FETTERMAN IS RECORD-MAKER

Wins at Uniontown With New Figures; Oldfield Flivvers Out

Uniontown, Pa., July 5. — Fifteen thousand persons saw "Red" Fetterman, of Pittsburgh, in a Peerless eight break the track record for a distance of 112½ miles (100 laps) at the Uniontown Speedway yesterday.

The previous record was hung up by Louis Chevrolet, who drove a Frontenac car, the hundred laps last December averaging 90.4 miles per hour. Fetterman, who is classed as an amateur, in the dealers' race yesterday averaged 91.5 miles per hour.

Earl Boyer, driving a Frontenac car, won the championship event, taking the first and third heats of the leature race. The race was for eighty laps around the mile and an eightn sepectively and so the second money. Fetterman in his Peerless won the Australian pursuit race, a novel event, Denny W. Detroit, Mich. July 5. — Ralph de Palma and Barney Oldfield Loses

Detroit, Mich. July 5. — Ralph de Palma and Barney Oldfield, rival "speed kings," each of whom has for more than a decade admitted that he is the best dirt-track automobile driver of the two, fought it out here yesterday in three catch-as-catch-can rounds. De Palma still admits he has something on Barney. He proved it. The Italian driver not only beat Oldfield at twenty-live miles, fifteen miles and ten miles, but clipped thrity-live. His marks in the other two events were 13.03 2-5 and 8.38 4-5 respectively.

The game that day from round to round had been a scrappy fight;
The home club and the visitors had battled close to night;;
The visitors had tallied in the fourteenth round at last,
And, while the chance for victory seemed pretty nearly past,
The frenzied fans in chorus, with the old-time wooly roar,
Rose up and clamored madly for at least the tieing score.

The first two fanned the breezes, but the last guy caught one good; He cuffed it on the trademark and it bounded off the wood; The Bugs stood up and bellowed as he slid into the plate. And hailed the doughty hero who had blocked their bitter fate; The umpire paused a moment as he looked around in doubt. And then, in shaking, quaking voice, exclaimed, "The runner's out!"

That night his wife awaited him, quite pained at his delay. Until she got a little note which these sad words did say:

"Honey, dear, listen here, I'm afraid to go home from the park; Every day the papers say "There's an umpire slugged for a lar So here I sit in the clubhouse alone, wailing aloud in the dark; "There's no place like home, sweet home, But I'm afraid to go home in the dark."

Land Eleventh Inning Battle With Rosewood A. C.; Sensational Plays Feature

sational Plays Feature

Old-time "pep" was in evidence yesterday afternoon in the game between West End A. C. and Rosewood A. C. The "uptown" won out in the eleventh with two men down, score 2 to 1. No better game has been seen in Harrisburg this season than that of yesterday afternoon.

In the morning 800 fans witnessed a one-sided game, West End winning by a score of 13 to 0. Challenger held Rosewood to three hits. Hits by W. Euker, B. Kline and McKeever featured the game.

The afternoon battle was witnessed by a crowd of 1,000. From start to finish it was a real ball game. Hits were scattered and the pitchers were tight in pinches.

Sensational Fielding
Thrills were many, each team having sensational spurts. West End pulled off three fast plays. Bell and W. Euker were ginger-boys.

Rosewood's work was of a high order. Their only shortcoming was failure to bunch their hits. G. Killinger, at second base, was the big sensation. Kent put up a great game at short. The score follows:

Sunbury, Pa., July 5.—The Fourth was the thirty-fourth anniversary of the opening oft he first electric fight lant in the world, at Vine and Fourth streets, Sunbury. Thomas A.
Edison, superintendended the installation of the then three wire system, and the Citey Hotel, was the first building lighted. When the light was switched on the building was crowded and a fierce rain was falling. Several lights flashed fire, and went out, and the people believing the "new fangled contraption" would burn them up fled home in the rain. Mr. Edison soon had these breaks repaired, and the lights burned uninterruptedly the rest of the night. No celebration of the anniversary was held.
