Those who only remember Robert W. Chambers by his present day outtin a novelistic way have probably forgotten that he also wrote "The cruit," quite applicable to the present situation. The first verse follows:

Sez Corporal Madden to Private McFadden
"Bedad, yer a bad 'un!

Now turn out yer toes!

Yer belt is unhookit,

Ye reap is on crookit,

Ye may not be dhrunk,

But, be jabers, ye look it!

Coaching a football team, managing a ball team or instructing a golfer is no jelly-coated endeavor. You might also ask some sergeant if he considers training recruits a hollow-jointed cinch. But when you ask him that be ready to duck.

THE BEST FIRST BASEMAN

When you open an argument that calls for naming the best first baseman in the game to-day you get four answers from various points of the compass. They are—Stuffy McInnis, Wally PlPpp, George Sisler and Hal Chase. These, to a certainty, are the four best. Chase is the premier in the National League, with the other three beak and nozzle in the American. It would be hard to find a more valuable first baseman than Walter Pipp is now.

ican. It would be hard to find a more valuable first paseman than whether Pipp is now.

In addition to being a brilliant infielder, he is the most timely batsman in the game. Last season he drove over more than any other player, not barring Speaker or Cobb, who outbatted him from 80 to 100 points. This season he is leading the league again as a run-driver-in. Yet who can place any man above Stuffy McInnis—a great infielder, a hard hitter and a hustier—even with a tail end team? Stuffy certainly leads over the long count—for he carries an eight-year average around .315, and in that time no man has fielded the job with greater effect.

THE BREAK OF THE GAME

A good part of it is in the break. Not all—but a husky section. Where class is fairly even it's the break that counts.

There's Jack Hutchinson and golf. Jack last season was playing brilliantly all the year. In the Open Championship he led all pros by more than a stride. He turned in the lowest score ever made in an Open. But Chick Evans, an amateur, beat him to the wire.

In the Professional Championship later on he played with equal brilliancy. He should have won. But Jim Barnes nosed him out on the last putt. This season Hutchinson led the Open by a healthy margin. It was not even close. But this season they were awarding no championships.

Curley and Jones—
Curley and Jones—
Gee—but it's tough!
Curley is surly
And Jones, he groans,
Gee—but it's rough!
The old meal ticket is through—and, wow!
They gotter work for a living now!

Babe Ruth's hitting has won more than one game for the Red Sox, but last hit will cost them almost as many games as he has won.

"Volley ball is the great army game," writes a captain from Texas. It ought to be—with that name.

What has become of the old-fashioned dope which proclaimed that the Giants would have the league race broken up by the first day of July with a ten-game lead?

To Reopen McGraw Case For Writers on Friday

New York, July 2.—The case involving the repudiated interviews of John J. McGraw, manager of the New York National League baseball club, the newspapermen who made the last road trip with the Giants, will probably be reopened by John K. Tener, president of the league, on July 6. Although the exact date was not set, it was said McGraw would have an opportunity to offer an explanation of his part of the affair next Friday unless some clubowners found they were unable to be in New York on that date.

In discussing the request made by the New York chapter of the Baseball Writers Association, President Tener said that he was not only willing to reopen the case in order that the sporting writers might have an opportunity of vindicating themselves, but he would welcome a thorough investigation of McGraw's charges.

C. H. Sauers defeated W. Pavord, after a brilliant match and with the fine score of 79. Pavord was a finalist in the championship a few years ago. In the other sixteens outside of the championship one, the only other match of distinction was between G. S. Trout and J. F. Brooke in the second sixteen. This match was carried to the twenty-second green before Brooke was defeated.
An interesting match was between the Rev. Dr. E. N. Kremer and his soon, H. S. Kremer, the father winning over the son by a goodly margin. The score card schedule follows:
