BOTH OLD AND NEW PLACES OF WORSHIP TO BE HONORED IN DEDICATORY EXERCISES

Chisuk Emuna Congregation Will Pay Last Respects to Former Building Before Opening New Synagogue at Sixth and Forster Streets. Elaborate Services.

CANTOR MEISELS

Dedicatory ceremonies will be held to-morrow at the Chisuk Emuna Synagogue, at Sixth and Forster streets. Farewell exercises will be held at the old place of worship in Filbert street, at 12:30 o'clock.

On the program are well-known speakers of the city and also prominent Jewish persons. Cantor S. Meisels, accompanied by Mrs. Meisels, will sing several vocal selections.

Another well-known speaker will be Rabbi Ashinsky, of Pittsburgh. The other men who will take part in the dedication are Joseph Claster, chairman; Cantor Meisels, accompanied by Mrs. Meisels, and later used as a tenor; Judge George Kunkel, Senator E. E. Beideman, City Commissioner and Eugene Cohen.

The following program will be followed: Opening, Joseph Claster, chairman; prayer, Rabbi Haas; "Sweet Land of Liberty," orchestra; "Ma-Tovu," Cantor Meisels, accompanied by Mrs. Meisels; address, Rabbi Ashinsky; "Haben Akur," Cantor Meisels, accompanied by Mrs. Meisels; address, Judge Kunkel; music, orchestra, ten pieces; address, Senator E. E. Beideman; "Ab Hovim," Cantor Meisels, accompanied by Mrs. Meisels; address, Commissioner Edward Z. Gross; "Rzeh," Cantor Meisels, accompanied by Mrs. Meisels; address, Rabbi Haas; "Veshomru," Cantor Meisels, accompanied by Mrs. Meisels; address, Robert Rosenberg; Ki Kesha, Cantor Meisels, accompanied by Mrs. Meisels; address, Eugene G. Cohen; "Adon Olam," Cantor Meisels, accompanied by Mrs. Meisels; "The Song of the Servant," Cantor Meisels, accompanied by Mrs. Meisels.

The Chisuk Emuna congregation is one of the oldest orthodox congregations in the city, having organized nearly thirty years ago.

The new synagogue was organized in 1911, and its membership is only two hundred and fifty of the prominent persons of Jewish faith in the city and vicinity. The structure is the one in the Capitol Park extension zone, and is made of pressed brick with marble trimmings. The windows are of art glass and well finished in the interior. The total cost of the building and furnishings is more than $55,000.

The hour of worship has been changed from the morning until the evening and will continue at that hour until the men leave for August 13. The Rev. George B. Remick, secretary of the board of directors, has invited the members of the congregation to attend the services.

The Rev. Harry Nelson Bassler, chaplain of the Eighteenth Regiment, will preach to the soldiers on Island Park to-morrow evening at 6:15 o'clock.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORERS RAISING FUND TO BUY HYMN BOOKS FOR TROOPS

Christian Endeavorers of Dauphin county and Harrisburg unions will make a big drive beginning to-morrow for contributions towards supplying the gospel to the boys of the Eighteenth Regiment who will soon leave the city for the training camps.

Every society will be called upon by letter or personally by members of the local union to do their "bit" in presenting the soldier boys with 1,500 or 2,000 copies of gospel songs and hymns, and the supply will be made with much difficulty.

The supply of necessary articles among many other things will help to make camp life more pleasant.

Contributions from individuals or societies can be forwarded to John D. Crider, 1913 Susquehanna street, or Charles R. Bartley, 1924 Bellevue Road, this city.

GIRLS TO CAMP FOR THREE WEEKS

Losh's Run Will Be Gathering Place For Many From Pine Street Church

The morning services of the Pine Street church will be conducted by the Rev. John Warden. The subject will be "The Rev. Raymond Ketchledge, the newly-installed pastor of the Camp Hill Presbyterian Church, will preach in the church in the evening.

Miss Marian Edsall, director of the work for the women and girls of the church, has taken up her duties and is now actively engaged in the preparation for the women and girls' summer camp.

Miss Edsall is a graduate of Columbia University and has specialized in home economics. For the past three years she has been doing social work in connection with Dr. Jefferson of the Broadway Tabernacle, New York.

When the women and girls' camp breaks up Miss Edsall will organize classes for the women and the girls of the church and Sunday schools.

Camu Boy, of the Pine Street Sunday schools, will be running from August 1 to 30 under the direction of Miss Edsall. The camp is located on the Juniata river at Losh's Run and is a splendid place for an outdoor summer camp.

Games will be provided. This tentative program will give some idea of a day's activities: 7:30 a. m., a setting up tent, an outdoor exercise, walks and games, dinner. Following dinner will be a quiet hour for rest, reading and writing.

A meeting will be held Monday evening at 7:30 in the church parlors to meet Miss Edsall and to make definite plans for the outing. All people interested in going to the camp should register by that date, if possible with Miss Edsall who can be reached at the Civic Club. The second week of the camp will be especially for the girls from 12 to 15 but a cordial welcome will be given to any of the women and girls who can arrange to go for a few days.

Two Churches Close With Work Exhibit

Closing exercises were held last evening in the vacation schools of the Pine Street and Market Square Presbyterian Churches.

Both services were held in the lecture rooms of the respective churches. Exhibitions in manual training were held following the programs given by the children. The enrollment of the Pine Street school was seventy-four, including thirty-four boys and forty girls. Miss Krail was superintendent of the Pine Street school, while Mrs. Robert W. Smith was superintendent of the Market Square school. Both schools were graded on the basis of the public school grading.

FIGHT FOR YOUR LIFE

Duty Demands Robust Health

Fight to get it and keep it

Fight—fight day and day out to prevent being overtaken by illness. Keep wrinkles from marred by the clock, keep your health in its youthful appearance and buoyancy. Fight when ill-health is common with its pallor and pains, defects and declining vigor. Fight to stay in your course and drive it off.

But fight intelligently. Don't fight without weapons that can win the day, for without the intelligent use of effective weapons the pallor spreads and weakness grows and a seemingly strong man or woman often becomes a prey to ill after all his course and drive it off.
