MISS MILDRED SHEESLEY WINS HER WAY TO FINALS IN TENNIS TOURNAMENT---SPORTS

BOXER-MINISTER NOW BRAKEMAN; PAYS HIM MORE

Rhinelander, Wis., Aug. 9. — Formerly a prizefighter, then a minister of the gospel, and now a railroad brakeman, is the record of the Rev. Fred Wedge, of this city. While a pastor here he conducted boxing matches in his parish under the rules of the State Boxing Commission, and taught his Sunday school boys the rules of the fistic pastime.

Mr. Wedge now finds that with the H. C. of L. and debts to pay it is necessary to undertake a more lucrative profession. He says he can earn $125 a month on the railroad, which is more than he ever got as a preacher. He passed his examination for train service Saturday and will be given a run immediately between Ashland and Antigo.

BETHLEHEM STEEL LEAGUE HAS SUCCESSFUL SEASON HOW SIX TEAMS LINE UP

With the end of the season two weeks off, the Bethlehem League teams are showing a fast pace. It looks like Bethlehem as this year's winner. Steelton will finish just outside the cellar door. They play the tail-enders, Wilmington, at Steelton Saturday. The game promises much interest as Wilmington is anxious to win at least one game.

Ross E. Kauffman, sport writer on the North American, well known to many Harrisburgers, recently made a trip over the circuit. Here are some kind words the writer hands out:

"Whenever the Bethlehem Steel Corporation starts anything it does it right.

"The baseball league, which is enjoying its first year, is one of the most successful industrial organizations in this country.

"With a six-club circuit made up of teams from the plants in Bethlehem, Lebanon and Steelton, Pa.; Sparrows Point, Md.; Fore River, Mass., and Wilmington, Del., the race for the President Schwab trophy has attracted attention all over the east.

"All the players are employed by the Steel Corporation and work in the towns that they represent.

"College and former major and minor league stars appear to have the call in the make-up of the leading clubs.

"The names of several former big league players appear in the list, including Tom Jones, former Detroit and St. Louis first baseman, who is still starring at the first corner for Lebanon; Bill Ritter, former Phillie and Giant pitcher, who is also with the Lebanon team; Infielder Achenbach (Charles), former Cincinnati and Tri-State star, who is with Bethlehem; Runt Walsh, ex-Phillie all-around player, who is shortstop on the Sparrows Point team; Pie Way, former Yale and Giant recruit, who is Sparrows Point's leading pitcher, and a few more.

"Bethlehem and Lebanon appear to be the class of the league. Each team has won seven out of eight games and they are deadlocked for the lead. Sparrows Point has a firm hold on third place and still has a chance to threaten the leaders. Fore River is fourth, Steelton fifth and Wilmington last.

"The Delawareans have failed to win a game in seven starts. The company appears a trifle too fast for them, but they are all pluggers and seem to be getting a lot of enjoyment out of the league games.

"No other industrial and few minor leaguers have such a widely scattered circuit. From Lebanon, Steelton or Bethlehem, Pa., to Fore River, Mass., is a jump of more than 350 miles. Whenever one of these teams is scheduled to play in Fore River on a Saturday, it is necessary to leave on Friday. The jump from Bethlehem to Sparrows Point, Md., is more than 150 miles.

"Bethlehem and Lebanon, the two teams that are fighting for the championship honors, have a bunch of star players.

Lehigh Stars in Line-up

"Anderson and Wright, a former Lehigh University battery, do the bulk of the work for the Schwab headquarters team. Wright also saw service in Lafayette. Mathag and Twombley, two of Lehigh's hardest hitters during the last season, are playing in the outfield, and Yap, former Lehigh first baseman, who first attracted attention as a member of the Chinese University team, which toured this country for several years, is also in the outfield.

"Achenbach, who used to play under the name of Charles in the old Tri-State, is second base, and Fishburn, Lehigh's brilliant shortstop, is holding down that position. Tesch and Roth minor league sluggers, are playing third and first base, respectively.

Bill Ritter is the star pitcher of the Lebanon team. The ex-Phil curver recently held Fore River to one hit. He had an excellent receiver in Hart. Tom Jones, a veteran Pennsylvanian, who used to whale out home runs while with St. Louis and Detroit, is still hitting the ball hard. He plays first base. Clauser and Keating, two clever minor leaguers, are second base and shortstop, respectively. Speraw is at third.

"In the Lebanon outfield are Hobey Light, Penn's brilliant halfback and left fielder; Zeigler, a Lebanon Valley College lad, and Yeiser. Light is a big favorite with his home-town fans.

The Steelton team is virtually made up of Villanova and Swarthmore players. John Ogden, Eddie Carris, Allie Cornog, all of Swarthmore fame, and Murray, Robinson, McGuckin and McGeehan, of Villanova, are on the team. Miller and Zellers are also regulars. Hoar, former Gettysburg College football and baseball star, is a member of the pitching staff.

"Steelton has been somewhat of a disappointment, as the team has won but two out of eight games.

"Sparrows Point has a well-balanced team, with Runt Walsh, Bill Cranston, Kolseth and Bahs holding down the infield posts. Cranston has seen considerable service in the New York State and other minor leagues. Walsh's last league job was with the Federals. Pie Way, ex-Yale football and baseball star, pitches all the games, and has been fairly successful. Last year Way was with Rochester, in the International League.

"The Fore River team is made up principally of New England collegians, semiprofessionals and amateurs. Duggan, a former Federal League and New England outfielder, is included.

The Harlan and Hollingsworth team, representing Wilmington, contains several semiprofs, the leading battery being Hamilton and Kelly.

All the clubs are drawing well and in most towns the Steel Corporation has built new fields. It's a real league.

NEAR FINALS IN TENNIS TOURNEY

Miss Mildred Sheesley Is Big Star; Charles Fager Winner Yesterday

Fast work by local tennis stars yesterday brought the program almost to the final point. A large part of the program was cleaned up.

Mrs. Chris Sauers, women's city singles champion, and her partner, Mrs. John Runkle, obtained revenge for last year's tournament defeat when they captured a hard-fought three-set match from Miss Mildred Sheesley and Miss Catherine Martin in the initial round of women's doubles in the Greater Harrisburg tennis tournament. Both teams played sensational tennis.

Miss Shessley, who has been playing a brilliant game, defeated Miss Marion Black in two sets in the singles. She will meet Mrs. Runkle in the final. The summaries follow:

Women singles, semifinal round—Miss Mildred Shessley defeated Miss Marion Black, 6-1, 7-5.

Women's doubles, first round—Mrs. Chris Sauers and Mrs. John Runkle defeated Miss Catherine Martin and Miss Mildred Sheesley, 6-2, 11-13, 6-4; Miss Marion Black and Miss Lucille Beard defeated Mrs. E. C. Shelley and Miss R. Wall, 6-1, 6-0.

Mixed doubles, preliminary round—Miss Marion Black and Charles Dasher defeated Miss Janet Eckels and Edgar Clark, 2-6, 5-7, 4-6.

Men's singles, second round—Charles Fager defeated J. C. Kunkel 6-2, 6-3.

Men's doubles, preliminary round—Shreiner and Beard defeated Pollock and Trump, 7-5, 7-5.

Wally Schang Responsible For Athletics' Victory

Philadelphia, Aug. 9.—It was a game with a delicate finish that the Mackmen wrested from the St. Louis Browns yesterday by the score of 6 to 5 in the tenth inning. The finish was given to the fracas suddenly by Wally Schang, who bounced the ball into the bleachers after Stuffy McInnis was perched on first as the outcome of a hit to right field.

Wally's hit brought home the two runs necessary to top the score compiled by the Brownies, the tail-end members of the American League race. It was a real championship game, for the Macks and Browns are racing each other hard for the cellar position. But the game was fought for just as if the pennant depended upon the outcome.

Company I Baseball Team Plays Troopers Saturday

Harrisburg fans are receiving excellent treatment in Saturday offerings. To-day it was announced that Company I would meet the Governor's Troop in a game at Island Park Saturday. Should the infantry win, the next game will be played between Company I and Company D for the championship. These games furnish much interest and attract good crowds.

On West End field the second game between the Midway A. C. and West End A. A. will be played. Midway is the only team that has defeated the Householder crew this season, and Saturday's battle promises plenty of excitement.

Willard Winis Two Heats; Rain Stops Altoona Races

Altoona, Aug. 9. — Rain stopped the second day's racing at the Blair county fair this afternoon at the end of the fifth heat. To-day's unfinished program will be run to-morrow before the regular Thursday card is taken up in the 2.18 pace.

Willard, the Pottsville entry, won the two heats decided. He outraced his field. Alice Mabel won the opening heat in the 2.20 pace. May Stevens, the Wickert entry, of Reading, outpaced her, however, in the second heat in slower time.

The Philadelphia trotter, Bourbon Chimes, nosed out Whitley in the only heat decided in the 2.30 trot.

WHAT OF IT?

Perhap the time is nearing when we'll all go to the front;
But what of it?
The married man, the single man, the brawny and the runt;
Some twenty millions now have gone—the bravest and the best—
From every land beneath the sun to face the final test;
Why should we hope to hang around within a down nest?
So what of it?

Perhaps in somber No Man's Land we'll know our final sleep;
But what of it?
We'll find our dreams are shattered where the hand of Fate is rough;
But what of it?
We'll find that all our idle joys have come beneath a ban;
We'll find our share of bitterness among the fighting clan;
But was Life made for a weakling—or was Life made for a Man?
So what of it?

Perhaps among the fallen brave we'll find the grave is deep;
But what of it?
Perhaps in sombre No Man's Land we'll know our final sleep;
But what of it?
Since each of us owes God a death—and each has got to pay—
Why not swing out with valiant stride along the open way
To where the Great Adventure waits this side of Judgment Day?
So what of it?

THE UP AND DOWN CLUB

In the season's count at least two stars have suffered heavy casualties so far, and are now in the throes of the worst campaign they have ever known.

One is a veteran and one a youngster, but both have been listed among the best.

In the American League, Walter Johnson has suffered thirteen defeats, more than any pitcher in his circuit. He has had his share of hard luck, but to lead the league in defeats is an unusual turn for a pitcher listed among the greatest of the game.

The second slump belongs to Al Mamaux. Mamaux has been accustomed to a high place in the pitching councils, even with a losing club. But this season out of fourteen attempts Mamaux has perpetrated only two victories against twelve defeats, a mighty drop from his first two years, when he looked to be one of the coming stars.

THE OLD CUNNING REMAINS

It has been two years now since Travers has taken part in an amateur championship.

For the last two years he has known very little of tournament play, as his game has been confided to the Saturday afternoon and Sunday schedule. So, despite his known record for match play greatness, no one thought the five-time champion was quite good enough to face the task he tackled last week.

He was called upon to face three of the greatest golfers in the country over three of the hardest New York courses, all varying in style. He was put in against Gil Nicholls at Baltusrol, Jock Hutchinson at Siwanoy, and Walter Hagen at Garden City. This is about as tough a schedule as any golfer could take on. But after fifty-four holes of match play against this formidable trio, including three of the most brilliant professionals in America, Travers finished five holes to the good. He was 3 up on Nicholls, 1 down to Hutchinson and 3 up on Hagen. And the two shots that beat him in the Hutchinson match were a 330-yard drive and a 240-yard spoon shot to an uphill green, two of the most remarkable shots of the year. This showing is evidence enough that Travers will still be on hand as a championship contender when tournament play is resumed beyond the Red Horizon.

IN REVERY

The White Sox team can face the test;
They swat the ball and all the rest;
They field and run and cover ground,
Their men get on and get around;
And yet I'm glad I had no hunch
To bet against that Red Sox bunch.

WHEREIN SOMETHING WAS SAID

Nipper Campbell, the eminent Scotch pro was playing a hard match in the recent War Relief Tournament.

On a certain tee The Nipper hooked to a deep trap.

"Oh, I'm sorry," remarked his opponent.

"Ye're a liar," said The Nipper, "and I won't be sorry if ye go there yeself."

Which, if a trifle crude, was the truth. How many golfers who say so are actually sorry when an opponent in a hard match slaps one into a deep trap or cracks one out of bounds? You know the answer.

The Giants might crack under the strain if there happened to be a strain near enough to crack under. Which doesn't seem to be just at this steamy moment.

WELLY'S CORNER

Rain put a crimp in racing yesterday at Columbus and Altoona. Two heats were run off in events on each track and then came rain. The finish to-day promises something interesting.

Ban Johnson may need a guardian, according to a general belief in baseballdom. First he breaks into print on the elimination of the world's series plan. Then he comes out with a proposition to make a European trip. To-day he is announced as having waged war on gamblers at baseball games. His last move is the most popular.

Whistling Bill Coughlin is through with baseball. "Bill" said this before, but this time he says it is the gospel truth. He has a tempting offer to go into the real estate business. Coughlin was some star in his time. He played with the Washington and Detroit Americans.

Baseball is flourishing in the Mexican capital. At present there are 102 organized amateur baseball nines. Sports in Mexico last twelve months in a year. Even in the rainy season the mornings furnish ideal weather for baseball and other sports.

Much interest is manifested in the result to-day of the final match in the women's singles in the local tennis tournament. Miss Mildred Sheesley will meet Mrs. Runkle.

Ray Bates and Winnie Noyes, stars with Connie Mack, say they will remain in the game until the government sends for them.

AMUSEMENTS

ORPHEUM — To-night — "Some Babies." (Burlesque).

Wednesday, matinee and night, August 15 — Edmund Hayes and Co., in "Some Show." (Burlesque).

COLONIAL—"Caste."

REGENT—"The Jaguar's Claws."

PAXTANG PARK—Vaudeville.

Peggy Hyland in "Caste"

To-day only, the Greater Vitagraph will present Peggy Hyland and Sir John Hare in the evergreen comedy by T. W. Robertson, entitled "Caste." Caste, that barrier of pretense, built on false pride and empty honors of birth, has brought much of earth's unhappiness. But love is too sacred, too inspired a thing to be cheated of its fulfillment. Occasionally a man or a woman, strong enough to tear down the bars that convention has set between the rich and the poor, the high and the lowly, teaches the world that caste is the creed of fools, the safeguard of weaklings. To see "Caste" is to see a world-famous play that has become a classic of the modern theater — a drama that every man and woman will be the better for having witnessed. One of those popular crook plays that will keep you interested, "Time Locks and Diamonds," is the Triangle feature starring William Desmond at the Colonial for to-morrow only. Saturday, Triangle presents Bessie Barriscale as the betwitching man-hater in "Hater of Men." This is a comedy of New York's Bohemia, and the Fourth Estate by C. Gardner Sullivan.

Sessue Hayakawa at the Regent To-day

The Regent Theater to-day presents Sessue Hayakawa, the noted Japanese actor, in "The Jaguar's Claws." As a Mexican bandit, Mr. Hayakawa captures two American girls and the young American oil field manager, who is the bridegroom of one of the girls and the brother of the other one. Having the three in his power, El Jaguar gives the man the right to take one of the girls into safety, but the other must remain with him. The young American is at a loss what to do; whether to save his young sister to the mercy of the bandit, or his bride of a few days. How the problem is solved is brought about in a most startling manner.

Margaret Illington will make her second screen appearance to-morrow in an adaptation of Basil King's celebrated novel, "The Inner Shrine."

The Bill at Paxtang

The free fireworks display at Paxtang Park this evening will be the biggest attraction in the way of local amusements for the week. An unusually elaborate program is promised by the park management. Although the fireworks market is somewhat low, owing to the war situation, material for several good fireworks shows has been secured for Paxtang. Several pyrotechnical novelties have been selected for the display to-night, and Manager Davis guarantees to have a real old-time fireworks show ready for the park's many patrons.

The vaudeville bill at the Park Theater this week is one of the most pleasing shows of the season. The feature attraction is a musical comedy offering of more than ordinary excellence, called "Marcella." The cast of "Marcella" consist of two clever comedians and eight pretty young ladies. The musical numbers are all new and catchy, while the comedy dialog is bright and snappy.

The balance of the park show is made up of strictly high-class material.

Miss Molla Bjurstedt Is Winner in New York Event

Southampton, U. Y., Aug. 9. — John R. Strachan, of San Francisco, won the principal tennis match in the invitation round robin singles at the Meadow Club yesterday, defeating Frederick C. Inman, 6-2, 7-5.

S. H. Voshell, national indoor champion, and F. C. Baggs, won the doubles match, defeating Dr. William Rosenbaum and L. E. Mahan, 2-6, 6-2, 6-4.

The east and west had an even break in the women's single matches in the round robin series. Miss Molla Bjurstedt, the national champion, easily outplayed Mrs. Robert H. Williams, of California, 6-0, 6-2. Miss Bjurstedt sent her shots over so fast and hard that her adversary could not check her.

Miss Mary K. Browne, of California, defeated Mrs. Rawson Wood, of Florida, State champion, 6-0, 6-2. Miss Browne enlivened the match by her spectacular recoveries.

In the men's doubles F. B. Alexander, former national champion and internationalist, paired with Harold A. Throckmorton, defeated Howard Voshell and Frederick C. Baggs, 4-6, 6-4, 6-0.

LOCAL SHOTS IN GOOD FORM

Prominent in Atglen Shoot; New Jersey Champion Pulls Down Honors

Harrisburg shooters fared well yesterday in the money divisions in the Atglen shoot. In the 150 target event Wilson broke 127, G. Martin 128, Dinger 135, J. G. Martin 145, Godcharles 138, Cleckner 131.

In the 100-bird race for the Red Cross the scores were: Wilson 86, G. Martin 83, Dwyer 93, J. G. Martin 96, Godcharles 93, Cleckner 86.

Platt Big Winner

Clarence Platt, of Bridgeton, holder of the New Jersey target championship, showed his prowess with the scattershot gun. In the 150-target event the Jersey marksman scored 146 of his birds and topped the simon-pures. He also divided the day's high gun honors with A. A. Sommers, a professional.

It was a great day for the Skeeter State gunner. He ran his first 121 straight before one slipped. His marksmanship was spectacular and sensational. As far as the amateurs were concerned, Platt made a clean sweep.

Three state champions competed in the shoot, which was very auspiciously handled by Lloyd Lewis. They were L. Beauchamp, of Delaware; Clarence Platt, of Jersey, and Charles H. Newcomb, of Pennsylvania. The Delawarean was second with 144, followed by Newcomb.

In the Red Cross 100-target event Fred Plum, of Atlantic City, had the stuff and romped down to the shore with the silver trophy. He cracked all but one in the century test. A. A. Sommer's shooting kept him right with the leaders most of the time. In this shoot he was runner-up to Plum, along with Nefa Apgar, with 98 "kills."

More than $125 was raised by the shoot. The contest started at 10.30 a. m. Lunch was served by the Ladies' Red Cross Auxiliary.

Zellers Slams Ball Hard; Wins Game For Steelton Over Altoona Car Shops

Zeller's slam in ninth inning after two men were out yesterday, brought a victory for Steelton over Altoona Car Shop team. Score 5 to 4. It was a nip and tuck battle from start to finish. Steelton was in a hitting mood. Both teams fielded fast. The score:—

Hick-A-Thrifts Win in Game With Galahads

The Hick-A-Thrifts got back into their old-time form yesterday, winning from the Galahads, score 3 to 1. Pitcher Irwin did not allow the Galahads a hit. Harris, of the winning team, made the longest hit of the season, the ball going over the telephone wires in Seventeenth street. The one run by Galahads was scored on an overthrow and error.

JOSH DEVORE IS NOW DAIRYMAN; HAS MILK DEPOT

Josh Devore, at one time a near idol at the Polo Grounds, when a member of the Giants' team and cavorting about in right field, has at last given up the game and is now running a milk route in Chillicothe, Ohio.

While playing the national game Josh was a charmer for world's series money, getting into the cash division twice with the Giants and once with the Bostons. Never a great player, he was, however, a favorite with the bleacher contingent and had a warm corner in the hearts of most of them.

Devore knew enough to save some of his money and has now invested in a ready-made milk business, serving the lacteal fluid to his customers without too much water in it, in order to hold trade and provide the wherewithal which will come to him no longer from the world's series gate.

Joe Schultz Will Get Three Years' Back Salary

JOE SCHULTZ.

Joe Schultz, former Brooklyn player, who by a decision of the National Commission, is to collect three years' back salary from the Pittsburgh and Los Angeles clubs. Schultz was transferred by the Brooklyn club to the Chicago National League club and later to the Pittsburgh club, which in turn released him to the Los Angeles club. In May, 1912, the latter organization notified the Pittsburgh club that Schultz had been returned to it. The Pittsburgh club did not accept him, and the commission authorized Schultz to find employment elsewhere without prejudice to his interests, pending a decision in his case. Schultz joined the Toronto club.
