

NEW COMMANDER ASSIGNED TO GETTYSBURG TRAINING CAMP

Gettysburg, Pa., July 17. — The War Department has announced the appointment of a new commander for the training camp at Gettysburg and assigned Brigadier-General C. W. Kennedy to the post.

Since the Fourth has been filled up the new men are being placed in the Seventh and it is expected that the same program will be carried out in this regiment.

Friday in parade day at the big camp and every Friday evening the parade grounds are crowded with civilians to view the men in their maneuvers.
