AUTOMATIC TRIP WILL STOP TRAINS

Harry L. Fritz Invents Safety Measure to Prevent Passing Danger Signal

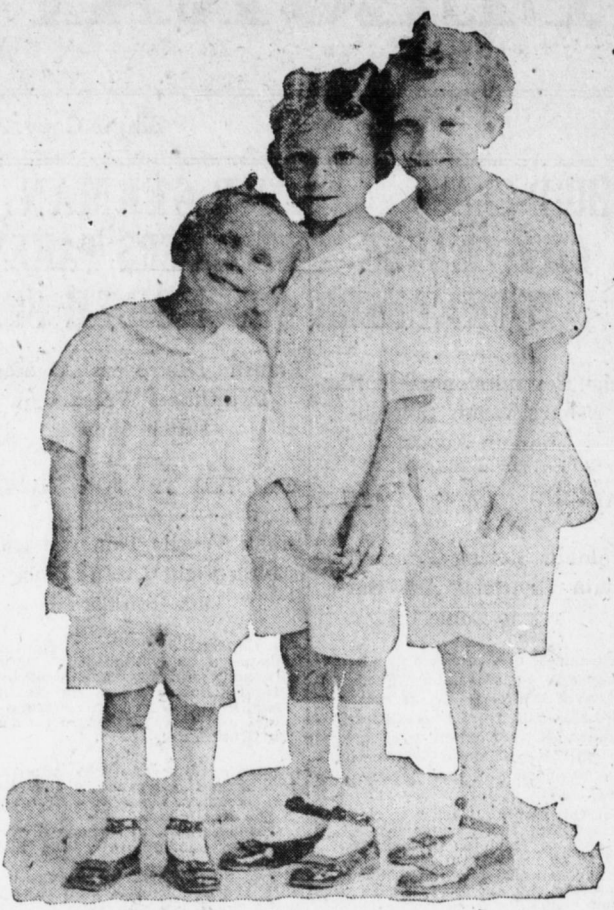

Duncannon, Pa., July 17. — Harry L. Fritz has been granted a patent for an automatic device that will stop trains when they pass under a red signal. A sliding device will automatically apply the air when an engine strikes the new safety measure. Mechanical experts claim the new invention to be one of the most practical that has been patented. The mechanism consists of a miniature signal post, with an arm that will project at the side of the track when the signal is set at red. The small device can be wired in circuit with an electrical signal or be attached to work with the older type of mechanical signals. When the arm of the main signal is raised to red the smaller, raised arm also raises, reaching out over the end of the ties almost to the rail. A special attachment is fitted to the side of the cylinder of the locomotive. When the locomotive hits the outstretched signal a sliding rod that works by the slightest touch, pushes the release of the signal or be attached to work with the older type of mechanical signals. Although the new mechanism will require a very careful adjustment of the track at the point where the safety device is located, it is believed the sliding principle of the air release will obviate the trouble that inventors for the same sort of appliance have experienced. Many such appliances have been invented, especially some that were connected with the track, raised directly in front of the oncoming engine and striking a projection. In every case they have formerly failed to prove practicable because the momentum of a train is so great that although they worked once no matter how carefully and stoutly they were applied the law of inertia rendered them useless for a second trial. The new appliance has been tested thoroughly and as yet has failed to prove untable.

FEATURES AT CHAUTAUQUA Mechanicsburg, Pa., July 17.—Dr. Carolyn E. Geisel, in her wonderful lecture, "Just one Von Schönbüch, the violinist, and Paul Fleming, magician, charmed Chautauqua audiences yesterday. Series lecture by the superintendent, the Rev. Dr. A. B. VanOrmer, concert by the Garland-Eckoff-Jordan Company, and a lecture by Frank Dixon on "Uncle Sam," M. D., are to-day's attractions. To-morrow the "Old Homestead Quartet" will sing in the afternoon, and the drama, "The Old Homestead," will be given by the company with full cast of characters.

BILIOUSNESS AND CONSTIPATION BANISHED FOREVER

Prompt Relief — Quick, Permanent Cure. The habit of taking strong purgatives such as Salts, Calomel, etc., should at once be ended, says authority, since they only afford temporary relief by forcing the bowels to move. Such drastic purges eventually prove injurious and are only justified in extreme cases owing to the tendency they create towards chronic constipation. Your bowels should move at least once every day without the use of such artificial stimulants. If sufferers would only take a few doses of a purely herb remedy that has now been placed on the market under the name of Lebanon Herb Tablets, they would soon cease to worry. These tablets act gently and firmly on both liver and kidneys and so strengthen the stomach and bowels that they can do their work without the aid of medicine. TALENTED BOYS WILL SING AT STOVERDALE

Stoverdale, Pa., July 17. — Prominent clergymen and revivalists assisted in song by Gospel soloists will attend Stoverdale campmeeting, which promises to surpass in attendance all previous meetings held here. Campmeeting begins Tuesday evening, July 21. Features which have been of special interest in other seasons and continued this year are the morning prayermeeting, Bible study and sunset services. These with sermons, addresses and music make a program replete with interest. Masters Harry Robert Brown, aged eight years; Charles Richard Brown, six years; and Glenn Earl Brown, four years, will sing selections daily from memory during campmeeting. They are sons of a musical family on both sides of the house for a generation back and are in demand at church services. Harry, the eldest of the trio, possesses a strong clear voice coupled with a fine expression and application. Mrs. H. C. Brown, the mother, accompanies the boys on the piano and organ. She is the organist of the Grace United Evangelical Church at Lancaster and also assistant pianist of the Lancaster Evangelical Chorus. Open-air services under the auspices of the Lancaster Ministerial and Y. M. C. A. were inaugurated for the summer last Sunday afternoon. Harry Brown was advertised in the newspapers as the special soloist for the occasion. The Brown, trio will sing in a Marietta church Sunday August 12, also in a Myerstown, Lebanon county church, at a revival service next fall.

Found Wallet Containing $3,000 on Public Road

Greencastle, Pa., July 17.—Luther Leiter, of the firm of Leiter Brothers, hardware merchants, was driving down the Mercersburg and Greencastle Pike on Saturday afternoon when he noticed something black lying in the middle of the road. He got out of his car to investigate and found a large leather wallet. Upon examination he found that the wallet contained about $3,000 in notes and checks and $12 in cash. Upon an envelope in the pocketbook was the address of J. B. Beam, Tyrone, Pa. This name appeared on the checks and notes. Mr. Leiter wrote to Mr. Beam that day and told him his wallet was in safekeeping and waiting to be claimed. On Monday Mr. Leiter received a letter from Mr. Beam, stating that he was at Washington, D. C., and badly in need of his pocketbook. He asked Mr. Leiter to send the wallet to Washington, D. C., by registered mail, and also told him to take a gift of money from the purse. This, however, Mr. Leiter did not do, but sent the wallet to Washington, D. C., by the next mail.

Woman Badly Injured When Frightened Horse Runs Away

Dillsburg, Pa., July 17. — Mrs. Adam Meneer was injured in a runaway accident on Saturday afternoon while driving from her home at Franklintown to Dillsburg. The horse became frightened about a mile south of town and ran away. In trying to control the horse, leaning to the side of the wagon, she was struck by a telephone pole and fell beneath the wagon. The horse then ran through a fence and tore loose from the wagon and went on through the fields to the farm buildings of D. E. Baker. Mrs. Meneer was taken to a nearby house and Dr. Crawford of Dillsburg summoned.

Time of Union Services Causes Dissatisfaction

Marysville, Pa., July 17.—Marysville's union prayermeeting, in which members of the five Marysville churches have been participating, and which dates back several months when it was inaugurated by the Marysville Ministerial Association, may not continue in its present form. The meeting night is the cause of the threatened breach. Hitherto, it has been customary to hold the union prayermeeting on the last Thursday night of each month in the five Marysville churches in turn. The regular weekly prayermeetings of the Zion Lutheran Church and the Bethel Church of God, fall on these evenings. The Bethel Church of God objects to being forced to either omit the one service each month or to changing the time of their service on that time.

West Fairview Boy Wounded Fighting in British Army

West Fairview, Pa., July 17.—John Wachtman, who is with the British army in France, is just recovering from a flesh wound received when a shell burst in the midst of his company some weeks ago. Wachtman explained his condition in a letter to a boy friend here. He said he was just leaving the hospital. Wachtman left home in May 1916, and until about six months ago nothing was heard of him. He was an honor man at Harrisburg Tech High in 1916, but left home before graduating.

TREASURER TO RESIGN

New Cumberland, Pa., July 17.—At the next meeting of council Charles Houck, borough treasurer for nearly fifteen years, will tender his resignation on account of ill health. No successor has been elected, but it is likely council will elect a treasurer at the next session.

PL COMMUNITY DAY

Enola, Pa., July 17.—A meeting will be held this evening in the Zion Lutheran Church for the purpose of discussing plans for holding some kind of a community day probably during the latter part of this month. As the war has caused the postponement of the annual Sunday school picnic the people are desirous of having some kind of an outing. The exercises will be held either on the Y. M. C. A. playground or Summerdale Park.

PICNIC AT BOILING SPRINGS

Enola, Pa., July 17.—The annual Sunday school picnic of the United Evangelical Church was held to-day at Boiling Springs Park. Special trolley cars took the picnickers to the grounds, where a program of athletic events was held.

Case Against Young Men For Joyriding Settled

Mechanicsburg, Pa., July 17. — Prompt settlement was made in the case of the young men who took a joyride last Wednesday night in a car which was taken from the Schaul garage, of whom Charles Wood was accused as the principal. A second hearing brought to light the fact that another young man, from Lemoyne, was implicated, which changed the case, and all were discharged after paying a fine. A previous rumor that the young men were put to jail was false, as such was not the case and bail was secured before the second hearing.

Rains Delay Harvesting on Upper York County Farms

Dillsburg, Pa., July 17. — Recent rains have handicapped the farmers in this section and quite a lot of the wheat remains uncut. There is still a lot of hay to be made. There was rain each day during the past week except Friday. Oats has grown very tall and began to lodge in sections and the corn is growing rapidly. New potatoes are being marketed here for $1.50 per bushel.

TREAT FOR "KIDDIES"

Mechanicsburg, Pa., July 17. — "Kiddies" of nearly all the Sunday schools in town were given a treat yesterday morning, when Charles Boyer, of Harrisburg, arrived with his joy-riding car and after taking them a ride, proceeded to the Irving College campus, where they had games and a good time.

Text: "Simple Ant-Acid Taken With Meals Prevents Gas, Bloating, Belching, Heartburn, Sour Stomach and Acid Indigestion. Eat Freely Without Fear. No More Diet. People who have 'stomach trouble' and who suffer after nearly every meal from sour, acid, gassy stomach, bloating, heartburn and indigestion should just try taking a couple of 5-grain bisurated magnesia tablets after their meals for a while and note results. Medical men made a most important discovery in the treatment of stomach troubles when they found that practically every case of indigestion and dyspepsia is caused by the presence in the stomach of too much acid. By using ordinary bisurated magnesia to neutralize this acid and sweeten the stomach the food digested naturally without causing trouble and digestive aids, like pepsin, etc., were no longer necessary. Bisurated Magnesia is a special form of refined magnesia which you should be most careful to ingest. It does not digest food like pepsin but instead neutralizes or transforms the poisonous biting acid that has formed in your stomach and is causing you misery. Your digestive machinery, relieved of the hampering acid accumulation does its work without trouble. So remarkable is the action of bisurated magnesia in stopping stomach troubles when they are worst pain, burning or sour sensation will vanish within five minutes from the time it reaches the stomach. Any dyspeptic or stomach sufferer can prove this easily with a single trial and with perfect safety as bisurated magnesia is harmless and in this form is not a laxative. Get a little Bisurated Magnesia from G. A. Gorgas or your druggist and try it at your very next meal and forget all fear of indigestion."
