TROOP 7 GOING TO LIVERPOOL

Will Camp Along Shores of Susquehanna; Special Orders

The camp site of Troop 7 was selected on last Saturday. Through the kindness of J. J. Nungessor, of

Camp Order

The members of Troop 7, Boy Scouts of America, Harrisburg, Pa., will assemble at headquarters, Susquehanna and Harris streets, Monday, July 30, 6 a. m. All scouts will immediately report to their patrol leaders for service in loading equipment for camp. Every scout must carry the following personal equipment:

carry the following personal equipment:

Knife, fork, small spoon, curplate. A dish suitable for soups and breakfast foods. All dishes to be metal. Sleeping garment, handkerchiefs, two extra pairs of stockings, one blanket, towels and soap, tooth brush, comb and brush, bathing suit. All scout equipment that you have.

No Firearms
Other camp equipment that you may have and will add to the pleasure of the camp may be carried along. Avoid, however, all unnecessary clothing and baggage.

Have all your equipment properly marked so that you can readily distinguish it from that of other scouts. No sheath knives nor firearms will be allowed in camp.

No sheath knives nor firearms will be allowed in camp.
Visitors will be welcome at the camp on visitors' day, Thursday, August 2. The scout motto is 'Be Prepared.' Don't come to camp to discover that you have left something at home. To the parents: We are going to camp fully prepared to give your boy a vacation that we hope will be helpful, physically, mentally and morally. We expect the obedience of your boy and promise a good time to all who will observe the camp rules. Please communicate with the scoutmaster if you have any questions.

PARTY FOR MISS MILLAR
Enola, Pa., July 20.—Miss Ruth Shepley, of Altoona avenue, gave a party to several of her friends in honor of Miss Julia Millar, who has returned home from Colorado. Those present were: Frank Renninger, John Mulfair, Richard Harman, Francis Wenrick and Ira Hoover, of Harrisburg; Vance Crawford, Dyson
Cassel, Walter Kultzman, Paul Bru
baker, Maud Bashore, Mary Martin, Renea Kline, Ada Parks, Ethele Strickner, Margarat Yetter, Julia Miller, Ruth Shepley and Goldine Baker, of Enola. The evening was spent with games and dancing. Refreshments were served.

Western Horsewoman Passes Through City

Mae Gibbons, dressed in the riding attire of a western cowgirl, and wearing the amulet of the Red Cross, passed through the city yesterday on her way to the front. During her stay in Harrisburg, she visited her sister, Mrs. George Hatfield, 654 Verbeke street.

Miss Gibbons comes from Miles City, Montana. She was born in the East and went west when a young girl. At Fort Keou, near Miles City, she was connected with a training station for cavalry horses for the United States rAmy. She assured a TELEGRAPH reporter that she wished she had an opportunity to demonstrate her ability as a horsewoman. When a livery horse was mentioned, she declared it would be child's play to ride a horse trained to the bit after she had spent her life training bucking bronchos.

Scouts Report on Hike Persons acquainted with scout work know that one of the requirements for first class scout rank is a fourteen-mile hike alone or with thay and Friday mornings from 10 to 12. At these hours the association will maintain an efficient supervision and the boys will be under expert guidance and leadership to prevent any mishaps from strain of overexertion. To get the necessary membership tickets Boy Scouts will be required to present their soout certificates at local headquarters, 200 Calder Building.

FILE PETITIONS

Petitions have been filed at the County Commissioners' office for the following candidates for borough offices in Lykens: J. W. Witmer, burgess; A. F. Hanna, J. S. Reiff and Louis Wentzler, councilmen. These candidates will run for both Republican and Democratic nominations. Other petitions are in circulation in other boroughs in the county and will be filed within the next few weeks.

We found a good spot about a mile from the spring. We took off our sacks and started to dig bait to fish. After we had several worms we took off our puttees, shoes and stockings, rolled up our trousers and waded out far enough to be clear of the water cress and threw out our lines. "After fishing for an hour and getting only a few nibbles, we decided to quit. We built a fire place and began to prepare dinner. Standing Elk prepared twisted bread over the fire and cooked shoulder and eggs on a flat stone passing his first class requirement of cooking without regular cooking utensils.

"After dinner we rested until 1 o'clock and then started for home. On our way we helped ourselves at four cherry trees and several springs. Standing Elk found a turtle. We stopped three times to rest as the sun was high in the heavens and it was in the heat of the day. Crossing the Susquehanna river bridge we met Scouts Boward, Leeds and Snavely, who were going to take a shower bath after a swim. They asked us to go along but we kept on our way home.

"I arrived home at 2.45, very tired but after a warm bath I was ready for another fourteen miles.

A new American submarine chaser, more of which are being built under the supervision of J. J. Phelps, well known yachtsman of New York City, who has received a commission of ensign in the United States Navarries a torpedo tube on her deck. She will fight the submarine with its own weapon. The torpedo may launched as quickly as a gun may be fired.

GOVERNOR VETOES MANY HOUSE BILLS

Measures of Minor Importance Knocked Out by Executive Disapproval

Governor Brumbaugh to-day ve-toed more than a dozen House bills, including the measure to empower commissioners of first class town-ships to regulate the keeping of hogs in their limits, the Governor saying that the Department of Health has all the power necessary to protect drawn without reference to thirdclass city laws.

Amend School Code

Amending school code to permit division of work on schools into small units, which the Governor declares "is not a wise change."

Amending school code by providing for election of directors in indepnedent school districts instead of court appointments. The Governor says an independent district is an anomaly and there is no machinery for such an election.

Authorizing certain people to sue the State. The Governor says it authorizes eight people to sue for two separate accidents and calls the bill
"a sort of House that Jack built" and "a cumulative offense against the constitution."

Amending school code relative to retirement funds, which the Goverrnor says is covered by a bill recentity approved.

Allowing abandoned State highways to be vacated as county roads on which the Governor says there has been too much shifting of responsibility on roads already. He says that the bill was caused by a Somerset situation and adds, "Since a sys that the bill was caused by a somerset situation and adds, "Since
