PATRIOTIC SUNDAY WILL BE CELEBRATED TOMORROW

Prayers Will be Offered by Sunday Schools of City and State For All Belligerents and For the Advancement of Christ's Kingdom; Many Special Exercises Being Planned

Complying with the request of President Wilson and Herbert C. Hoover, food administrator, to-morrow will be observed as "Patriotic Sunday" throughout the city, State and nation.

It is estimated that upwards of 100,000 Sunday schools will hold special services and take up Red Cross offerings.

Ten thousand Presbyterian churches will hold special services in addition, in response to the plea of the General Assembly.

Prayers will be offered for all belligerents and the advancement of Christ's kingdom, to express gratitude to God for our nation and to arouse feelings of loyalty and devotion to the country.

An effort will be made to enlist all Sunday school members in some form of patriotic service and teachers will be urged to affiliate themselves with Red Cross organizations.

Prayer for Boys in Uniform At the evening service to-morrow at Memorial Lutheran Church a patriotic service will be held.

At 8 o'clock, Good singing, devotions in charge of DeLoey White, a pantomime, entitled "The Star Spangled Banner," by Miss Anna Gross and soloist, and an address by the pastor, in the program.

Honor Young Men The Sunday school and the morning services in Park Street United Evangelical Church to-morrow will be given largely in honor of the young men of the Sunday school and church who have enlisted and returned.

LITTLE SHORT OF CRIME TO USE WHEAT FOR LIQUOR

Trail of the Serpent is Still Abroad in the Land; Demand Nation-Wide Constitutional Prohibition

BY ALLAN SUTHERLAND That the trail of the serpent is still abroad in the land is evident from the following article which recently appeared from the pen of a young student, giving a glimpse of a personal experience.

"She lived, as you might suspect, in one of those narrow, filthy courts which contain a glimpse of our city's past, and which were scattered around, and the atmosphere of the room was stifling.

"I tell the story of this unfortunate woman because it constitutes one of the most striking instances of the kind of things which are being done down here. The woman I have pictured is not a prostitute, but a girl of what will assist as long as the saloon exists.

With the horror of this story upon me, and if I could, I would not only be a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I would be a member of the Anti-Saloon League, and I would be a member of the Anti-Saloon League.

With the horror of this story upon me, and if I could, I would not only be a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I would be a member of the Anti-Saloon League, and I would be a member of the Anti-Saloon League.
