Change in Schedules Affect Dillsburg Travel

Dillsburg, Pa., July 9.—Changes in schedules on the Pennsylvania and Cumberland Valley railroads went into effect yesterday. The weekday trains all remain the same. The first train out from here Sunday morping is now 7.45 instead of 8.25, and returns at 8.40 instead of 9.25. Persons leaving here at 8.45 Sunday morning will be obliged to take the trolley from Mechanicsburg east, and persons wishing to come here from points east of Mechanicsburg will be obliged to use the trolley to Mechanicsburg as there are now no trains connecting with these two.

Sunday School Members Surprise Superintendent

Dillsburg, Pa., July 9.—Friends and members of the Methodist Sunday School gave their superintendent. H. M. Evans, a pleasant surprise on Friday evening. It had been arranged that Mrs. Evans go out with him early in the evening for an automobile ride, and while they were gone about thirty of his friends took charge of the premises, and on their return Mr. Evans was completely surprised, having no knowledge of the affair. It was the occasion of Mr. Evans' thirty-sixth birthday and he was the recipient of thirty-six carnations. The party was entertained on the lawn with the talking machine and a number of open-air games among the pastimes. Later refreshments were served.

BOY SCOUTS TO BUY FLAG

Camp Hill, Pa., July 9.—A neeting of the Camp Hill Boy Scouts will be held in the school building to night. All troopers will turn in their subscriptions for the fund to purchase a flag for the rtoop. There are now twenty-two in the troop and they will all be given their final examinations to-night.

STREET NEEDS REPAIRS

Camp Hill, Pa., July 9.—A meeting of council will be held Thursday evening. Council has authorized the street commissioner to fill all holes in the newly-built Market street with stone and oil. The street has been built but a short time, but the heavy traffic has already worn deep holes in the street.

IMPROVEMENTS COST $300

New Cumberland, Pa., July 9.—Tem porary improvements to Bridge stree this spring now nearing completion have cost the borough about $300, ac
