

RUSSIANS TAKE HEADQUARTERS OF TEUTON ARMY

Bloody Battle Ends With Capture of Galician City

TAKE MANY PRISONERS Reorganized Army of New Republic Pushes on After Enemy

Petrograd, July 12.—The Russians have captured Kalusz, the headquarters of the enemy in Galicia. According to information received at the Ministry of War the Russian troops are continuing their successful advance and have taken a large number of prisoners.

Kalusz is a city of about 8,000 population twenty-eight miles southeast of Strv. Yesterday the Russians had reached the Hozes-Lesivka-Karmacz line south and west of Stanislaw. The central point of this line is Lesivka, four miles west of the river Rysztica. It is about seven miles east of Kalusz, the nearest large town west of Stanislaw and which is situated in a bend of the Stoka river.

Brussiloff Permits No Letup in Offensive; Crown Prince Attacks

General Brussiloff's offensive in Galicia is developing into a drive with little or no letup, at least so far as the part in it played by General Korniloff's armies is concerned. Yesterday's news of the capture of Halez was followed to-day by the announcement that the Russian troops had pushed on beyond

Serial Numbers of Conscripts Will Be Printed By Telegraph

Beginning to-morrow evening, the names of men liable to conscription with their serial numbers will be published in the HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH. The boards have just completed the work of re-numbering the conscripts and the numbers which will be printed with the names are the ones that will be drawn at Washington by the War Department for the new National Army. As the drawings are by number it is highly important that the men know what their numbers are. The first and part of the second city districts, comprising the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth, Ninth and Tenth wards will be printed to-morrow evening. The remaining wards will be printed Saturday night.

THE WEATHER

For Harrisburg and vicinity: Showers to-night; Friday partly cloudy; no much change in temperature. For Eastern Pennsylvania: Showers to-night; Friday partly cloudy; gentle to moderate southwest to northwest winds.

Light to moderately heavy showers have fallen generally in the last twenty-four hours, except in the South Atlantic States. Fair weather has prevailed over the western half of the country, except on the West Gulf coast and in Oklahoma.

Temperature: 8 a. m., 62 deg.; Sun Rise, 4:40 a. m.; Moon Full moon, August 2. River Stage: 5.4 feet. Yesterday's Weather: Highest temperature, 66; lowest temperature, 60. Mean temperature, 65. Normal temperature, 74.

CALL FOR WILSON TO SMOOTH KINKS IN FOOD MEASURE

Senate Leaders Find It Impossible to Reconcile Conflicting Views

APPEAL TO PRESIDENT Hastened Action Is Desire of Supporters of Long-Debated Bill

Washington, July 12.—Democratic leaders of the Senate, finding it well-nigh impossible to reconcile conflicting views on the food control bill, decided to-day to appeal to President Wilson to outline his opinion of what compromises should be agreed upon to hasten action on the measure.

The Senate agriculture committee decided to-day not to make any endorsement or recommendation regarding the Gore substitute bill. Senator Gore, however, plans to offer it as an individual proposition, with the understanding that many of its provisions will have general support in lieu of those in the pending bill.

HARRISBURG BOY THINKS PARIS IS WONDERFUL CITY

Member of Ambulance Section Says Buffalo Nickel Buys Most Anything

MAY BE AT FRONT When Letter Was Mailed Expected Early Call to Duty Along Firing Line

Paris as it appears in war times is described by E. Franklin Etter, of this city, who is serving in the American ambulance section in France. Mr. Etter is a son of George E. Etter, 299 Pine street. While he was not serving along the battle line his last letter was written, June 9. It is now believed that he has taken up his work at the front.

The HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH is particularly anxious to receive letters from the front at this time, and would appreciate excerpts from communications to the home folks from men fighting in France. Mr. Etter's letter follows: "Dear Family—Well, here I am in Paris, and have been having a wonderful time in the bargain. I think Paris is the most wonderful place I have ever seen. Such beautiful old historic buildings, fine parks, monuments, etc., and everything about the city is so new and interesting that you can't help but wonder how such a city was ever built."

DRAFT PLAN WILL BE SECRET UNTIL EVE OF DRAWING

Nothing to Be Announced in Advance to Insure Absolute Fairness

SOME STATES ARE SLOW

Numbers Will Not Be Picked Until Latter Part of Next Week

Washington, July 12.—Persistent inquiries from all parts of the country for information about the method to be followed in selecting men for the national war army caused War Department officials to explain to-day that President Wilson's determination to have absolute fairness govern the process was responsible for the decision to withhold announcement of the exact plan until the very eve of the drawing.

STORE CLERKS FIND RAIN CEASES WHEN THEY GET AFTERNOON OFF

Employees of the retail stores of the city when they took their morning break to the steady sound of the down-pour of rain on the roofs, were unanimous in their condemnation of J. Pluvius for spoiling their first half-holiday in the summer season. At noon to-day everything was dry and those who had planned little picnics and outings departed a trifle anxious lest the intermittent showers that have been falling four days in succession start again. The stores will close every Thursday afternoon until the first of September.
