Gets Call For Carpenters to Work in Philadelphia

H. M. Brooks, business agent of the Building Trades Council, with headquarters in this city, has received a call for 100 carpenters to work on the new apartment house which will be erected in Philadelphia on the site of the old Chestnut street opera house.

Rates of pay will be 65 and 70 cents an hour, for an eight-hour day. Mr. Brooks announced. He will open offices August 1 in the rear on the second floor of the Patriot building, to receive applications for the work. Hours will be 8 o'clock in the morn-ing. 1 to 2, and 6 to 11.30 o'clock. A call has also been received for fifty laborers to work on the new Penn-Harris Hotel. Applications will be received each afternoon from 1 to 2 o'clock at the Citizen Fire Com-pany house.
