CHARGES AGAINST TWO PATROLMEN WILL BE PROBED

Officers Bibb and Kautz Summoned to Appear Before Council

With two formal complaints lodged against city police officers, Acting Mayor Gorgas will ask Council next Tuesday to set a date for hearing

The first complaint was made yesterday by Samuel Fishman, proprietor of the Lenox Hotel, who charges that Officer A. D. Bibb, colored, used loud, boisterous and unseemly language and talked in an abusive manner. According to the police department, Fishman is charged with violation of a city traffic ordinance. Alderman Deshong has reserved his decision in the case.

Shong has reserved his decision in the case. The other complaint was made today by C. E. Webb, 120 North Seventeenth street, who alleged that Officer Kautz, while on duty at Fourth and Market streets, neglected his duty and did not stop a dog fight. In the charge it is stated a bystander stopped the fight. Mr. Webb claims Officer Kautz was asked to separate the dogs.

Acting Mayor Gorgas stated both cases would be taken up by him when Council meets on Tuesday.

Officials of Traction Companies Are Not Contemplating Fare Jump

"Officials of the Harrisburg Railways Company have not considered a fare increase, and are not considering one now." was the statement made today by F. B. Musser, president of the trolley company. Mr. Musser had just the company with the company of six-cent fares on the transit lines did not consider it seriously. the transit lines off six-cent fares on the transit lines off off on consider it seriously.

"While fare increases are being granted, I understand, in cities in New England States, and have been proposed in Pennsylvani in some places, Harrisburg Railways officials have not considered them.

"The fare-increase movement is bound to spread because of the constantly increasing cost of materials, labor and maintenance of the lines, but there is no indication that six-cent fares will be proposed here now."

Officials of the Valley Railways Company also stated no increase is contemplated.
