Contractors Are Busy With the Remodeling of the Store's Interior

Many departments are being moved to new locations and given more space for selling.

There is naturally some confusion and we ask you to overlook any little inconvenience at this time in locating departments.

When the changes have been completed the store will be able to facilitate the easy handling of our increasing volume of business; by showing more merchandise—by improved service—and you will enjoy added comfort and convenience when shopping here.

The Women's and Misses' Garment Section has now double the space it formerly occupied.

The Corsets and Muslin Underwear Departments are now located on the second floor.

Infants' and Children's Sections now moved to the front of the second floor.

Other changes will be announced in the store's publicity as the various plans are consummated.
