

DRAFT COMPLETE WITH EACH REGISTRANT GIVEN A PLACE

FIRST CALL FOR SOLDIERS IN TEN DAYS

Mobilization of the War Quota to Be Subject to Proclamation by the President of the United States; Twice 687,000 Men Probably Will Be Summoned For Examination Within a Fortnight

Washington, July 21.— With ten million men listed in the order of their liability to serve the federal government began today its last task of preparation for organization of a selective draft army—the task of determining who among those shall be exempt.

The drawing to determine who shall first be liable for service ended early to-day after it had been in progress without interruption for more than sixteen hours, and while the officials in charge rested for forwarding to local exemption boards, over the country. Most of this work it is hoped to complete before the day is over, so that the local authorities can be given their instructions early next week.

Within ten days the men who are subject to the President's order for mobilization of a war quota of 687,000 may be appearing before their boards for examination and for decision as to exemption. Twice 687,000 are to be summoned by the boards, and the theory that two registrants must be examined for every soldier accepted and the number each registration district must furnish has been carefully worked out.

The provost marshal general's office was greatly pleased to-day over the outcome of the drawing, officials declaring it an accomplishment scarcely less noteworthy than the successful registration of the blank weeks ago. Ten million men, they pointed out, had been assigned places on the muster roll within the space of less than a day and apparently with only one minor error in the whole complicated process.

The angle error came to light near the end of the drawing this morning when a blank was found where there should have been a number in one of the 10,500 capsules by which the war-time names of American youth were determined. It did not materially interfere with the working out of the lottery, however, and all officials agreed that it could be blamed on only a temporary complication, they said, and in no way impairs the equality of the lottery.

To Correct Error What serial number should have been in the place of the blank had not been determined to-day, but it will be found shortly by a careful rechecking of the list. Then it will be assigned to the only place open on the liability list—number 10,500 at the very foot. Because of its absence there only are 10,499 places now, with holders of the serial number 3,217 in last place. The vacant place was shifted to the end of the list because of the blank which was drawn in 10,044th place. It immediately was replaced by the drawing of a number, and that made the numbers lack one of filling the 10,500 places.

Only an Oversight It was said at the provost marshal general's office that the error undoubtedly resulted from an oversight and that no one could be blamed. A shift in plans only a few hours before the drawing began threw off the general's assistants the task of providing quickly in times as many numbers and ten times as many capsules as had been counted upon.

TO NOTIFY ALL MEN CALLED FOR MILITARY DUTY

County District Boards Will Make Call When They Receive Quotas

All men who will be required to come before the county district draft boards in answer to the first call will be notified when and where to appear within the next few days. No one in the city will be notified as Harrisburg has met its quota in enlistments.

Members of the three county draft exemption boards, as soon as they are officially notified of the quota to be raised in their respective districts, will call the men on the number of men at once call twice that number of men, and will continue to call until the quota is filled. Those affected will be notified through the press, by a list posted at the office of the board in the district they reside, and by individual notices.

The first examinations will probably be made five days after the first notice is called and will be continued each day until the quota is furnished. In case the number first notified is not sufficient to meet the number of men required, additional ones will be called until the quota is filled. Claims for exemption, according to the board members, can be made promptly by the lists of those chosen at the time the notice is posted for each drafted man to appear for examination.

No small part of the country-wide success of the lottery plan was played by the Associated Press operation which worked for long hours with nothing before them but the eternal groups of figures and with the thought in their minds that a mistake of a single figure would be a matter of utmost concern to thousands of men and tens of thousands among their friends and relatives.

Strain on Workers No small part of the country-wide success of the lottery plan was played by the Associated Press operation which worked for long hours with nothing before them but the eternal groups of figures and with the thought in their minds that a mistake of a single figure would be a matter of utmost concern to thousands of men and tens of thousands among their friends and relatives.

Rests With States In reporting the numbers to the boards the Federal government also will provide special lists with the high numbers which do not apply in the given district already canceled. The process will not be reduced to the task of providing a canceled sheet that shall be used and one will be supplied each local board with the line drawn at the thousand mark next above the highest number in that district.
