends with June, 1917, 222,839, suggesting that the total for the fiscal year which ends with this month will approximate 300,000.

The demands of the war do not seem to have caused any material advance in the prices at which the horses and mules have been exported.

It is not surprising that the countries at war find it necessary to draw upon the United States for horses, since we have over one-fifth of the 100,000,000 horses of the world, and far more than any other single country except Russia, which has about 30,000,000, against about 22,000,000 in the United States.

Smith Form-a-Tractor Aids Motor in Crisis

Through its new tractor recently placed upon the market, the Smith Motor Truck Corporation is doing its share to aid the nation in properly preparing for a long, victorious war.

This machine which is an attachment that can be fitted to Ford's, or other similar makes of machines, is adaptable either to small or large farms, and enables farm owners to accomplish far more than is possible by the old horse-drawn implements.

By attaching the tractor to the plow, cultivator or other piece of farm machinery, the farmer is able to cover his acres much quicker and to dispense with men and animals.

Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Carl Froman has issued a nationwide appeal to tractor owners, asking them to make their outfits work from dawn until dark; if necessary, to make them work at night, if there are enough to fill the shift.

"Don't let one acre, which otherwise might not be planted," go untilled, is Froman's injunction. "Help your neighbors and do your part in strengthening the lines of the allies in Europe."

Smith Form-a-Tractor owners have a real mission to perform and from all accounts, are performing it.

Import Duty does nothing for a cigarette

Not a thing—except make the cigarette cost more than it should. Because the value or taste of a cigarette doesn't depend on the Import Duty on the tobacco.

That's why Piedmonts, with all their taste-goodness, can afford to give you better quality than cigarettes which have to take care of the cost of Import Duty on the tobacco.

Besides, VIRGINIA TOBACCO is the only tobacco that has character—that up-and-doing "sparkle" that makes a cigarette a cigarette. Just say "a package of Piedmonts, please."
