ed with a local firm for over five years. Both members of the new firm are practical jewelers, watchmakers, diamond setters and engravers.

Mr. Reiter and Mr. Kaplan have many personal friends and business acquaintances who wish them unqualified success in their new undertaking.

Bryan Takes Issue on the Drink Question

Washington, July 6.—Just before the recess in the food debate in the Senate yesterday Senator Sheppard, of Texas, introduced a statement from William J. Bryan which consisted of an article prepared by the Commoner for the forthcoming number of a magazine. Mr. Bryan had carefully marked his article "Not to be released until published in the Sheppard magazine," but Senator Sheppard forgot about this, and the Congressional Record of today heat the magazine with its own "exclusive" article. Mr. Bryan says: "To draw a distinction between whisky, for instance, which contains a high percentage of alcohol, and wine and beer, which contain a lower percentage of alcohol, would be like trying to fix a line between moderate and immoderate drinking. No words have yet been coined which can fix a point at which the use of liquor becomes excessive."

Sec. Baker Rescinds Order on Censorship

Washington, July 15.—Secretary Baker last night revoked his order diverting the War Department for censoring all press cablegrams concerning American troops in France. The public information committee announced that "the emergency having passed," the War Department would permit cable matter to go directly to the Press Associations or newspapers.

YANKEE GIRLS MAKE SHELLS

Bridgeport, July 6.—Women and girls are doing their bit in the munition plants of Bridgeport. In several of the big factories where shells and cartridges are being made for the Allies and the United States millers, lathes, drills and planers are being operated by women. They have attained a skill equal to that of the men, and at many machines where lightness of touch and accuracy of eye are particularly demanded they seem to be doing even better.

PRIEST PLAYS POKER, LOSES

Russian's Wife Finds Cards Were Marked For the Game

New York, July 6.—The Rev. Alexander Alehin, pastor of the Russian Orthodox Church of the Three Saints, at Garfield, N. J., celebrated the Fourth of July by having a Justice of the Peace, an auctioneer and a poultry dealer arrested on charges of forgery and defrauding. He alleged that as a result of a series of poker games in the rectory they got $800 which did not belong to them.

Isaac Rubin, of No. 190 Monroe street, Passaic, is the Justice of the Peace; Alexander Levy, of No. 268 Monroe street, the auctioneer; and Frank Schnoll, of No. 243 Monroe street, the poultry dealer. Charged with forging three checks aggregating $329, they were held in $1,000 bail apiece by Justice Johnson, of Hackensack, on Wednesday, and Rubin and Levy were held in $500 each on a charge of defrauding the priest of $113.

Quiet games of poker had been a regular evening diversion at the rectory for several weeks. Mr. Alehin told the Justice, and he lost regularly, the losses totaling $800. One day the visitors left their pack of cards at the rectory and Mr. Alehin's wife (Russian priests are permitted to marry) found them. She discovered little red and blue marks on the backs and showed them to the priest. He started at once for the bank to

Feels as Fresh as a Daisy

No Road Too Long For Him Now

Says Mr. L. S. Stubbs, 604 Forster St., Harrisburg. "I was very nervous, had severe headaches, was badly constipated, could not sleep, arose in the morning just as tired as when I went to bed, any little exertion seemed to exhaust me, could not content myself to do anything, was miserable and unsettled all the time. I tried different medicines without getting any relief; after much debating, tried Sanpan. The result is that my nerves are settled, constipation is gone, I sleep well and arise in the morning feeling fresh as a daisy, and no road is too long for me."

I found Sanpan a wonderful medicine and glad to recommend it, as it may be the means of relief to other sufferers." Sanpan is now being introduced at Keller's Drug Store, 405 Market St., Harrisburg, where the Sanpan man is explaining this Sanpan of medicines to the people.—Adv.

stop payment on a check for $176 he had given the night before, when he had lost $289. At the bank he learned that three checks, aggregating $329, which he had never seen, had been drawn against his account and cashed.

Capt. Turner, of the Passaic Detective Bureau, sent the Rev. Mr. Alehin to Prosecutor Huttin, of Bergen county, and detectives arrested the three poker players. Rubin insisted the games were honest. He added that the priest's wife took part in them and she was "no piker." Rubin said the marked pack was a "frame-up." The priest was not at the rectory yesterday and his wife said she did not know when he would be back. Some parishioners said he should be arrested for poker playing.

WOMAN SICK TWO YEARS

Could Do No Work. Now Strong as a Man.

Chicago, Ill.—"For about two years I suffered from a female trouble so I was unable to walk or do any of my own work. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the newspapers and determined to try it. It brought almost immediate relief. My weakness has entirely disappeared and I never had better health. I weigh 165 pounds and am as strong as a man. I think money is well spent which purchases Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

—Mrs. Jos. O'Bryan, 1755 Newport Ave., Chicago, Ill. The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, and nervous prostration. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills.—Adv.

The New Store of Wm. Strouse Values—plus Quality Since the New Store of Wm. Strouse was opened, fifteen months ago, the people of Harrisburg and vicinity have come to realize more and more that there exists a vast difference between "values," so called, and values plus quality. And now we are telling it to you right from the shoulder—trying to drive home the truth—That when you are trying to get the utmost for your money it is the height of false economy to look merely at the price mark. Go to the store that gives good values ALL THE YEAR 'ROUND—to the store that believes in itself and its merchandise. Remember! That unless low prices are linked with real quality and service the purchaser is the loser — We KNOW no one really sells as low as we do and we have all faith that the public WANTS to buy at the store where the equation Real Values + Quality = Satisfaction reigns supreme That's Why We've Made Such a Success With ADLER-ROCHESTER CLOTHES $20 $25 $30 Wesco Fifteens---$15 Beautiful Emery Shirts $1 to $6 Summer Underwear $1.00 to $2.50 the Suit Handsome Neckwear---Silk Collars---Silk Hosiery Boys' Wash Suits $1 up and Wash Trousers 50c and $1 The New Store of Wm.
