ORIENT ROMANCE ENDS IN BRIDAL

Ambassador Fletcher Marries Today Girl He Met Years Ago in China

New York, July 25.—Henry Prather Fletcher, American ambassador to Mexico, and Miss Beatrice Bend, prominent in society, will be married to-day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Straight at Westbury, Long Island.

The couple have not taken society into their confidence and their marriage will therefore come as a surprise to many.

The marriage is part of a romance that had its beginning in the Orient eight years ago. Mr. Fletcher first met Miss Bend while she was traveling with Miss Dorothy Whitney, now Mrs. Willard Straight.

At the time was first secretary of the American legation in China, Mr. Straight was a member of a little group of Americans in China. It was the first time he had met the future Mrs. Straight.

The young Americans welcomed the visit of the Yankee girls and they were very much in the company of Miss Whitney and Miss Bend. This was in 1909.

One year later, Mrs. Whitney was wed to Mr. Straight in Geneva, Switzerland, Miss Bend was bridesmaid.

Every effort according to friends, has been made to keep this secret romance of the Orient quiet. Just why so much secrecy was not learned.

Mrs. George Dend, mother of the bride, left her home, 568 Park avenue, yesterday with her daughter for the Straight home at Westbury, where they remained over night.

Mrs. Bend was also a member of the Whitehall party on the tour around the world.

Mr. Fletcher is 43 years of age. He was born at Greencastle, Pa. He began his diplomatic career as secretary at the American legation in Cuba in 1902.

The following year he was transferred to China, where he remained in 1902-1903. The next two years he was connected with the American legation at Lisbon, and again was transferred to China, where he became acting minister. As a result of his good work in China he was appointed minister to Chile, and to him is attributed the development of the existing friendly feeling between the United States and Chile.

Mr. Fletcher was a stenographer at 18 years old. Rough rider at 25, and at 35, and reached the coveted honor of ambassadorship when only 41 years old.

His brothers, J. Rowe Fletcher, of Harrisburg, and J. Gilmore Fletcher, of this city, who has been summering at his country place near Pittsburgh, arrived here this morning for the wedding.

Miss Charlotte Eberly, of 1223 Kittatiny street, and her guest, Miss Lillian Quigley, of Jersey Shore, are taking a pleasure trip to Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

a case of "nerves." He is put through tests that satisfy the examiners he will be able to meet and handle intelligently any situation that may arise.

To be rated as a par excellent man, however, has proved one of the biggest inducements to recruiting for the branch of the service that has formerly been one of the most difficult to enter.

The existing opportunities for tradesmen will give almost any man an opportunity to enter that branch of the service in some capacity.

Captain Harrell has made it one of his policies since taking charge of the local office never to miss an opportunity to advance a man who is deserving.

This morning announcement made was of five corporals being raised to the rank of sergeant. Seven privates were made corporals to fill existing vacancies.

Corporal Harry B. Schiffman, 1210 North Sixth street, was one of the men raised to the rank of sergeant.

Many Colored Men Apply Army officers say that the only possible way of making Bryan's dream of a million recruits over night come true is to be given permission to enlist colored men.

Since the letters were sent to every man who stood high on the draft list the office has been filled with negroes who were anxious to enlist. Because no vacancies exist in colored regiments and authority has not been given from the War Department, they are forced to turn them away.

Captain Harrell declared that even porters and waiters assault him at every turn while on a trip, all anxious to enlist for the service.

Yesterdays enlistments were: Harvey E. Dengler, 638 Muench street, infantry; Frank W. Schell, New Cumberland, medical department; Ross Furns, Millersburg, bakery company; Harry P. Myers, 46 East Main street, mechanical department; medical department; Roy H. Poff, Duncannon, medical department.

Want Signal Service Recruited Major Henry G. Opydyke will come to Harrisburg this evening to interest men in the signal branch of the regular army service.

The local force under Lieutenant Anthon has been working overtime every day since the office opened in an effort to handle the recruits for the battalion that is fast becoming filled.

Lloyd R. Ney was the first Harrisburg man to be inculcated at the Mount Gretna camp yesterday afternoon. Believing in the power of music to allay the pain of the puncture of the needle, officers have decreed that while the surgeons are at work a victrola will play patriotic airs.

For applicants have applied for admission to Company C, now being recruited at the armory. Company C, under Captain Stine, was considerably depleted after examination by federal officers and an effort will be made to fill the vacancies with as many Harrisburg boys as possible.

The annual Lutheran reunion will be held to-morrow at Pen Mar, large delegation of Lutherans from this city will probably attend the fair.

A special train will leave of the Cumberland Valley railroad 7:15 o'clock and return in the evening. Music during the day will be furnished by the Loyeville Orphan Home Band, under the direction of Claude Stauffer.
