PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS OF GENERAL INTEREST

GEN. NEVILLE'S GRANDNEPHEW WEDS HERE

LIEUT. AND MRS. HENRY R. BEHRENS;

Unusual military interest centers around the marriage of Miss Marie Elizabeth McCalley and Lieutenant Henry Rasick Behrens in this city to-day, because the bride is a sister of Captain James B. McCalley, of the United States Aviation Corps, and the bridegroom, of the Coast Ariellery Corps, U. S. Army, is a grandnephew of General Neville, who is leading the French troops against von Hindenberg.

The ceremony, taking place this afternoon at 4.30 o'clock in the rectory of St. Patrick's Cathedral, will be performed by the Rev. Father Daniel J. Carey in the presence of the immediate families and a few personal friends. The bride, a daughter of Mrs. James B. McCalley, of this city, who will be given in marriage by her brother, Captain McCalley, has chosen a smart wedding frock of honey-colored gabardine, with hat to harmonize and a corsage bouquet of sweetheart roses. She will be attended by her sister, Miss Irene McCalley, as maid of honor, who will wear a soft white gown withe large black hat and corsage bouquet of pink sweet peas and roses. Charles Neville Behrens, of Kingston, N. Y., will be best man for his brother. The young couple leaves immediately after the service for a brief wedding trip and will make their home at Fort Monroe, Va., where Lieutenant Behrens is now stationed.

The bride who has a host of friends in this yienity is well known.

The bride who has a host of friends in this vicinity is well known in athletic circles, having won honors in several city tennis tournaments. She is also a musician and a member of the Wednesday Club. Lieutenant Behrens, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Behrens, of Kingston, N. Y., is a mechanical engineer, graduated with the class of 1912, Cornell University. He was in this city for a time, connected with the Bell Telephone Company.

DUNATHAN-GROVE Pretty Miss Strouse MORNING BRIDAL

Enhaut Girl Becomes Bride of Ohio Man This Morning;
Ceremony in Church

A romance of college days at Findlay College, Ohio, culminated in the wedding of Miss Grace Webster Grove, of Enhaut, and Homer Ross Dunathan, of Findlay, Ohio. The wedding took place at 10 o'clock this morning in the Enhaut, Church of God with the bride's father, the Rev. C. H. Grove, pastor of the church, officiating, assisted by the the wedding of Miss Grace Webster Grove, of Enhaut, and Homer Ross Dunathan, of Findlay, Ohio. The wedding took place at 10 o'clock this morning in the Enhaut Church of God with the bride's father, the Rev. C. H. Grove, pastor of the church, officiating, assisted by the Rev. O. J. Farling of this city. The church was prettily decorat-of God with the bride's father, the Rev. C. H. Grove, pastor of the church, officiating, assisted by the Rev. O. J. Farling of this city.

The church was prettily decorated with roses and ferns, suggesting a dainty green and pink effect.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Professor Lewis A. Elhuff, of Pittsburgh, wore an attractive gown of old cream lace over satin with bodice of tulle and skirt embroidered in wreaths of pale ribbons. Her tulle veil was embroidered with ribbon knots and caught win valley lilles, and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses. Miss Frances Grove, who was maid of honor for her sister, wore a lovely gown of pale blue chiffon over satin and a large white hat. Her arm bouquet was of daisies. The bridesmaids were Miss Hattle Dunathan, a twin sister of the bridegroom, who wore a gown of pink satin and a large white hat and carried an arm bouquet of daisies; and Miss Alice Yoder, of Mt. Carmel, who wore a gown of yellow satin, a large white hat and carried an arm bouquet of daisies; and Miss Alice Yoder, of Mt. Mr. and Mrs. Kapner Hosts at Their Country Place

Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Kapner, of Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Kapner, of Cottage Ridge, arranged a genuine old-fashioned Fourth of July celebration yesterday at their farm at Beaver Station. Over a hundred guests arrived in motortrucks, automobiles and by tram, spending the day in the open and enjoying everyminute of the time. There were rides in hay wagons, ball games, tennis, other outdoor sports, and everyone was ready for the country meals served so bountifully by the hosts. Fireworks added to the evening's pleasure as well as music, and the ride home by moonlight made a fitting closing to a perfect day.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fager and sons, of New York city, are guests of Dr. and Mrs. John H. Fager, 1234 North Sixth street.
