

CAPTAIN TAKES FIRST GERMAN

Goes With French "Over the Top" and Takes a 200-Pounder

American Expeditionary Army Aug. 13.—An American captain who returned from the French front yesterday, took a German prisoner.

The officer was at the front only for observation, but when he heard that a small raid was planned, he begged to be included in the party.

His French guide objected, saying: "My orders are not to get you killed."

"I hope you carry out your order," replied the American, "but I have been instructed to see just as much as I can."

He went and made the trip over No Mans Land to a close-lying trench. The German was subdued when prodded in the abdomen with an automatic but the captain was anxious to preserve his souvenir intact.

The German was a sergeant. His captor found it impossible to move him to enthusiasm by the information that he had the honor to be the first German captured by an American. He weighed 220 pounds and was the largest German taken on a particular front in more than a month.

The attention of the Americans from now on will be largely devoted to rifle practice.

There seems to be some difficulty in procuring ranges. There are now several two-hundred-yard ranges but none has yet been constructed for longer work.

A location, however, has been found for two fifteen-hundred-yard ranges where sniping can be taught.

The construction of ranges is difficult on account of the labor of digging trenches through the rocky soil. In one place half the French and the Americans to complete.

The Sammes found their side much harder, and indeed the work of getting the pick through seemed so arduous that the officer ordered his men to quit the job.

A general arrived. "I'm not going to have any of my men say while the French are capturing them," he said. And the work was carried to completion.

26 COUNTIES ARE ON '50-50' BASIS

State and Local Communities Will Join in Building of Roads

Twenty-six counties of the State are reported by the State Highway Department to have specified their intention to unite with the Commonwealth on a "fifty-fifty" basis for construction of roads.

This number includes Allegheny, which was the first to act under the law of 1895 authorizing counties to borrow money for highway construction and which has the best road system of any county in the State, most of which is incorporated in the State highway system.

In addition several counties have united with the State for construction of through roads.

The counties which have agreed to go in with the State on equal shares of cost of construction, which will require some of the counties to issue bonds if they do not raise the money by other means such as contributions for road roads associations or special taxes, are Allegheny, Armstrong, Butler, Beaver, Bradford, Crawford, Cambria, Chester, Erie, Elk, Fayette, Greene, Indiana, Lawrence, Luzerne, McKean, Mercer, Montgomery, Northampton, Northumberland, Potter, Tioga, Somerset, Venango, Washington and Westmoreland.

All of these counties have set no limit to the sum they are willing to spend as long as the State is willing to expend a similar amount for some purposes, says a department statement. "State highway construction under the 'fifty-fifty' basis plan means that the State Highway Department makes the surveys and plans; lets the contracts and supervises the work in detail."

The counties working with the State for the purpose of Allegheny, Beaver, Butler, Lawrence, Mercer, Crawford and Erie which are planning for a road from Pittsburgh to Erie.

City Manager Plan Up Again in Altoona

Altoona, Pa., Aug. 13.—The proposition for a trial of the city manager is still being pressed. It is probable that a committee of fifty-eight citizens, two of them from each precinct in the city, will recommend four candidates on the issue.

On the other hand many residents are said to be not willing to adopt such a plan of conducting municipal affairs. The present commissioners, it is understood, may seek re-election and appeal to the conservative element to not make a change at this time.

Presbyterian Church Will Have Reformed Minister

Millerstown, Pa., Aug. 13.—Not contenting itself to its own denomination, the local Presbyterian church has gone into the Reformed church to secure its new minister, the Rev. C. A. Waltman, who comes from the Seward, Pa., Reformed church. The salary of the Rev. Mr. Waltman will be $1,000 and parsonage for serving the Millerstown and Perry Valley Presbyterian churches.

CLIMBED STAIRS ON HER HANDS

Too Ill to Walk Upright. Operation Advised. Saved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

This woman now raises chickens and does manual labor. Read her story: "Richmond, Ind.—'For two years I was so sick and weak with troubles from my age that when I got up stairs I had to go very slowly with my hands on the banisters, then slip down at the top to rest. The doctor said he thought I should have an operation, and my friends thought I would not live to move into our new house. My daughter asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and she had taken it with good results. I gained in strength, moved into our new home, did all kinds of garden work, shoveled dirt, did building and cement work, and raised hundreds of chickens and ducks. I cannot say enough in praise of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and if these facts are useful you may publish them for the benefit of other women.'—Mrs. M. O. Johnston, Route D, Box 190, Richmond, Ind.

Snake Oil

STRENGTHS GAHER AT MT. GRETTA

Only Perfunctory Routine Is Imposed Upon Soldiers on Sunday

Mt. Gretna, Pa., Aug. 13.—A crowd estimated at fifteen thousand, from all parts of Eastern and Central Pennsylvania congregated yesterday. A fair proportion was attracted by a campmeeting, but the majority visited the camp of the United States auxiliary units between services. There were over four hundred bugles and carriages and about two thousand automobiles parked in various sections of the military reservation.

The day was given over almost entirely to the entertainment of guests and only the most perfunctory routine was imposed upon the soldiers.

Uniforms, hats, leggings, shoes, underwear and other supplies were issued yesterday to the enlisted men of the military police and yesterday afternoon after the apparel had been donned, Captain Henry Croft, commander of the Philadelphia Company, and Captain J. Clyde Miller, commander of the 10th Pennsylvania, made an inspection of their respective commands for the first time in full uniform.

Allen Bids Farewell Captain Charles Allen, U. S. A., who was detailed as chief musterins officer, is preparing to leave Monday, and yesterday assembled all the commissioned officers of the camp to Lieutenant Colonel H. H. Williams' headquarters and bid them farewell, after making a most instructive address as to the proper care of their commands when they reach active service and giving them general advice of a most instructive kind.

Notice has been received by Lieutenant Colonel F. A. Snyder, commander of the Regiment of Engineers, to the effect that Companies D, E, F, G, H, I, J, K, L, M, N, O, P, Q, R, S, T, U, V, W, X, Y, Z, and the 1st Battalion of Engineers will arrive to-day. These troops will find their tents erected and a splendid camp with a warm mess awaiting them. These are newly enlisted organizations, and are largely inexperienced men.

Captain George W. Roberts, commander of Troop C, First Pennsylvania Cavalry, formerly the Governor's Troop, was a visitor during the day at headquarters.

AMUSEMENTS

ORPHEUM—Wednesday, matinee and night, August 15—"Some Show" (Burlesque). Thursday, August 16 and 17, with daily matinees—"The Innocent Maids" (Burlesque). Friday, August 18—"The Law of Compensation" (Burlesque). Saturday, August 19—"The Undying Flame" (Burlesque). PAXTANG PARK—Vaudeville.

Norma Talmadge, in a powerful drama of timely interest, "The Law of Compensation" which offers this time advancing among the young, popular favorites in "The Dog Catcher's Love," also a Metro comedy, "Let Us Forget," are the added features. On Wednesday, for one day only, the Metro Film Company will present a wonderful play of the great outdoors, "The Hidden Spring" featuring Harold Lockwood. Lockwood is a young man who has been born and brought up in cities, but who has got out into the wilds whenever it was possible.

Discriminating lovers of the silent drama are promised a noteworthy feature in the Regent Theater when they visit the Regent To-day where Mme. Olga Petrova is being presented in her first Paramount picture, "The Undying Flame." As a child of ancient Egypt, Mme. Petrova is gloriously beautiful in her pagan jewelry, sandals and queer, flimsy garments, and it is easy to imagine her as Pharaoh's daughter, wandering about the palaces of the banks of the Nile. This princess unfortunately falls in love with a mere shepherd lad, but of course, the dignity of her rank will not allow them to marry. Thus it is the plighting their troth after the manner of lovers in those days, they break in two a rare scarab, symbol of affection and each keeps half, although they are destined never to see each other again. Centuries later, Grace Leslie, the princess meets the reincarnated spirit of the shepherd, and they discover that each of them possesses a half of the scarab, and although they are not aware of the fact that they have known each other centuries before, they marry, thus fulfilling their destiny and accomplishing the mission of the mystic scarab.

To say that the coming week's bill at the Paxtang Park Theater will be the one presented by the park management during the past week would be a strong statement, but Manager Davis assures us that his show for this week will be one of the best ever had.

The headline act will be furnished by H. D. Berg, a producer of national reputation, who will offer his latest production, "An Heir For a Night," a miniature musical comedy with laughs galore. Arthur Winst, comedian; Cecil Renard, ingenue, and Fred J. Raymond, Jr., juvenile, are the principal characters in the farce and they are supported by a "Ziegfeldian" beauty.

The stage settings and costumes are said to be two of the most prominent features, while a quaint humor that runs through the entire piece, puts it in a class when compared with the average girl act. Others who will be seen with this week's show at the park theater are Mons. Herbert, who presents a most amusing novelty musical offering, and Jack Poik, a monologist, with a new line of funny stories and laugh-provoking parodies.

In conjunction with the regular vaudeville show, a three-reel feature film, entitled "The King of the Road," will be shown at each evening performance. The first reel pictures all the different forms of transportation, beginning with the period when the Indian squaw used her papoose on her back, up to the final triumph of modern transportation—the electrification of 40 miles of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad over the Rocky Mountains. The second reel shows the construction of nearly 2,000-horse-power, and the third reel takes the audience on a 200-mile ride through the American Alps on the north end of the electric locomotive. On Thursday evening there will be a free fireworks display at Paxtang, and the park management promises to make this display gorgeous enough to make up for the exhibition that was prevented by bad weather last Thursday evening.

DRAFT LAW IS TIGHTENING UP

Crowder Says Exemptions Are to Be Made Only For Benefit of Nation

Washington, Aug. 13.—Renewed emphasis was laid by Provost Marshal General Crowder yesterday upon the fact that Congress framed the army draft law in the interest of the nation, not of the individual. For that reason the lines are being drawn tight in the matter of exemptions.

There has been much discussion, which assumed that married men, for instance, would be exempted without question. General Crowder has taken the position in recent rulings that married men will be exempted only when it is to the interest of the Government that they should be excused from service.

If the removal of the drafted man from his family circle probably would result in the family becoming a public burden, it is to the interest of the Government to leave him in his civil occupation, so as not to care for his dependents.

An interpretation similarly rigid has now been placed upon exemptions for industrial reasons. An employer seeking exemption for a man he considers indispensable must first make a showing in regard to that business, he must prove to the board's satisfaction that his industry is necessary to the public interest or to the maintenance of the military establishment, and supplement this showing with affidavits stating that the particular individual is indispensable to the industry.

Reasons must be given as to why it would be impossible to replace the registered man with another, not of military age, or with a woman.

German Wireless Station Seized Off Mexican Coast Mexico City, Aug. 13.—What is believed to have been a German information forwarding station has been discovered by Mexican officials on Lobos Island, a lighthouse station off the Mexican coast northeast of Tuxtepec. The Mexican authorities believe the station might have been converted into a submarine or naval base had it not been located by them.

The government recently decided to place a wireless station on Lobos Island, and when Manuel Rodriguez Gutierrez, secretary of communications, went to Tampico on a trip of inspection, he sent Alberto Mendez, chief of the Wireless Department of Communications, to the island. On his arrival at the island Mendez found a complete wireless plant in operation. It had been built by the lighthouse keeper, who formerly was a mechanic. He was unable to give a satisfactory account of how he obtained the wireless apparatus and he was placed under arrest.

Mendez also learned that a launch which had made the island its headquarters had been carrying supplies, arms and ammunition to rebels on the mainland, who had been interrupting traffic around Tuxtepec and interfering with the oil business. The launch was confiscated.

JELlicoe NEEDS REST TO QUIT AS SEA LORD

London, Aug. 13.—In well-informed naval circles, says the "Sunday Times," a further change in the personnel of the Admiralty Board is expected shortly as Admiral Jellicoe, the First Sea Lord, feels that he is in urgent need of rest.

In the event of Admiral Jellicoe's resignation, the newspaper adds, Vice Admiral Sir David Beatty, commander of the British Grand Fleet, probably will succeed him.

FISHERMEN DROWN Boston, Aug. 12.—Nineteen Portuguese fishermen, of Provincetown, were drowned when dories in which they were fishing off Cape Cod were swamped by a gale that came up suddenly late Friday afternoon. The men were from the fishing schooners Mary C. Santos and The Natallie.
