SUMMER WEDDING IN OLD PAXTON

Miss Helen Boas Walzer Plights Troth Where Her Great-Grandmother Did

Old Paxton Presbyterian church, the scene of many weddings since Colonial days when it was built, never saw a prettier service than that of to-day at high noon when Miss Helen Boas Walzer, daughter of Mrs. John W. Walzer, 1803 North Second street, was united in marriage with Andrew Gustave Bisset of Washington, D. C.

It was most fitting that the ceremony take place here, for the bride's great-grandparents, Sarah Ryder and George Simmons, plighted their troth in the same church in early days of the country and many family memories are associated with the old place of worship.

Daisies, pink rambler roses and fern in profusion were used in decorating. The windowed and edged with the beautiful flowers. At the altar palms and baskets of roses made an exquisite setting for the wedding party. It was essentially a summer wedding in the country, for the girls all wore their filmy frocks with large hats wreathed in flowers and the men wore white trousers, dark blue coats and straw hats to carry out the thought.

Miss Genevieve Kelley, the organist, gave a short program of music. The service, her numbers including the wedding hymn, "O God, Be Merciful to Me," "The Bridal Chorus," "The Lohengrin" and "The Wedding March" as a recessional.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Luther Walzer, of Bellefonte, wore an exquisite frock of white Georgette crepe, beaded in roses. Her fine white straw hat was covered in mistle and the embroidered crown was wreathed in tiny white ostrich plumes. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Ruth McCullough Walzer was maid of honor for her sister, wearing pink crepe de chine, a picture hat of chiffon and carrying pink roses and marguerites. John Leister, of Watsonstown, was best man.

Wedding Breakfast Follows After the service, attended by only the immediate relatives of the couple, a wedding breakfast of forty covers was served at the bride's home, where daisies and pink rambler were used in decorative garden effects. The favors were tiny bags of rice.

The wedding journey will include southern pleasure resorts and as the newlyweds left the house, the bride in a charming traveling costume of dark blue tulle and Georgette crepe with large rose colored hat, they were showered with rose leaves instead of confetti or rice.

Returning, Mr. and Mrs. Bisset will reside on Spring Road, Washington, D. C. The bride, who has a host of friends in this vicinity, is a graduate of the Central High school, where she was a charter member of the D. V. V. Sorority. She is also a graduate of Kretzel Institute in the Domestic Science department and was for a time a social worker in Philadelphia.

Mr. Bisset, an alumnus of Lafayette College, Chi Phi fraternity man, now a civil engineer in service with the United States Government. Among the out-of-town guests here for the wedding festivities were: Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bisset, Peter Bisset, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. David Bisset, Miss Marian Bisset and Alvord Bisset all of Washington, Miss Laura Bisset of Lewisburg and Miss Anna McCullough of Baltimore.
