

TIMELY MUCH DAMAGE BY MONDAY'S STORM

Hail Cuts Tobacco and Lightning Strikes Buildings in Lancaster County

Marletta, Pa., Aug. 8.—The storm which visited Marletta and vicinity on Monday done more damage than was at first suspected upon investigation this morning.

On the Miller homestead, just above Marletta, the barn of Reuben Myers was burned during the storm, but it is not known whether lightning struck it or not.

At the home of Elmer Greenwalt, lightning played pranks in their kitchen, ran up the wall to the roof, tore out the rafters and knocked down considerable plastering.

At the home of Elmer Greenwalt, lightning played pranks in their kitchen, ran up the wall to the roof, tore out the rafters and knocked down considerable plastering.

NEWS OF CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA AND CITY'S SUBURBS

IN THE CUMBERLAND VALLEY

Series of Accidents to Swimmers at Good's Dam

Waynesboro, Pa., Aug. 8.—A number of persons who have been swimming in Good's Dam, near town, have been injured in one way or another.

MOUNT OLIVET CAMPMEETING Mechanicsburg, Pa., Aug. 8.—Arrangements are made for the annual Mount Olivet campmeeting to be held on the grounds along the Dillsburg and Mechanicsburg railroad.

MISS LIZZIE LEHMER DIES Dillsburg, Pa., Aug. 8.—Miss Lizzie Lehmer, aged 66 years, died at her home in Carroll township on Monday evening from paralysis.

QUENCHES THE THIRST Hershey's Acid Phosphate A teaspoonful in a glass of water is very refreshing to the mouth and throat.

RED CROSS WORK AT BLAIN Blain, Pa., Aug. 8.—The Red Cross auxiliary met to-day at headquarters in the vacant house belonging to L. M. Wentzell on North Main street.

Jewelry Found in Ruins of Burned Pen Mar Cottage

Waynesboro, Pa., Aug. 8.—While the insurance inspectors were viewing the ruins of the Pen-Rock Cottage at Pen Mar, owned by Randolph Debrick of Baltimore, and which was destroyed by fire last Friday, a considerable amount of jewelry settings was found.

TEACHERS' SALARIES RAISED Carlisle, Pa., Aug. 8.—Seven Carlisle schoolteachers' benefits under the new minimum salary bill recently approved by the Governor.

TEACHING SOLDIERS FRENCH Carlisle, Pa., Aug. 8.—Leading local society women are co-operating in a movement to teach the men of Company G, the remnants of the French language prior to their leaving for Georgia.

SURVEY OF POTATO CROP Carlisle, Pa., Aug. 8.—Under the direction of the Cumberland County Defense Committee, a survey of the potato crop will be shortly undertaken to determine the yield and arrangements will also be made for adequate storing.

BARN STRUCK BY LIGHTNING Waynesboro, Pa., Aug. 8.—A large bank barn on the farm owned by Herman Myers and tenanted by Frank Muritz, along the Old Forge road near Leitersburg, Md., was struck by lightning during the storm.

THREE MORDAN BROTHERS IN SAME COMPANY

Sunbury, Pa., Aug. 8.—Company I, Thirteenth Regiment, N. G. P., Captain Harry S. Barton, which is guarding bridges here, is one of the few units in the State Guard that boasts having three brothers enlisted.

TOAST ON BLUFF AT STOVERDALE

Members of Boys' Brigade Give Picturesque Entertainment For Cottagers

Stoverdale, Pa., Aug. 8.—A picturesque marshmallow toast was given on the "bluff" by members of the United Boys' Brigade, who are camping near the grove.

Guests of the Keystone Bible Class of the United Brethren Church of Hummelstown, who are occupying the Clifftop, were: Mrs. E. Bomgardner and children, Ruth, Stella, Meriam and Irvin; Mrs. Sowers, Mrs. S. D. Huff, Helen Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Henry, Susan Stover, Ella Albright, Maude Albright, Mary Culp, Caroline Baisbaugh, Emma Hoeker, Amy Brandt, Elizabeth Ruppert, Anna Ruppert, Emma Bachman, Anna Foltz, Mrs. Raymond Foltz, Mrs. S. R. McFarland, Vivian McFarland, Earnest McFarland, Elizabeth Peters, Bertha Meyers, Agnes Miller, Daisy Swisher, Lillian Deimler, Mrs. Henry Holtzman, Catherine Ulrich, Mrs. John Miller, Lillian Miller and the two teachers of the class, who are Miss Mabel Massey and Miss Lizzie O'Neal.

The Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Bieri, son John Jr. and daughter Catherine, of Hickory Lodge, spent the day at Hershey Park.

Perry County Union Picnic and Home-Coming Reunion

Blain, Pa., Aug. 8.—Saturday will be a big day in Sherman's Park, near Blain, on the occasion of the Blain annual union picnic and homecoming reunion of former Perry countyans.

The exercises will be held at 10 a. m., the Rev. George H. Knox, chairman. The exercises will be opened with prayer by the Rev. Edward V. Straubach; address of welcome for Blain and vicinity will be made by the Rev. J. C. Reighard, and the address of welcome for Perry county will be delivered by ex-Sheriff Charles L. Johnston, of New Bloomfield; response by Joseph M. Lupfer, of Bellwood. The principal speaker will be E. B. Dorsett, of Mansfield, Toga county, a State agricultural lecturer. The exercises will be interspersed with music by a union choir. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Wentzel, of Bellwood, will sing.

A game of ball will be played at 2 o'clock between Millertown and Blain clubs to decide the amateur championship of the county.

INCREASED PAY FOR LABOR Halifax, Pa., Aug. 8.—Borough council on Monday evening authorized the street commissioner to pay 20 cents per hour for labor, instead of 15 cents as heretofore, and instructed the light committee to have additional lights placed on Armstrong and Market streets.

Suburban Notes

HUMMELSTOWN Miss Bernice Jones returned home from a month's visit among friends at Millertown.

Miss Blanche Muth is the guest of friends at Clifton. Misses Grace Schaffner, Ruth Kilmer, Esta Kilmer, Catherine Shull, Elizabeth Ritts and Caroline Schaffner are attending a conference at the Young Women's Missionary Society of the Reformed Church at Mount Gretna.

Miss Anna Whisler, of Millertown, is the guest of the family of Thomas Jones. Miss Carrie Schaffner is spending the week at Mount Gretna. Mrs. Thomas Jacks and sons, William and Robert, spent Tuesday at Harrisburg.

ENTERTAINS IN HONOR OF GUEST

Miss Jessie Smith Gives Enjoyable Party at Mount Gretna For Visitor

Mount Gretna, Pa., Aug. 8.—Miss Jessie Smith entertained on Monday evening in honor of Miss Laura Cox, of Lynn, Mass., who is the guest of Miss Katherine Smith. The guests were: Misses Margaret Dunn, Jean Whitman, Helen Whitman, Dorothy Devot, Margaret Bell, Kathryn Cleckner, Mary Russell, Mary Shumier, Elizabeth Fackler, Agnes Fackler, Lida Lopez, Esther Bachman, Mildred Burke, Florence Rinkenbach, Elizabeth Howard, Katherine Smith, Laura and Jessie Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hummel, of the campmeeting grounds, are spending several days at Philadelphia.

Miss Clara Eaton and Miss F. Gertrude Eaton, of 1735 Market street, Harrisburg, are spending two weeks with friends here.

The opening services of the United Brethren Bible conference were held last evening. The Rev. George E. Guile, of Chicago, gave an excellent address. The program for to-day included a lecture, "Hebrews," by the Rev. Dr. Harris H. Gregg, of Chicago, and a lecture by Mrs. Margaret T. Russell, of Mobile, Ala. Children's hour was led by Miss Margaret Baitzell, of Reading, and a song service will be given this evening under direction of Charles F. Clippinger, of Harrisburg. At 7.40 there will be a lecture by the Rev. George E. Guile, of Chicago.

The educational rally will be held on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Dr. G. D. Gossard, president of Lebanon Valley College, Annville, will conduct the service.

Miss Anna Boyer entertained the following friends at her cottage last evening: Misses Kathryn Cleckner, Mildred Burke, Clara Eaton, Gertrude Eaton, Ruth Burke, Nell Myers, Mabel Groce, Mae Groce, Edna Boyer, Mrs. John W. German, Jr., Sarah E. Wood.

Miss Margaret Turner, of Harrisburg, spent the week-end with friends on the campmeeting grounds. Mrs. Walter Debrick and son, Walter, Jr., are spending some time at Mount Gretna.

Week-End Parties at Cove Cottages and Bungalows

Cove, Pa., Aug. 8.—Mr. and Mrs. Philip Beidler and John Schreck spent Sunday at Summer Home cottage.

Sunday guests at Utopia cottage were: Louis J. Jones, of Baltimore; William Jones, Harrisburg; Philip Arnold and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Ulrich, of Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Zimmerman, of New Cumberland, Mr. and Mrs. George Hippensteel and daughters, of Harrisburg, and Mrs. Charles Shaver and daughters, of Middletown, spent Sunday at Helena cottage.

Miss Mary Frances Ebel is visiting at Williams Grove.

Miss Bertha Beck and John Blair, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday at Tranquil cottage the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Beck, of 1503 Swatara street, Harrisburg, who are spending several weeks here.

John and Alva Speel, of Washington, D. C., spent Saturday evening at Cherry Croft cottage.

Frank Gipple, who is in camp at Island Park, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Gipple, at Donna Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Wingard, of 608 Woodbine street, Harrisburg, spent the week-end at Manhattan cottage.

Miss George Burd and daughter, Dorothy, have returned here after a pleasant visit to relatives at Tyrone.

Miss Margaret Rathfon, of 646 Peffer street, Harrisburg, spent the latter part of the week with Miss Ruth Shaver, here.

Entertained at Laurel cottage on Sunday were: Ellis Cremer, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Shrenk, Mrs. Bankus and Miss Hoffman, of Harrisburg; M. H. Shrenk and George Weekusat, of Philadelphia.

Week-End Parties at Cove Cottages and Bungalows

Cove, Pa., Aug. 8.—Mr. and Mrs. Philip Beidler and John Schreck spent Sunday at Summer Home cottage.

Sunday guests at Utopia cottage were: Louis J. Jones, of Baltimore; William Jones, Harrisburg; Philip Arnold and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Ulrich, of Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Zimmerman, of New Cumberland, Mr. and Mrs. George Hippensteel and daughters, of Harrisburg, and Mrs. Charles Shaver and daughters, of Middletown, spent Sunday at Helena cottage.

Miss Mary Frances Ebel is visiting at Williams Grove.

Miss Bertha Beck and John Blair, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday at Tranquil cottage the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Beck, of 1503 Swatara street, Harrisburg, who are spending several weeks here.

John and Alva Speel, of Washington, D. C., spent Saturday evening at Cherry Croft cottage.

Frank Gipple, who is in camp at Island Park, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Gipple, at Donna Lee.

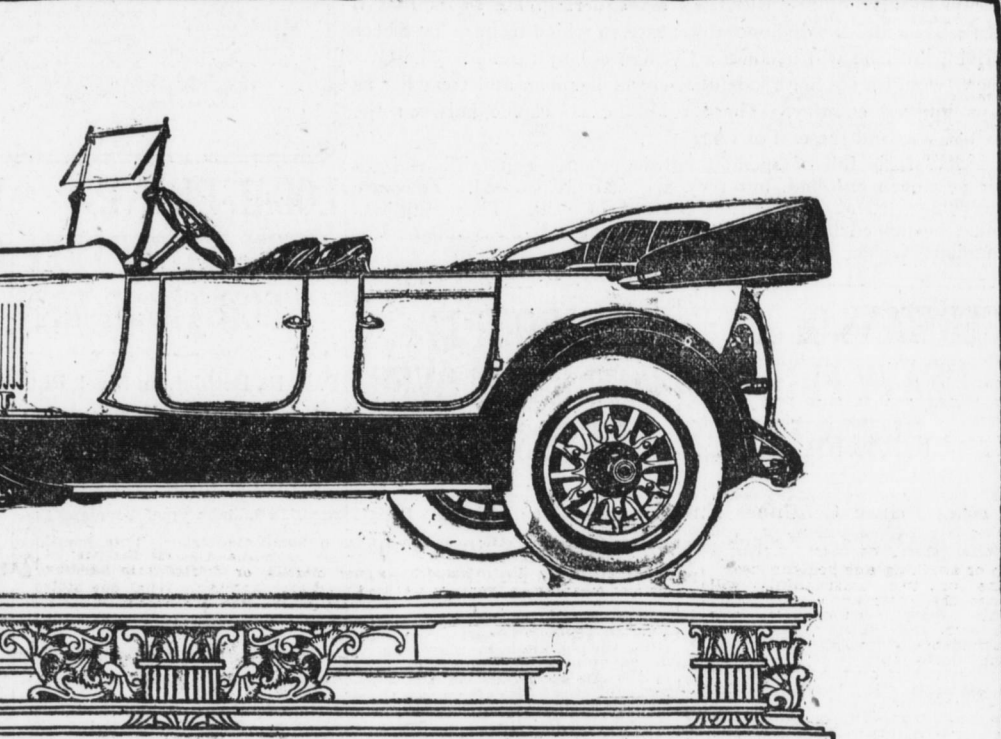

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Wingard, of 608 Woodbine street, Harrisburg, spent the week-end at Manhattan cottage.

Miss George Burd and daughter, Dorothy, have returned here after a pleasant visit to relatives at Tyrone.

Miss Margaret Rathfon, of 646 Peffer street, Harrisburg, spent the latter part of the week with Miss Ruth Shaver, here.

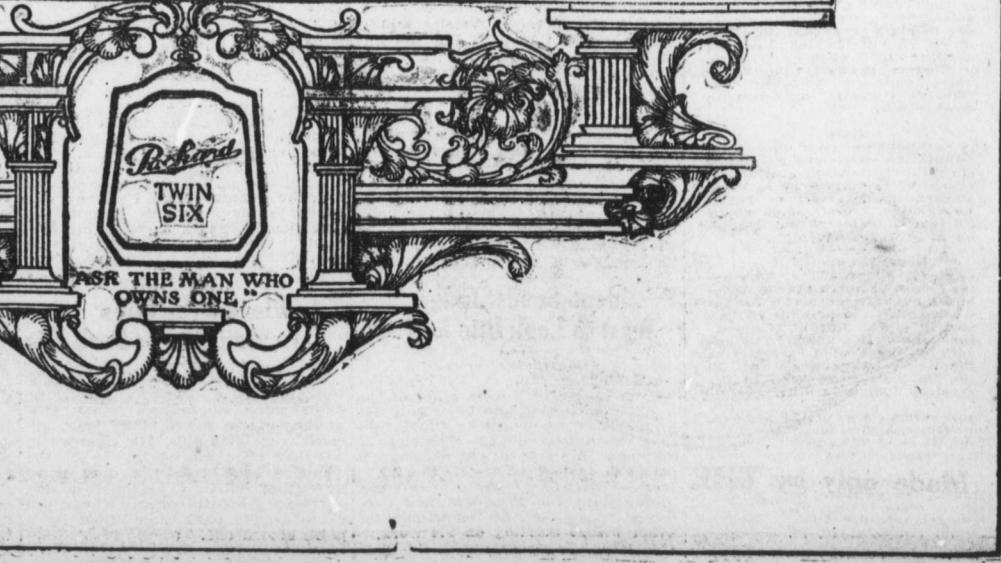

Entertained at Laurel cottage on Sunday were: Ellis Cremer, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Shrenk, Mrs. Bankus and Miss Hoffman, of Harrisburg; M. H. Shrenk and George Weekusat, of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Koehenour and daughter, Margaret, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday at Nabob cottage.

A new creation! A more beautiful Packard is here announced. Now—a remarkable accomplishment in body designing matches the achievement of the epoch-making Twin-six motor. And thereby is rounded out the smartest and most efficient motor car we have ever built. Branches and dealers today have ready for your inspection new models—3-25 and 3-35. Open car prices are $3450 and $3850 at Detroit.

Packard Motor Car Co. of Philadelphia 101 Market Street, Harrisburg

Advertisement for Franklin Sugar, featuring illustrations of jars of preserves, jams, and jellies, and a large graphic of a sugar bag. Text includes 'should be on every day's menus', 'SAVE THE FRUIT CROP', and 'A Franklin Sugar for every use'.

NO ACTION ON ANNEXATION Lemoyne, Pa., Aug. 8.—The monthly session of borough council was held last night. No action was taken on the West Shore annexation question and owing to the fact that the committee has received no reply from the Valley Railways Company on the proposed matter of paving Rossmoyne street, that matter had to be held over.

USE POSTUM instead of coffee and FEEL BETTER