A MESSAGE FROM A FRONT TRENCH
When my time comes and all farewells are said
To what few friends may still survive the fight,
I shall not shrink to hear the ghostly tread
That signals Death is stalking through the night
To lead me forth across the Mystic Moor
Unto the Tavern of the Silent Land—
But I shall smile—and through the open door
We two shall go, as good friends—hand in hand.

There I shall meet the friends who've gone before,
And we shall gather in a room apart,
And, cup to cup, shall pledge the days of yore,
Soul unto soul and silent heart to heart;
And there beneath the crimson rose that nods
And sways above us, free from toil and strife,
We'll quaff to you—forgotten by the gods—
Poor souls who linger at the Inn of Life.

Some Favorites Beaten In Grand Circuit Races

Cleveland, Aug. 17.—The three-year-old trotting stake furnished the thrills at yesterday's Grand Circuit meeting at North Randall. Miss Bertha Dillon, the favorite, broke badly in the first heat, but won the second, and in the third was trotted off her feet by Harvest Gale, who won the first and also the final heat, capturing first money.

The 2.11 trot also furnished considerable excitement, as Early Dreams won in straight heats, Busy's Lassie, the favorite, not even being within the money.
