board and nnd out the order in which you stand for call. 5—CALL FOR EXAMINATION— As soon as quotas are assigned to each State and each board, each board will call upon persons whose cards are in its jurisdiction, in-structing them to present themselves for examination. This call will be posted at the office of the local board and the papers will be re-quested to print it. A notice will also be mailed to you, but the post-ing of the list at the office of the board will be deemed sufficient no-tice to charge you with the duty of presenting yourself. The law, therefore, makes it your duty to in-form yourself when you are called. The mailing is for your conveni-ence, but it the letter never reaches you you cannot make that excuse. Watch the lists at the office of your board when you are called for examination.
