WAR VETERAN DIES

Marietta, Pa., Aug. 17.—George Washington Shriener, aged 81 years, the last of the Shreiner family, ploneers of Marietta, died Wednesday night. He was a veteran of the Civil War, belonging to Company E. One Hundred Seventh P. V. V., of which the late Colonel Emanuel D. Roath, of Marietta, was captain at the outbreak of the rebellion. He was wounded and was among the survivors of the battle of Gettysburg. His wife, five children and eight grandchildren survive. ing its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with
