Wisconsin Teacher and Wife She Killed

MISS GRACE LUSK MRS. DAVID ROBERTS

Miss Grace Lusk, a normal school teacher at Waukesha, Wis., shot to death Mrs. David Roberts, wife of well-known veterinarian with whom she was in love. Among her effects was found a letter to Mrs. Roberts which she had not mailed. It explained her reason for murder:

"You must have known for a long time that your husband's affections had passed from you; that he cared for some one else. That is sufficient annulment of any marriage vow that ever was given.

"That is the way you respectable folk—good, moral women — do things in order to keep your reputation and live lives of ease.
"In the eternal triangle our souls require the elimination of one character. The two whos should remain are the two whose affection is mutual, Will you some time read Ellen Key on 'Love and Marriage?'."

The enrollment is to be made by women who will sign upon cards their willingness to eliminate waste in households and agree to follow suggestions of the state committee's department of food supply. Dr. Schaeffer's letter asks that all school boards co-operate with the state committee and that meetings be held to further the plan.

Another suggestion is that cards be left at every home by volunteer committees and that where people are harvesting it be made as soon after as possible. Co-operation, he writes, will not only save expense in administration, but be of vast help to the nation.
