

BENNY LEONARD KNOCKS OUT

LEONARD WINS WITH KNOCKOUT; THREE ROUNDS

BENNY LEONARD

Benny Leonard (Benjamin Leiner) was born in New York city on April 7, 1896, and is, therefore, just past 21 years of age. He is 5 feet 5 inches in his height and is the first Hebrew to hold a world's lightweight championship. He has been in the fight since 1912. He won his title from Freddie Welsh.

JOHNNY KILBANE

Johnny Kilbane (John Patrick Kilbane) was born in Cleveland, Ohio, on April 18, 1889, and is, therefore, 28 years of age, just seven years the senior of Benny Leonard. Kilbane has been in the fighting game since 1907 and won the world's championship from Abe Attor in 1912. He is of Irish-American parentage. He is 5 feet 5 inches tall and his normal weight is 122 pounds.

Philadelphia, July 26.—Benny Leonard, lightweight champion of the world, is still the title holder. Last night at Shibe Park he won a notable victory over Johnny Kilbane, feather-weight champion. The finish came near the close of the third round and while no decision was given last night's results will go down in history as a knockout victory for Leonard.

The end came one second before the bell rang in the third round.

There was never the chance for the bell to save Kilbane. He was helplessly beaten by Jimmy Dunn, his manager, passed all doubt aside by tossing his towel into the ring just as the bell sounded ending the fight. He thus openly admitted defeat of his protegee.

It was a sensational battle and the ending of the fight seemed to daze the 20,000 spectators as much as Leonard's wonderful and powerful punches dazed the mighty Kilbane.

When the men entered the ring they looked fit to fight the battle of their lives. Kilbane was in splendid trim and his manager said he weighed 126 pounds. Leonard looked a little finely drawn. He had scaled down to an even 123 pounds. But once he got into action, he never looked so strong or fought as fast as Leonard's powerful punches dazed the mighty Kilbane.

Leonard Always Leader There never was a question of the outcome after the first round. Kilbane was bested in this initial. But even then none could believe that in two rounds later he would be beaten into submission and Leonard, on the other hand, escaped almost without a scratch. He was forced to stop a few hard punches, but they left no mark. He was coolness itself. He fought with a directness and a composure that was remarkable. Even in the third round, when the men in his corner, seeing that Kilbane was promises unusual interest because of the recent record scores made by shooters from across the river.

The program calls for six events, four at 15 targets each and two at 20 each, making a total of 100 targets. Each city will be represented by a number of shooters and the ten highest scores will count in the league race.

The shoot-to-morrow will be according to Interstate Association rules and "deadshot" scores will count. There will be trophies for high score in the series, team championship and a season's purse. In each tournament and at the end of the league season the purses will be divided Lewis class system.

After numerous postponements the second shoot on the program of the Pennsylvania Four-City Trap Shooters' League will take place in this city to-morrow afternoon. Shooting starts on the Harrisburg Sportsmen's Association grounds at 1 o'clock.

Teams will compete from Harrisburg, Lancaster, York and West Fairview. Local shooters won the first match at Lancaster several weeks ago. West Fairview was a close second. The shoot-to-morrow

Man Who Beat Willard Joins the Navy

Joe Cox, the big heavyweight who made Jess Willard, the heavyweight champion, and circus performer, quit in a seven-round contest several years ago, has joined the United States Navy. This photograph shows his heart being tested with a stethoscope. The examiner found it sound, very sound. He said there would be no better heart in the navy.

The Sportlight by Grantland Rice

FROM THE GAME Since I have seen the greatest fade The game has ever known; Since I have watched the stars who played Drop out—and walk alone— The game at least has taught me this, From birth across to death, That headlines are a fleeting bliss And fame is but a breath.

A star renounced ties up the score, Amid the frenzied calls, But when you look for him once more He's back with Cedar Falls; But yesterday he ruled the field And held the rooster's trust; To-morrow on the record shield His name will be in dust.

WELLY'S CORNER

The Leonard-Kilbane bout is now a matter of history. It was a good exhibition while the battle was on. Leonard is a real champion and he proved it last night. However, there is some praise due Kilbane. He went up against a heavier boy and was out of his class. He was willing to take a licking for the money he made.

Hagerstown climbed all over Martinsburg yesterday and moved into first place in the Blue Ridge League. Hanover won a fourteen-inning victory from Frederick. There is no discounting the game in this league. It is real baseball even if there is a certain extent violations of rules in paying players.

Manager Charles J. Householder has a big attraction booked for West End A. C. on Saturday. The local champions will play the Reading team. This means some battle. Winters will pitch for Reading against his former teammates. The game will be played at Fourth and Seneca streets and preparations have been made for a large crowd. Play starts at 3 o'clock. These games have been attracting much interest.

Champion Jess Willard is in town to-day. He will probably be found in some cool spot about the finish. New boys will be taken over the scranton franchise. Just how they patch-up his circus. He has quite an attraction and according to reports is making money. The show was at Lewistown yesterday and was well patronized.

Boas street playground indoor baseball team last night won a doubleheader from Verbeke, score 5 to 4; and 14 to 3. Hamer and Daly were stars for Verbeke.

Christy Mathewson with his Cincinnati Reds are a big sensation in the National League. This western aggregation is after the Giants' scalp. It looks as if New York would get into a slump if reports about losing players by draft are true.

Tori Jones, former manager for Jess Willard, is now busy hunting a big fellow capable of knocking out his former meal ticket. There are big fellows in the country, but none of them know how to fight well enough to tackle the champion.

The Sixth Ward Casino will play the third game in a series with Middletown, at Island Park Saturday afternoon. The casinos have won a game. There is a postponed contest which will be played off at Middletown.

President J. H. Farrell says the New York State League will go through the season to the finish. New boys will be taken over the scranton franchise. Just how they patch-up his circus. He has quite an attraction and according to reports is making money. The show was at Lewistown yesterday and was well patronized.
