

GOOD RECORDS OF MEN IN '98 MAKE AUGUSTA EAGER FOR BOYS OF '17

The high regard of residents of Augusta, Ga., for the Pennsylvania National Guardsmen, and probably the best explanation of why the people in that city again are making elaborate preparations for the comfort and accommodation of the troops from this state is shown by a set of resolutions adopted at a mass meeting held at the time of the Spanish-American war.

The resolutions as passed by the citizens of Augusta are as follows: "Hispano-American War. "Second Army Corps, Camp Mackenzie, Augusta, Ga.

Austria Looks Forward to Peace With Allies

London, Aug. 2. — A dispatch from Zurich, Switzerland, to the Wireless Press says: "A semi-official Vienna dispatch says that the Austrian Foreign Minister, read with great pleasure certain statements of Lord Robert Cecil, Minister of Pledges, in the House of Commons, which he interpreted as meaning that England does not regard Austria as a real enemy.

Gen. Pershing Inspects American Camp Work

American Training Camp in France, Aug. 2. — Major General John J. Pershing, commander of the American troops, arrived yesterday at the training camp for dress uniforms, which had been postponed from Monday. The program originally arranged for his reception was carried out. He was accompanied by three French generals and is expected to spend two or three days here.

My how that Resinol stops the itching! Only those who have themselves suffered from eczema or similar itchy, burning skin troubles can appreciate the relief that the first touch of Resinol Ointment brings.

Resinol Ointment is an excellent healing dressing, too, for burns, scalds, cuts and stubborn little sores. Sold by all druggists.

Wife's Job as Cook Keeps Him From Jail

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 1. — That the road to a man's heart is through his stomach was borne out in Judge Ralph Latashaw's court the Judge personally furnished the proof of the proverb.

Shepard whispered with Judge Latashaw and then announced that his sentence would be six months in jail

—but that in view of "extenuating circumstances" parole would be granted. "What were the extenuating circumstances?" Justice Shepard was asked later.

Americans Drinking Less Than Formerly

London, Aug. 1. — That Americans are drinking less alcohol was the observation in an article written just before his death by Sir Herbert Tret. The famous actor and a frequent visitor to the United States, he wrote: "It is the claim of New York which largely governs the lives of the

Century Old Woman Registers in Indiana

Vivay, Ind., Aug. 1. — Mrs. Mary Rous, who lives at the home of her son-in-law, Benjamin N. Davis, near Fairview, celebrated her 100th birthday anniversary recently by registering to vote at the constitutional delegate election in September. She is the oldest person in Switzerland county.

Children to celebrate her birthday with a family dinner, but this year an unusual feature was added to the event—that of registration. She was brought to the home of her son, Frank Rous, at Vevay, where an informal reception to her friends was held, and later was driven to the Courthouse where she signed a registration blank.

Mrs. Rous is the grandmother of three generations. She has twelve living grandchildren, twenty-two great-grandchildren and three great-great-grandchildren.

dorse the sentiment so happily expressed by the President of the United States that "sectional lines no longer mar the map of our common country," and we regard it as a fortunate circumstance that men from the North and men from the South, volunteered in a common cause, have shared together the fortunes of war and the hardships of camp, and that the thousands of men from the Northern States have been encamped for months in Southern communities where they have had the opportunity to observe for themselves the charm of our climate, the fervor of our friendship, and the patriotism of our people.

"Resolved, That the thanks of the country are due to the soldiers in camp as well as to the men at the front, and the volunteer, who left his home and business, and has faithfully complied with the regulations of camp during weary months of inaction, as it was a patriot as he whose fortune it was to face the enemy's guns.

This Horse Thinks U. S. Flag Is Good to Eat

A horse is wandering somewhere about the city ignorant of the fact that he may be held to account for a meal made from an American flag. L. H. Dennis, an employe of the Bureau of Vocational Education, allowed his car to stand for a few minutes in Market Square at noon today.

Germans Ate Animals Shown in Leipzig Zoo

New York, Aug. 2. — Miss Marie Brown, of Pittsburgh, the last American woman to leave Berlin, complained while here yesterday of the treatment of Americans in the German capital.
