utes and replete with the spectacu-lar. Despite the heavy street car and vehicular traffic the Colonel seemed to be perfectly content. Interrupted frequently by applause he beamed on the wide expanse of faces as he drove home point after point with forceful gestures and the proverbial "pep." With face at times contorted and fists clenched the Colonel fre-quently stirred the immense crowd into thunderous applause as he drove home a point. He said in part:

drove nonic a prime part: "We have not enough rifles for our men. We are painfully short in equipment. We have not yet begun to assemble the draft army, the first elementary officers' training camps have not been finished, the National Guard has only just begun to mob-

Guard has only just begun to hoo-ilize. "We have put a fragment of our fine little regular army into France, and, as it is composed almost ex-clusively of infantry without artil-lery, it would be helpless against any well-equipped enemy were it not for our allies. "This is the sum total of the ac-tivities of a nation of 100,000,000 people, and in possession of incal-culable wealth and boundless re-sources, during the six month fol-lowing its entry (after two and one-half years' warning) into the great-est war in history. bowing its entry (after two and one-half years' warning) into the great-lest war in history.
Miracle of Inefficiency
"The simple truth is that, relatively to the other great nations of the world, we have in this war exhibited ourselves a miracle of inefficiency; and we shall always be inefficient during the first vital months of any war until we learn to prepare in advance.
"It is this utter unpreparedness, which should convey the real lesson to us of this war. And remember that as yet we as a people, acting through our governmental authorities, have not taken one step to avert disaster, in the future by introducing a permanent policy of prepared in a terrible emergency because we did nothing until the emergency actually arose and now, our government announces that what we are doing is purely temporary; that we shall stop doing it as soon as the emergency.
"It is this blind refusal—from the Nation's standpoint I can only call it the criminal refusal—to provide for the used for the order of America to speak.

and farsighted lover of America to speak. "We cannot afford to count for our safety on anything but our own armed strength; the only way to make our strength effective is to make it ready in advance; and the only way really to make ready in ad-vance is to introduce the principle of obligatory universal military training in time of peace for our young men, and universal service in time of war for every man and wom-an in the country, in whatever posi-tion that man or woman can do most effective work. This is the only democratic system." "At this moment our policy should consist in wholeheartedly bending our every first to win a woverwhelming
