CAN RAISE 5,000,000 MEN SAYS GENERAL EDWARDS

SAYS GENERAL EDWARDS
Hartford, Conn., July 3. — In a speech here last night at a luncheon in his nonor, Major General Clarence R. Edwards, commander of the Department of the Northeast, declared that "the selective draft might perhaps move up to two million men, and if needed, the country can raise 5,000,000 men, and the draft may be the forerunner of universal military service in the United States."

Injured when the workmen do the tamping.

The park authorities report that nearly two hundred automobiles used the roads through Wildwood Park last Sunday. The Sunday previous 175 automobile parties went over the drives. Scores of plenic parties are in the woods every day and fishing is more popular than ever. Pike and carp, with some catifish and cels, are being caught.

The golfers report that never before have the links on the Reservoir Park grounds been in such fine condition. Close attention on the part of the park authorities and frequent rains have made the fair greens for the most part as good as the putting greens were a few years back. All of the roads have been edged and put into first-class condition. A pavilion

In passing on the claim of Patrick Carr, Drifton, vs. Coxe Brothers and Company, Wilkes-Barre, the board holds that in computing wages the entire amount earned by him during the full ten hours worked per day should have been taken into consideration and compensation awarded on a nine-hour day, when Carr worked an hour less in order to draw pay, should be changed to a ten-hour day.

Flag Is Presented at Big Union Meeting

A large American flag was presented to the St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church, Sunday evening. The progress was carried out in connection with the regular union service

The progress was carried out in connection with the regular union service held in Harris Park at 7 o'clock, and in the presence of a large company of people.

The first address was made by Dr. John H. Young, of New Cumberland, a Civil War veteran, who gave some of his personal experiences back in the '60s. Mr. Young was followed by a young soldier from the Lemoyne camp, Paul R. Bishing, who said that, with his comrades, he was ready to obey the call of his country.

After singing the national hymn four Civil War veterans, John Snavely, Benjamin Bowmaster, Daniel Rohrer and Mr. Graham, unfolded the flag before the audience, which was presented to the church by Mr. Jackson, and received by the pastot, the Rev. William Moses. Mr. Jackson's speech was thoughtful and earnest. GREEK WARSHIP BLOWN UP

LAST TRIP FOR STAGE

Marietta, Pa., July 3.—Saturday evening when Jacob K. Miller, of Maytown, left the Marietta post office, it was his last trip as carrier of the mail between Marietta and Maytown. With the retirement of Mr. Miller, the last stage in Lancaster county goes into history. He will be succeeded on Monday morning by W. W. Frymyer, of Marietta, who carries the mail from the Marietta post office in addition to the Maytown route. A photograph of the old stage was taken. Petersburg, Ind., July 3. — Lester Pattle is going to leave his hat at home for a while. For Lester is a supporter of the Red Cross and wants everybody to know it.

After much study Lester finally decided on what he thought would be the best scheme to show his enthusiasm. This morning he went to a barber shop and whispered a few words to the barber. Then the barber got busy.

RUSSIA FOILS PEACE PLOT

Board Acts in a number of Radical Socialists Arrested Before Far-Reaching Scheme Could Be Executed

> By Associated Press
> Rome, July 3.—A far-reaching plot > on the part of the MaximHist faction > of the Russian Socialists to selze the members of the provisional govern-ment and the leaders of the Workmen's and Soldiers' Deputies, and then to recall all soldiers from the front and end the war, is reported in press dispatches from Switzerland. Accorddiscovered just as it was about to be put into execution. The government, in agreement with the Workmen's and Soldiers' Deputies, has proclaimed martial law, it is announced, and proceeding to arrest large numbers of men. Among the persons appre-hended, it is reported, are 220 German agents.

No word of the proclamation of nartial law in Russia has been re-seived, and so far as known the cen-sorship has not been restored.

Raid Plotters
Petrograd, July 3.—A force of Cossacks acting under orders from the provisional government, raided the villa of former Minister Duronovo, which, since the revolution, has been the headquarters of Maximilists and anarchists, many of whom were returned exiles from America. The government has given orders to arrest criminals among the anarchists and also persons who helped to release offenders detained in the Kresti and also persons who helped to re-lease offenders detained in the Kresti prison. When the Cossacks entered the yard several bombs were thrown by anarchists. The bombs, however, failed to explode. The Cossacks did not reply, but on entering the villa they found the body of a well-known anarchist. Arrests were made and the villa is now in the hands of the troops.
