Red Cross Auxiliary Gets Help From Rife People

Help From Rife People

Elizabethville, Pa., July 30.—Red Cross work in this locality was broadened when on Saturday evening members of the local auxillary, headed by Recorder James E. Lentz, and the Citizens' Cornet Band ofElizabethville, went to Rife and carried to those citizens the work of the society. There were more than a thousand persons gathered at the park. The band rendered a few selections, after which Mr. Lentz spoke on the work of the Red Cross.
He was followed by a recitation on "How Old Glory Got Its Name" by a young woman. The Rev. Mr.
Miller, of Killinger, and the Rev.
Mr. Rhoads, of this place, who has given two sons to the army, spoke.
A collection and Red Cross membership fees were taken, resulting in a good contribution to the work.
