MONDAY EVENING,

NEW TRAINS FOR NEWS OF STEELTON

HARRISBURG

"The Live Store"

JULY SHIRT SALE

Every Shirt in Our Entire Stock Reduced

We placed a high estimate on the volume of business for the opening day of our SEMI-ANNUAL SHIRT

SALE, Saturday, and you can imagine how satisfied we were when the day's figures were totaled, to find that they sur-

However we had a perfect right to expect great results — because we have the right kind of shirts to sell, at prices lower than YOU ever expected to buy them this season — They were bought months ago and we are offering them to YOU on the "old" market bas-

Every $1.85 and $2.00 Shirt $1.59

Clothing Reductions

On All Fancy Mixed Suits, Blacks and Blue Serges

Most of the suits we are selling to-day could not be duplicated wholesale at the prices we are asking for them — fabrics such as you'll find here are scarce and manuis which makes this "SHIRT SALE" of exceptional imortance.

passed our own high estimate.

Every $1.00 Shirt79c

Every $1.50 Shirt $1.19

Every $2.50 Shirt $1.89

"Always Reliable"

Every $3.50 Shirt $2.89

Every $5.00 Shirt $3.89

Every $5.85 Shirt $4.89

GREAT SALE OF_SHORTS

 DLECTOWNS

 Schertes incident Sincher in this vicinity, i

Organization of the ammunition supply train of the National Guard, which will

Reading, York, Shamokin and Johnstown, subject to Federal recog-

the Next Week

Breading, York, Shamokin and Johnstown, subject to Federal recognition. As there will be a dozen truck companies, récruitment may be started in other places during this week. Several cities are being considered.
Each of these companies will be companies will handle artillery ammunition and six small arms ammunition and six small arms ammunition in the planed to have them mobilize at Mt. Gretna on July 16 and other equipment are being made the arrangements for tentage and other equipment are being made the artners was and the delivered soon after the companies are mustered the second at the time of the crucks will be delivered soon after the companies are mustered the second at the time of the crucks will be delivered soon after the companies are mustered that Gretna to fit if for mobilizing tations when the Guard is drafted into Federal service.
Examinations will hast until Thursday context talions when the Guard is drafted into Federal service.
Bath a artangementies of the statel for the Guard a tations of the Statel fue to receiving cards of admission and photographs.
Bath at a class could not ynthe being made to have the guard at the form obilize at that.
Mork is going ahead rapidly at Mt. Gretna to fit if for mobilizing tations when the Guard is drafted into Federal service.
Bath at a class could not ynthe service are the set as the delivered son at photographs.
Bath at a class could not ynthe service of the set at the set the set will be gin to-morrow in philakelphia and photographs.
Bath at a class could not ynthe set the set at the set at the phila there the p staduate because of some local dis-putes. Inspectors Seek Men.— State fac-tory inspectors in western counties have been busy hunting men to put to work in fields this fall. They are urging men to take a job on the farm during vacation. To Open Bids. — The Board of Public Grounds and Buildings will open bids to-morrow for hauling ashes from the Capitol. To Make Exhibits.—The State De-partment of Health will have an exhibit at county fairs this fall. The exhibit is now being made ready and a schedule has been prepared.

Funeral Services Are Held For Mr. Schleisner

Funeral services for William B. Schleisner, aged 50, a prominent merchant, who died Friday at his home, 1805 North Second street, aft-er an illness of more than a year, were held yesterday morning at 8.30 o'clock. Rabbi Louis Haas, of the Ohev Sholem synagogue, officiated. The body was taken to Baltimore, his former home, for burial. The active pallbearers were: David Kauffman, Otto J. Bauxbaum, Jo-seph Nachman, Simon Hursh, Al-fred Seligman, Morris Jacobson, Samuel Kades and A. J. Simms. The honorary pallbearers were: Edward La Stackpole and John A. Westbrook. Satur The Harrisburg Lodge of Elks, of which he was a member, conducted services at the home Saturday even-ing at 3 o'clock

GUARD GROWING POLICE ARREST

Crimes and Robberies Serbs Hear Hopes of Lead List Unity

Guard, which will be composed of twelve motor truck companies, is under way with Major Howard S, cruited in Harrisburg, Philadelphia, Cruited in Harrisburg, Ph the borough took place in Croatian Hall, Second and Washington streets, and fense. The men are alleged to have one and one-half hours hundreds of Croatians, Slovenians and Serbians enticed a 12-year-old girl into a Main who packed the hall. Dr. Leontic spoke in the Croatian language. The speaker described the present European war as a revolu-

AIMS OF SLAVS

ARE DISCUSSED

language. The speaker described the present European war as a revolu-tion and said in part: "This is no more a battle of one people against another; it is a battle of all nations for democracy, for the right of peo-ple to rule and govern themselves." The speaking of the effect of the speaker added: "It is life or death to us and we, knowing this, cannot and dhe adjoining countries oc-cupied by his race of people of to us and we, knowing this, cannot and are not stand aside with arms folded when at the hand of autoor at the adjoining countries oc-tive of the stand aside with arms folded when at the hand of autoor at the count of autoor at the different without a substance to President Wilson and eulogized the war. At the close of his address a number of questions were asked and answered. The opening of the meeting, in which he outined the work of the Southern Slav Council. Dr. Drago Marusci, formerly an officer in the Austrian army, and a native of Slo-venia, now connected with the Serb-ian legation, at Vashington, was the last speaker. He addressed his coun-trymen in the Slovenian tongue, which is slightly different from the Croatian, and urged his people to do all in their power to help the cause of southern Slavs from Pittsburgh, philadelphia and Reading attended the meeting.

Steelton Snapshots

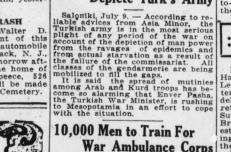

STEELTON PERSONALS

Play Patriotic Music.—Camp 15, Sons of Veterans, of Harrisburg drum corps, played patriotic and martial music on the borough streets, drum martial music on the borough streets, Saturday evening. To Hold Picnic.—The Ladies' Aid Society of Centenary United Breth-ren Church, will hold a picnic at Reservoir Fark, Wednesday, July 11. Sell House. — The real estate agency of Hess & Zoll this morning announced the sale of the double dwelling house, 2128-2180 South Second street, owned by Fred. A. Werner, Harrisburg, to Phillip E. Folk and Jerome A. Folk, of the borough. Possession will be given October 1, 1917.

STEELTON PERSONALS Charles H. Fried, formerly of Vicksburg, Miss, after spending sev-eral months with his parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Zachs, South Front street, left this morning on a business trip to New York city and through the New England States, preparatory to going into business at Memphys. Ten.. Miss Sue Hess, South Second and aut, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Zoll, Oberlin. The Misses Lillian and Ada Mars, after spending one week with Mrs. A. Mars, South Front street, have re-turned to their home in Pine Grove, Lebano county. Thristian Hess, South Second street, made a business trip to Lan-caster to-day. Mrs. David P. Baker and chill-dren, Hannah and Ephraim Baker, atmeded the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Kades, observed at their home in Shamokin, yester-day.

DIES IN AUTO CRASH

Nachman, Simon Hursh, Al-Seligman, Morris Jacobson, el Kades and A. J. Simms. The Speece, a former resident of this rary pallbearers were: Edward y, Richard M. T. Wharton, E. ekpole and John A. Westbrook, e Harrisburg Lodge of Elks, of ernoon at 2 o'clock at the home of h he was a member, conducted ces at the home Saturday even. t 9 o'clock.

Hunger and Disease

War Ambulance Corps

Allentown, Pa., July 9. — Sunday at the United States ambulance camp was spent larsely in discussing an order from the War Department, which will make the Allentown contonment as The camp is to be enlarged or out out of the United bospitals and casuals, and it is esti-will reach 10,000. Fourteen Members of . Fourteen Members of .

Town. He was suc-cessively 2 printer on the HARRIS-B URG TELE-B URG TELE-S TELE-S TELE-S TELE-S TELE-S TELE-S TELE-S TELE-S TELE-B URG TELE-S TELE-S

Ninetieth Birthday

Mrs. T. B. Boyd is visiting at El-

: MIDDLETOWN

Dr. Mish Celebrates

vood City for some time. Miss Minnie Thomas, of Philadelphia, is spending some time in town.

Mrs. William Wallace, of Phila lelphia, is visiting in town. Miss Beatrice Good, of Spring ield, Ohio, is visiting in town. The Borough Council and School Board will meet in regular session his evening field, Ohio, is visiting in. town.

The Borough Council and School Board will meet in regular session this evening.
Mrs. Anna Shyder, daughter, Mrs. George Kukle, and son, Marlin, are visiting relatives at Pittsburgh for some time.
Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fager, who recided at Harrisburg, have moved to town. The real estate of the late H. H. Shellenberger will be sold at public sale Saturday, July 28, at 2 o'clock, cornor Emaus and Pine streets. M.
M. Schaeffer will be the auctioneer. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Darr are visiting at Lehighton for several days.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Darr are visiting at Lehighton for several days.
Mr. and Mrs. Cott Boynton, of Wilmington. Del., visited in town Saturday and Sunday.
Frank Zimmerman, of Reading, spent the past three days in town. George Coyle is visiting at Ann-ville for several days.
Mr. Firemen's Relief Association held its regular monthly meeting in the Liberty Fire Company house on Sunday afternoon.
Several members of Degree Lodge of Naomi were at Steelton on Saturday evening, where they assisted a sister lodge to initiate several new members.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor and son, George Taylor, and wife, and frank Vaugh and Augustus Lavine, who spent the past week in town.
Harry Coyle is visiting at Philadelphia for two weeks.
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schaeffer, of Harrisburg, spent Saturday and Sunday and Sunday and Sunday at an and an a site to Mouth Wolf.

Deplete Turk's Army

Raymond Heberlig and Edgar Hastings, theological students of Lebanon Valley College, who spent ten days at Northfield, Mass., as delegates to the Bible conference, returned last Wednesday, and on Sunday morning in the United Brethren Church gave a very inter-esting report of the session, speak-ing of things that most impressed them. Miss Opal Wonderly, of New Kingston, is in town visiting her brother, D. U. Wonderly and fam-ily.

FESTIVAL FOR RED CROSS

Harrisourg, spent Saturday and Sun-lay in town. Kirk Schwan has returned from a visit to Mount Wolf. Mrs. Joseph Brandt and two chil-lren have returned from a visit to Lebanon. Lebanon. Lydia Clepelmyer, deaconess of St. Peter's Lutheran Church, left his morning for Baltimore, Md., where she will spend a month's va-

The Missionary Society of St.
 Peter's Lutheran Church will meet to-morrow evening in the chapel of the church.

: HIGHSPIRE ::

