IN WASTE SAVING

Harrisburg Enters Heartily Miss Elizabeth Garman and Into Spirit of Nursery Home Campaign

Residents of Harrisburg are cooperating heartily in the campaigr to redeem waste conducted by the Nursery Home. The 18,000 sanitary bags distributed are being rapidly filled and indications are that an nilled and indications are that an enormous amount of cast-off articles will be turned into cash to help the organization continue its work. Each bag has a printed list of articles most desirable. As soon as the bags are distributed auto trucks will begin collecting them and the work will continue until the entire city has been covered. Bugle calls will announce the arrival of collecting trucks in each street.

work will continue until the entire city has been covered. Bugle calls will announce the arrival of collecting trucks in each street.

Will Help Reduce Paper Cost
Close attention to the detail of saving rags and waste material, if followed in this and other cities, would be a great aid in reducing not only the cost of paper, but many other lines of production. There is the utmost need of such conservation.

In past years hundreds of thousands of dollars have been burned in back-yard benfires or thrown upon ash heaps. Much of this could have been redeemed and the proceeds used for just such work as the Nursery Home is doing if the possibilities of conservation had been properly impressed upon the minds of the people.

Work of Nursery Home

"There should be no doubt about the success of the campaign," a prominent person interested in the work of the Nursery Home said to-day. "This institution is doing a work highly important to the whole community: the work could be greatly extended and improved if the funds were available. No better movement than the waste saving campaign could have been launched to help the Nursery Home without making a direct appeal for money."

If you have received a bag, begin filling it at once, for the collectors will be in your neighborhood soon. If you have not received one, have your waste ready to put into one, for every home in the city will have a bag in the course of a few days.

CITY INTERESTED MORNING BRIDAL YOUNG PEOPLE IN NEW CHURCH TO DO THEIR 'BIT'

C. E. Societies Give 1,500 Copies of Song Books Hugh Scott First Couple to Soldiers to Be Married There

> It's clip, sew, make bandages, gather books and various literature, knit, plan benefits, accumulate all sary supplies possible, in all, being done for the soldiers these days, despite the fact that the thermometer registers $8½ degrees. Amid all the dash and whir of different organizations, individuals and corps of workers doing their share, great and meager along this wide and extensive avenue of service open to the entire public, the young people of this city have not forgotten the soldier boys. On the contrary, they are zealous in their efforts to do something, judging from an extract written to the various societies of the Harrisburg and Dauphin county Christian Endeavor Union. Following is a compendium of the letters. these days, despite the fact that the

"About July 15, two thousand of the young men from Dauphin and surrounding counties were called to the training camps wheres they will remain in abeyance for afficial orders to sail for France.

"The officers of the city C. E. Union with the approval of the county president are anxious that the endeavorers "do their bit" to help bring cheer and comfort to the soldiers and in a measure care for their spiritual welfare while they are deprived of home and friends. The Rev. H. Nelson Bassler, chaplain of the Eighth Regiment, at a recent meeting of the C. E. Cabinet, told of the serious handicap in the religious service of camp, due to the lack of gospel songbooks. He stated that he and the soldiers would greatly appreciate the gift of a thousand song books, for it was frequently through the singing of gospel songs that the heart of the soldier was most readily touched.

Washington, Aug. 2.—Because two officials of the consular service havling German names, changed them to sound more American, the Senate commerce committee to-day had to reconsider their nominations. They are Walter H. Schulz, of Oklahoma, who changed his name to Sholes, and Gaston Schmultz of Louisiana, whose name now is Smith. Both were reported favorably.

Coal Situation Not Encouraging

WITH the fall season only about six weeks ahead the situation does not look encouraging for the coal man.

There is comparatively little coal stored in the various retail yards. Some of the yards are practically bare, the dealers taking care of their customers with whatever coal they have been able to

Some sizes are practically unobtainable.

The demand for coal will be added to with the return of vacationists to his home after Labor day.

It is just a question of time when we will be compelled to stop taking orders for future delivery.

If you want to be sure of a warm home next winter, we strongly advise you to make immediate arrangements for the fuel.
