King George Abandons

By Associated Press

London, July 17.—King George today, at a meeting of the Privy Council, announced the name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

The Privy Council at which the King announced the change was held at St. James Palace. It was the most important and largest attended since the coronation. The attendance included Premier Lloyd George, Foreign Secretary Balfour and other members of the cabinet, the Archbishop of Canterbury, former Premier Asquith and all members of the Colonial Government who are now in London. The Privy Council unanimously endorsed King George's announcement and the proclamation putting it into effect was published this afternoon. Front-Market Motor Supply Co., Front & Market Sts., Harrisburg, Pa.

King George is of the house of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha. It was re-cently decided to drop titles or names of German origin.
